The Best Finish for any Room in any building, is given by our Classified Steel Ceilings and Walls. They have a rich and elegant appearance, which would cost many times as much in any other material. Yet they cost little more than plaster, and they're good forever. Steel Ceilings and Walls are sanitary, fire-proof and vermin-proof. They are easily cleaned, and beautifully decorated, at slight expense. They may be put on over old plaster, without dirt or muss, and in much less time than it would take to replaster. Our Classified Steel Ceilings and Walls are the best you can buy. They are classified according to prevailing styles of architecture, thus ensuring perfect harmony in decoration. Our complete GOTRIC CEILING CORNER working plans make it easy to erect a ceiling with positively invisible joints—one which you'll be I am pleased with the Ceiling. Am only sorry I did not put it all through the house. (Signed) W. G. NICHOLSON. There is little variety of either musi or movement, yet it is astonishing with what zest the young people of both sexes join the chain of dancers, and continue the exercise with ever increasing liveliness until a sudden stoppage of the music breaks up the dance, when another note or two calls forth fresh dancers. Somewhat allied to this dance is the dance of the Hungarians, known as the "charadas." The monotony of movement and music is somewhat similar but the charades is danced by separate couples, with ever increasing rapidity to the most weird music, resembling a windstorm sweeping through the forest. with shricking of witches, and howling tempest. > IN SCHOOL WITH HER SON. Iowa Woman Proves Herself

Clever Pupil Not long ago a fifty-year-old Iowa editor started his college course at the State University, and now an lowa woman is going through high school with her son. Perhaps the only case of mother and son attending public school together, says the Clinton Herald, is that of Mrs. Ella Feldman and Worth Feldman, classmates in th Sioux City high school.

Finding her son somewhat indifferent to the Poys of student life, Mrs. Feldman has adopted the course of studying side by side with him. It was two years ago that Mrs. Feldman first tried the plan of attending night school.
