GETTING DOWN TO FACTS. Mr. Beck, when in Kingston, said that in process of time, under the direction of his commission, the people would be offered electric energy at the rate of 6c. or 6c. per kilo-watt.

Now a Kingston manufacturer asserts, as the outcome of his investigations that electricity generated at some distant water falls cannot be secured any cheaper than when generated by steam.

It has a corps of engineers and experts who are capable of demonstrating the possibilities of water power, and of the cost of generating and transmitting electric energy from point to point.

CONTEMPT OF THE LORDS. Mr. Stead accounts for the attitude of Mr. Balfour towards the Irish council bill. It is one of sheer prejudice.

THE LORDS MAKE CONFESSION. The dominant note in imperial politics some time since was legislative reform, and the eyes of good men were directed to the lords who had heartlessly rejected the education bill.

January To Be Pardoned. Washington, May 11.—Attorney General Bonaparte has recommended that the sentence of John William January, alias Charles W. Anderson, be commuted.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS

The professor's Mistake. Peterboro Daily Review. Just think what a future Prof. Goldwin Smith would have if he could only let some of those baseball writers trim up his English a little.

The Lords. Montreal Herald. If the proposed intentions of the British government are carried out, the House of Lords will in future consist of the Lords, Spiritual, Temporal and Temporary.

Shocking! Hamilton Times. The Linotype plays some queer tricks. On Saturday a Toronto paper contained an Ottawa despatch, describing how a man was electrocuted by coming in contact with a live wire.

Blind As To That. Toronto Star. In refusing to accept any remuneration for his services on the school commission, T. W. Crothers incurs a certain amount of censure for shutting his eyes to the main purpose for which commissions are appointed.

Is He Wise? London Advertiser. Premier Campbell-Bannerman refuses to sanction legislation preventing marriages of the unfit, arguing, very properly, that if all marriages were happy, this earth would be such a heaven that nobody would care to leave it.

Jobs At A Discount. Toronto Telegram. T. W. Crothers has made it impossible for commissioners appointed by the Ontario government to take pay for public work.

Foreible Intervention. Goldwin Smith, in Weekly Sun. Legislative or enforced intervention such as the act for the prevention of strikes, must fail, as it has failed on this occasion.

The Postal Rate Row. St. Thomas Times. The Canadian Press Association, or the few members who comprise its executive committee, have passed a resolution commending the action of the post office department.

Rebellion In India. That's serious, with Minto in the governorship. He's not as strong as Curzon. But Kitchener is there, and he's a power.

Syracuse has a new and popular fad. It is to have every local manufacturer labelled "Made in Syracuse." It's a catching advertisement, and there's money in it.

The Brockville labour men are not in favour of forming a branch of the Canadian labour party.

The ballot has had a new experience in the New York insurance elections. At the hands of the policyholders' committee it has been chloroformed.

The good roads boom will be on next week, when Mr. Campbell, Ontario's expert commissioner, will be here to give the people sound advice.

The New York legislature has said it, and now there is a two-cent-a-mile rate on all the railways carrying passengers in the state.

Roosevelt is styled America's great reformer. He commands respect with his awful club.

Stead succeeded, in Montreal, in arousing the audience he addressed. The people hissed him.

Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, multi-millionaire, has designs upon the presidency of the republic.

Goldwin Smith thinks the Irish people would be satisfied with a little more attention from royalty and a little less political agitation.

The republican party of New York state has rallied to the support of Mr. Hughes. The leaders (who were recently fighting the governor), heard something.
