SETTING AN EXAMPLE.

Managing Director

The chairman of the school book commission, Mr. Crothers, of Thomas, has put himself on record a most remarkable manner. When asked to serve upon the commission he assented. No reference was mad as to compensation. He had reason to ecouped for any expenses which h neurred. He travelled considerably $2,000, however, he returned it to the government with thanks. He had been knowing that he rendered the people a service. His outlay was $192, and he desired a cheque for that amount only. The example in public spirit is commendable. One cannot imagine the of the Mr. Crothers stamp in Canada He is the first one who, under similar circumstances, has been willing to serve under the government of th sideration. He has taken a position which will not be forgotten when commissions are talked of after this.
