A SCANDAL IN QUEBEC. The statement of Baron de Lepine, at Quebec, in the Prevost-Asselin case, will call for a fuller investigation, and into all the facts. It concerns the manner in which the public affairs' of the adjoining province have been onducted. De Lepine represented Belgian syndicate which had option on some land in the Abitib district, the fee to be $1 per acre. This land, in the first place, was reported upon by an officer of the crown lands department, who was absent from office for weeks while he was performing the work. He claims that he was serving the department at the same time, but the province was the heart, nervous prostration, amothering and sinking spells, weakness, dizziness, cleeplessness and many other treubles follow.
