LORD MAYOR JIGS

LONDON'S CHIEF MAGISTRATE IN NEW ROLE.

Delights His Native Town—Takes Part in Old Fashioned Festivities and is Wildly Cheered By Hundreds of Tourists.

SIR WILLIAM TRELOAR.

London, May 8.—With an amazing sprightliness and amid the cheers of thousands of spectators, the staid lord mayor of London danced merrily through the sunny streets of his native town, Helston, Cornwall, to-day, to the accompaniment of inspiring music. It was not a pas seul for an exhibition of the lord mayor's tepid accomplishments. Hundreds of his fellow-townfolk were dancing at the same time in an outburst of frivolity worthy of a simpler age. Helston, for many centuries past, has observed the merry spring festival, which those versed in folk-dance connect with the worship of the goddess, Flora, one of the main features being all day dancing in the streets and through houses, the doors of which are left open for the occasion.

The festival is seldom heard of except locally, but the presence of the lord mayor of London this year gave it a special boom. The august chief of the British metropolis entered into the fun with childlike gaiety. Wearing the glossiest of tall hats and faultlessly attired in a tail-coat and frock coat, he led off the day's dancing, walking briskly with a pretty Cornish girl along the roadway and sidewalk, only stopping when lack of breath and weariness of limbs compelled him to halt and mop his dripping brow.

Scores of couples followed his lead until the whole town was tearing along amid the plaudits of thousands of spectators. Every now and then the whole procession passed through a shop or house, waiting to the rear and then through another house. The page was so hot that the little more than half an hour and escaped among the crowds to rest and recover his dignity.

REAL BUSY BURGLAR.

Pleads Guilty to Nineteen Charges of House Breaking.

Winnipeg, May 9.—"If every person in the world were given his deserts, there would not today be a man outside the penitentiary," was a statement made in the police court, by John G. Sterling, after he had pleaded guilty to eleven additional charges of housebreaking, making nineteen in all. The man had been operating in a city which time he stole goods valued at anywhere from $2,000 to $4,000. He was remanded.

SOCIETY WOMEN AS NURSES.

Lady Managers of Hospital Help to Break Strike.

Zanesville, Ohio, May 9.—Owing to a clash of authority between the matron, Mrs. Mary Jamison, and Dr. J. C. Holston, at the city hospital, and the consequent resignation of the matron, the entire force of nurses went on strike, yesterday. Eight of the society women of the city, who constitute the board of lady managers, donned the caps of the nurses and went to work waiting upon the sick.

FATAL LEAP.

Prisoner Jumps From Train to Rocks Below.

Ashcroft, B.C., May 9.—Paul Mannarino, prisoner from Nelson on his way to the penitentiary, in charge of Constable Webster, jumped through a car window on a train yesterday. The train was running at the rate of forty miles an hour. Mannarino landed head first on the rocks, thirty or forty feet below, where he was picked up insensible and died a few minutes later.

Notes From Tamworth.

Tamworth, May 8.—Joseph Thompson, Campbellford, visited friends in town last week. Amos Robinson has started to build his new store. Patrick Desre has sold his property in Tamworth to Thomas Kams for $3,500. John Gardner and wife, Kingston, are at D. E. Rose's. Fletcher Dymond lost a valuable horse last week.

Only Thirteen Lost.

Montevideo, Uruguay, May 9.—An official report from the government authorities, says that all the passengers, nearly 300, mostly Spanish emigrants of the wrecked steamer Poiton, have been rescued with the exception of thirteen.

The Strike Outlook.

San Francisco, Cal., May 9.—The local situation regarding the street railway strike is more reassuring to-day. The police are fully competent to cope with the strikers and their sympathizers.

Thirty-five per cent. of inebriates who remain in inebriate retreats for a year or more are permanently cured.

NEWBURGH NEWS.

Baseball Matches to Be Played Saturday.

Newburgh, May 9.—Quarterly meeting in the Methodist church, on Sunday morning, was largely attended. The service in the evening was with drawn and a large number of the congregation attended the service in the Presbyterian church, on Sunday morning. Gaucher preached an excellent sermon on "Remember Lot's Wife."

The baseball game between the Newburgh high school and Napanee was to be postponed, on Saturday, owing to Diamond Park being covered with snow. Two games are on the bill for next Saturday, the high school team clashing with Napanee, at 2 p.m., and with Crofton at 4 p.m. Skinner will likely pitch the first game and George Shore the little southpaw, will likely do the slab work against Crofton.

J. W. Courtney has a pigeon that has hatched a hen's egg and a pigeon egg. F. D. Shroyer and Master (Gladstone) spent Sunday with J. E. Shroyer, Canifton. Percy Madden left, on Sunday night, for Montreal, to join the steamer Hamilton, on which boat he will be pursued during the coming week. Friday held division court, here, on Friday last. Lieut. W. G. Beaman, who has been stationed at Quebec, spent Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Beaman. Mrs. McArthur has completed her course as stenographer at Kingston Business College. James J. Shroyer spent Friday in Peterboro, with his son, Earl Shroyer.

Extravagant Women.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt planned an entertainment, and she wanted one feature to be the presentation in her own home of one act of the play "The Millionaire" is visiting at J. M. Denays'. Mrs. Curlette is visiting at C. H. Finkle's. Mrs. Finkle spent a few days last week, in Napanee. There will be a literary at the Epworth League on Monday evening.

Thought Check A Bill.

Denver Post.

A woman stepped up to the window of the paying teller in a Denver bank recently and asked the teller to cash the gratuity. It was for $4.

"Put your name on the back, please," said the teller.

"Is this your name?" he asked.

The woman sighed. "Yes," she replied. "What's my name. It calls for $4, doesn't it?"

"It does," said the teller.

While the man in the cage was looking the cheque over the woman fumbled in her pocket, and then placed a $5 bill before him.

"Take it out of that, please," she said. "It seems to me I'll never get through paying bills."

For a moment the teller was puzzled. Then he realized that the woman didn't understand the cheque. "You don't have to pay me," he said. "I have to pay you $4."

He pushed her $5 bill and gave her $4 in silver. The woman was very much surprised. "You have to pay me?" she said. "Why, I thought it was a bill and that I had to pay it."

Clever Surgical Act.

The salvation of Judah Hirsch in a New York hospital, the other day, was the nerve and prompt action of Dr. Julius London. As he passed between the rows of cots the doctor heard a noise; in a second he had located it, when Hirsch was lying. The man was strangling. There must have been action in the physician's brain beside which lightning would appear a small blow to the head. The doctor had no instrument. To save his patient he meant the loss of seconds enough to give death the place in a flash of a pearl-handled pocket knife was out of the surgeon's hand and the blade was deftly plunged into the neck of the struggling man. A spurt of blood and the man was relieved. Proper remedies were soon at hand, a tube was inserted, and the operation of tracheotomy performed with a penknife. The patient awoke as neat a piece of work as the hospital had ever seen.

Poppy's Diversified Uses.

New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Boris family still live from the Easter ruck, but he had earned a great deal of money, and that made him talkative. "Roses and lilies yield," he said, "cologne, and violet petals, candied, are edible, but the most useful of all flowers is the poppy. The juice of the poppy gives us opium. The seed is pleasant and nutritious—poppy seed cake is one of the best cake feeds. And the oil answers a hundred purposes. It is used to mix artists' colors, to cook with like olive oil, to make soap, and in lamps. Truly, beside the industrious poppy, the idle lily and the rose must hang their heads."

Hereditary Barbers.

Philadelphia Record.

A wonderful family of barbers is that of Benjamin M. Youells, who lives at Easton, and although eighty-seven years old, still wields a razor. Of his nine children, all of whom are living, the three sons are barbers, and two of his six daughters handle a razor as skillfully as a man. The other four daughters married barbers. Nine of his eleven grandchildren are barbers, and his seven great-grandchildren say they will become knights of the razor.

Cigarettes In China.

South China News.

The empress dowager received a memorial advising the suppression of the cigarette. She evidently did not know the pleasures or dangers of the cigarette, and as she did not want any anti-dynastic trick she called in the palace doctor, who supported the memorial. The empress dowager is so credulous that all the cigarette in the palace be collected and thrown into the lake.

Will Serve Three Years.

John Armstrong, sentenced at Perth, on Monday, to three years for house-breaking, arrived at the penitentiary Wednesday evening.

A MINING DIVISION

AND A RECORDER'S OFFICE AT LATCHFORD.

An Order-in-Council has Been Passed—Banking Methods Commented Upon By Justice Riddell.

Toronto, May 9.—An order-in-council has been passed setting apart a portion of the Temagami forest reserve, mining division, under the name of the Montreal River mining division. They will comprise the Lady Evelyn Lake and other sections generally spoken of as the Montreal River mining division. The recorder's office will be located at Latchford.

A motion was made before Justice Mabee, this morning, to adjourn the London election conspiracy trial. Argument will be heard to-morrow.

Some banking methods were commented upon by Justice Riddell, this morning, in giving judgment in the case of Robert Bovins, a farmer, of Cannington, against the Home Bank. The defendants became possessed of some notes forged by Ernest Bovins, brother of Robert Bovins, and the latter, to save his brother, gave his notes for the amount of the forged notes. Robert Bovins, afterwards, sued to recover these notes. Justice Riddell gave judgment, ordering the bank to deliver up the notes. He said the bank was trying to use the crime to try and get the money back, and that both sides had been guilty of a great wrong.

John Waidie, and associates, of the Victoria Harbor Lumber company, who have just purchased the large lumber properties and mill of the Mrs. MacArthur Lumber company, paying therefore the reported sum of $2,000,000, will carry on the business separate from the Victoria Harbor company. The capital of the new company is $1,200,000. The government will be allowed to ask a change of name probably to the Waidie Bros. Lumber Co., Limited. The new shareholders and directors are: John Waidie, chairman of the board; F. N. Waidie, president; R. S. Waidie, vice-president; W. S. Waidie and C. G. Marlett, Oakville.

Stead On Newness.

New York Times.

The wisdom of W. T. Stead requires to be revised, edited, and brought down to date. He persists in repeating the antiquated statement, "The empire of the world is a constitutional monarchy, a republic, an empire, a commune, and has again become a republic. The Hapsburgs no longer rule the Holy Roman empire because it has ceased to exist, and are content to be emperors of Austria, of which they have long been archdukes, kings of Hungary, of Bohemia, etc. The German empire is but a thig of yesterday, the kingdom of Italy is hardly out of its swaddling clothes, the kingdom of Sweden has passed from the Ymas to the Bernadottes, the kingdom of Norway has just reached the kindergarten age. Roumelia, Bulgaria, and Servia have been born as states; the last vestige of royalty has passed away from Mexico and South America. The power of Japan has passed from the Shogun to the Mikado, a revolution largely due to the forcible introduction of American ideas, and Japan has taken her place among the great powers."

As for the tight little isle which Mr. Stead does his best to perturb, it has become the United Kingdom, its monarchs have ceased to style themselves either electors or kings of Hanover, are no longer Guelfs but Wettins, and have become by the grace of Bismarck, Kaisers i Hund. We are not so awfully new, here in America.

A Man And A Policy.

Canadian Courier.

Albertans unite in their admiration of a man and a policy. The man is William H. Cassin, proprietor of the public work, and the policy is that of the government ownership of telephones. The man is the father of the policy. He is a native of the county of Wellington, Ont., and came west in his early twenties, and located at Calgary, then practically an outpost of civilization. Young Cassin's capital consisted wholly of a good character, and plenty of persistence. He started in business, and, though he passed through the worst of the lean years in Calgary's history, he had strong faith in the future of the great west. That business grew steadily and is one of the largest manufacturing concerns west of Winnipeg.

Now as to the policy. At the very first session of the parliament of Alberta, Mr. Cassin presented a petition with that great corporation, the Bell Telephone company. The public knew the statement wasn't a bluff. Little over a year's time, one branch of the government telephone system, that from Calgary to Banff, had been completed, and the construction of another line, from Coleman to the town of Macleod, had been commenced. The Alberta government telephone system is already a reality and apart from New Zealand, and a couple of other provinces of the Australian commonwealth, is the only government system in existence amongst the colonies of the British empire.

Tree Fountain.

London Sphere.

An extraordinary curiosity is to be seen in the village of Gunion, on the Thun lake, which takes the form of a natural tree fountain, the water flowing continuously, apparently, from the trunk of the living tree, and shows the wonderful vitality of cut wood.

About twenty years ago the water of the spring was conducted through a shaft and the supply pipe was directed through the cut trunk of a young poplar tree, which was rammed in the ground. After a short time it became patent that the trunk had struck root, and branches were pushing themselves well forward; at the present time a splendid top growth is to be seen. The pipe and tree have become inseparable.

Settled By The Courts.

The word "growler" as applied to the trade between the tenant and the corner saloon has received the highest legal sanction. A Brooklyn judge defines a "growler" as a pitcher, jug, pail or can taken to the saloon for the purpose of being filled with beer, while to "rush" it is to get home before the foam has entirely disappeared.

Worse And Worse.

Philadelphia Enquirer.

School Mistress—Now, tell me the truth, Johnny Jones. You know what will happen if you tell a lie, don't you?

Johnny Jones—Yes, ma'am. I'll go to a bad place.

School Mistress—And that isn't the worst of it. You'll also be expelled from school!

It is improbable that there will be a coadjutor selected to assist Archbishop Sweatman, of Toronto.

FRONTENAC CHEESE BOARD.

Selling Price Takes Jump to 12 5-16c.

The regular meeting of the Frontenac cheese board was held, on Thursday afternoon, with a large attendance. Bidding was very brisk, the price going as high as 12 5-16c., and at this price 175 boxes were sold. The number of boxes boarded was 250, all the factories selling, with the exception of Cold Springs and Latimer. The following boarded:

White-McGrath's, 30; Latimer, 35; Merring Star, 30; Cold Springs, 40; Sunbury, 30; total, 165.

Colored—Glenburnie, 30; Bay View, 30; Ontario, 25; total, 85.

The bidding was opened by Mr. Gibson, at 11 1/2c., and was raised gradually by other members, until 12 5-16c. was reached.

There was a short discussion in reference to the holding of the board meetings on Saturdays instead of on Thursdays, but it was found that some of the factories could not board cheese on Saturday, and it was decided not to make any change.

ROYAL Baking Powder

preserves its leavening strength until used. The last spoonful in a can is as good as the first, and its work is always uniform. Housekeepers have been vexed when using other powders to find their work uneven. If good when fresh, before the can is empty they make sour or heavy food, and the flour, eggs and butter used therein are wasted. This is because they are made from alum or other cheap and inferior ingredients.

Food always sweet and light can be assured only by the use of Royal Baking Powder exclusively.

GANANOQUE NEWS.

The Leather Workers' Strike is Ended.

Gananoque, May 9.—The members of the local branch of the Brotherhood of Leather Workers on horse goods, who have been out on strike since early in March have at last come to terms with W. E. Acton, proprietor of the Gananoque Harness Works. Their wages have been adjusted and a satisfactory scale agreed upon, while the non-union men who have been at work in the establishment will either join the brotherhood or quit. The men in consequence resumed work yesterday morning.

The Sons of England Benefit Society held a concert in their lodge rooms last evening. There was an especially good attendance. Frank Ames filled the chair.

The schooner Winnie Wing and Tradewind cleared for Oswego last evening.

David Studon, corner Charles and Wellington street, has added a 12 x 12 addition to his residence. William Salter, corner Garden and James streets, is seriously ill. Robert Sheppard, King street, spent the day in Kingston.

Miss Rachel Whitmore, of Kingston, is visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore, Garden street. W. V. Bulloch, corner Charles and Pine streets, is having extensive improvements made to his residence, two additions of brick having been added to the main building.

An expert optician examines your eyes when you get glasses at Chown's Drug Store.
