Worth Fifty Thousand Lives on a Dime a Day.
Chicago, Ill., May 29.—Living among the corpses of paupers in the county morgue awaiting the last rites, the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Schaufelberg, sixty years old, who, it was discovered after her death, was worth more than $20,000. This Hotty Green, of Chicago, lived in a ten-cent room in the Model boarding house, 13 E. Wadsworth place, until April 29th, when she was taken to hospital. Following with the superintendent of the Boarding house, Schaufelberg, hid away in her dilapidated baggage, tax books showing her to be the owner of real estate on Monroe street and of valuable building park and Grossdale banking sites. There were also a bank book showing $5,000 in deposits, a bundle of interest-bearing bonds and $1,000 in currency. She lived with the utmost frugality. She paid a dime daily for her room; she ate an apple for luncheon; a crust of bread and a small tin of butter were her only food. Her clothing was of the shabbiest.

WAS A RIGHT

THEOLOGICAL CASE
TO BE HEARD AT METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Principal Shaw Attacked the Teachings of Dr. Workman and a Committee Will Investigate—Dr. Workman's Denial—He Enters Accusation of Libel.
Montreal, May 29.—The Montreal conference of the Methodist church, at Ganoanoye, this week, will be called upon to give a decision upon a charge of libel brought by Rev. Prof. George Workman, Ph.D., against Rev. Dr. Shaw, principal of the Wesleyan Theological College, in this city.
Rev. Dr. Workman, who is the professor of Old Testament exegesis and literature in the Wesleyan College, stands for critical views of scripture, and for historical methods of interpreting scripture. He has been well known before he came to Montreal, and it is understood that he regarded his appointment as being made for the purpose of representing such views, and of interpreting the scriptures in accordance with what he maintains are the approved principles of exegesis. Recently, however, at a meeting of the governors of the college, the question was raised as to whether Dr. Workman really was teaching the doctrines of the Methodist church to the young men studying at the college for the ministry.
Dr. Shaw, the principal of the college, replied in a document in which he alleged that Dr. Workman denied the doctrine of inherited sin, the doctrine of the atonement, as involving any expiatory element in the death of Christ, further, he asserted that Dr. Workman denied the virgin birth of Christ, and rejected the genuineness and historicity of the fourth gospel and some other points of doctrine.
Having heard and discussed Principal Shaw's statement, the governors, by a vote of nine out of thirteen, decided to inquire into the doctrinal attitude of Dr. Workman, and a committee of six, of which Principal Shaw was a member, was organized to find out in a friendly way if possible, as to what Dr. Workman's views are.
Immediately after this, Principal Shaw charged him with libel. This charge was brought before the committee appointed for that purpose, and after a session lasting for two or three days, during which Dr. Workman gave lengthy evidence, the committee rendered the following judgment: "The said defendant (Principal Shaw) had reason to believe that the time he spent in Montreal was for the purpose of ascertaining the truth in his position, and we believe that in his position as principal of the college it was his duty to call the attention of the governors to the charges against the defendant, and that Dr. Workman has announced that he will appeal from this decision before the Montreal conference, on this ground, among others, that at no time, and in no period of his life, did he ever deny any one of those New Testament doctrines, but, on the contrary, has scrupulously adhered to them as scripturally and as capable."
Meanwhile, Principal Shaw has issued a statement to the governors and members of the senate of the Wesleyan College, and to a few others, detailing the circumstances of the case, and showing his attitude on the matter. While admitting the facts, he says that they need not cause any bitterness of feeling, or any "odium theologium," if all personal elements be eliminated, but he feels that those to whom he has issued "the statement have a right to be properly acquainted with the circumstances, because they so closely affect the college."
The charge of libel, the principal says, he felt very keenly at first, coming as it did from a colleague, but he stoutly maintains the right of the governors to inquire into the doctrines of a professor, a minister in good standing in the church, with a view to determining whether or not he is in harmony with the authorized doctrines of the Methodist church. "If my railing is shown by competent legal authority to be wrong," he says, "I will at once stop the inquiry which was ordered, and apologize most sincerely to the professor concerned for any willful wrong, but for my unfortunate blunder."
At the same time, Principal Shaw admits that Dr. Workman had a right to bring a charge of libel against him, and that he was bound to do so.
"Let me say again I believe in the sincerity of Dr. Workman. He is a man of high character and thoroughly conscientious in his character, and I can assure him that I have no doubt as long as the college authorities think it proper for him to stay, I have not said a word impugning Dr. Workman's integrity. It is not the case of some governors, some being Workman, but it is the question, what degree of departure from the authorized

Daring Reply To The Pope's Censures.

AND SUSPENSION OF A PRIEST FOR HIS CRITICISMS.

The Priests Call For a Certain Liberty in Their Work—Appointments to High Dignities Not Approved—Writers Declare They Are Not Rebellious.
Rome, May 29.—A group of Italian priests have issued an open reply to the pope, making a daring reply to the censures uttered by his holiness in his allocution of April 17th, against the modern schools of ecclesiasticism. The letter accuses the pontiff of violating the right of conscience in his treatment of Father Murri, suspended from the priesthood for criticizing the contents of the pontiff's encyclical, and of his refusal to should abandon its archaic position and by recognizing the claims of science and democracy to gain its hold on mankind. It vindicates the right of young men in the church to a certain amount of liberty in their work for his holiness criticizes certain pontifical appointments to high dignities. His holiness is charged with paralyzing the work and institutions of the church, and particularly, with having introduced reactionary theologians into the hierarchy, commission, while it is complained that the pope allows Catholicism to be a mere "pious fraud" to vote only when the candidate of rebellion and appeal to the Holy Father for wisdom, equity and clemency.
LOSES BRIDE TO GET SHAVE.
Girl Elopes With Lover While Finance is at Barber's—Cleveland, Ohio, May 29.—Sherman Twecely, of the West, got a bride to get a shave: He gave Miss Blanche Dewey, 3058 Havel avenue, N.W., a diamond ring, last Thursday, and they were to wed this week. They were down town Saturday night, and Twecely left her while he went to get a shave.
Strolling on the streets she met Claude McRowe, of Buffalo, to whom she was engaged. She had decided to get married, and went to Buffalo, where the ceremony was performed.
The bride forgot to notify her parents, who held the entire police department trying to find her, believing she had been kidnapped. Her father was nearly driven insane over her disappearance.
Horrible Joke And Result.
Wakefield, Mass., May 29.—Miss Mary Kelly, a pretty teacher in the Hamilton school, of this place, is seriously ill as the result of what may have been intended for a joke, but more probably was the work of a rejected suitor or jealous rival. She was recovering from the grips when, yesterday, an unknown man left at her door a box containing a quantity of candy. Miss Kelly opened it herself in bed and the moment the cover came off she leaped a long, green snake which ran about the bed frightfully, she screamed and fell into the water. She was taken to hospital in a serious condition. The police are investigating.

CHICAGO CAR BLOWN UP.
Two Men Badly, and a Score of Others Slightly Injured.

Missionaries Hastening in Alarm to Swatow.

Chicago, May 29.—Two men were badly injured by broken glass and a score of others sustained slight injuries yesterday when a street car on the Calumet Electric railway was blown from the tracks by a torpedo at 53rd street and South Chicago avenue. The explosion lifted the car from the tracks, throwing it into the roadway. The car was jammed with men riding to work in the iron foundry, and in the panic that ensued many persons were thrown down and trampled upon. A rumor, which found considerable credence, was that the torpedo was planted with the original design of blowing up prospective passengers on the gambling boat City of Travers, whose landing place is about a block away, the theory advanced being that it was planted either by religious fanatics or by rivals of the City of Travers crowd.

Robinson, late of Catawaqui, an address expressing their earnest appreciation of the work he has done during his pastorate here, at his home during his pastorate here, at his home during his pastorate here, at his home during his pastorate here. Mr. Robinson, in his reply, thanked the congregation for its uniform kindness throughout his stay amongst them, and said that the other churches of the village had been exceedingly kind and courteous. Rev. Mr. Leagill expressed the assurance which he and his family were held by the congregation of Knox church, and said they were sorry these happy relations were so soon severed. Mr. Robinson will be in attendance at the conference, which meets in Ganoanoye this week, and as his term of four years is ended, will be moved to another church.
