ARE BELLIGERENT

THEY TALK OF APPEAL TO ARMS.

Leader of the Opposition in Japanese House of Peers on Frisco Affair.

Tokio, June 10.—Viscount Tani, leader of the opposition in the House of Peers, announced the defence of Kumamoto in the Satsuna rebellion, is reported to have said against the American question: "The persecution of the Japanese in San Francisco is the most wicked act. Should diplomacy fail to bring about a satisfactory solution, the only way open to us is an appeal to arms. Our mind is firmly made up. It is certain that American will yield, its people are radically commercial in their sentiment."

How far Viscount Tani represents public sentiment it is difficult to estimate at the present time.

NAMED COUNSEL

To Represent Various Classes of Shareholders.

Toronto, June 10.—The National Trust company made an application before the official, McNeil Maclean, in Osgoode Hall, this morning, to have counsel appointed to represent the eight different classes of shareholders and creditors of the York County Loan and Savings company in order to expedite the determination of the rights of the parties by recent legislation. The court was authorized to appoint representatives of the different classes after publishing a notice to the shareholders, and without personal service upon them, so that all matters in question may be disposed of much more speedily and at a very large saving of costs to the shareholders. The solicitors appointed to represent the various interests were: C. A. Mastn, Alfred W. Briggs, William Douglas, W. N. Ferguson, W. H. Hunter, W. J. Freeman, Toronto, and S. D. Biggar, Hamilton.

LAUGHED TOO HEARTILY.

Young Man Strains Himself After Good Joke.

Woodstock, Ont., June 10.—Roy Moore, a young man employed on the farm of W. J. MeLeod, on the ninth line of East Zorra, is dangerously ill as the result of having laughed too heartily. With Neil Murray and W. A. McKay, young Moore was working on a grader on the twelfth line, near Tavistock, when one of them related a witty story. Moore began to laugh very heartily. He laughed loud and long, when suddenly he collapsed, and became unconscious. The strain on some of the muscles in the region of his heart had proved greater than he could withstand, and they gave way. Dr. Stoela was summoned, and managed, after considerable difficulty, to bring the unconscious man back to life and knowledge of his surroundings.

WOMAN DEFIES POLICE.

Shoots Husband, Then Barricades Herself in House.

Springfield, Ohio, June 10.—After firing three bullets into the body of her husband, whom she charged with infidelity, Mrs. Kitta Fillingier last night barricaded herself in the rooms of her own house, and for some time defied the attempts of the police to arrest her. Fillingier is in a critical condition. She held the police at bay until a squad entered her home by a rear door, taking her a prisoner.

The Way To Get There.

Los Angeles Express:—If you chance to lose your grip some day, don't let a young fellow, Don't be a drooping lip.

Net begin to belie; my son, A fresh trail foiler. Run the race you've got to run—Don't lie down as a soldier!

Grab a fresh hold; don't you quit. Use you're in, "Laws under. Just put up a assy tight. An' 'I'll get a soldier. That you'll go to come out right—Don't lie down as a soldier!

Yelpin' never done no good. When yer troubles thicken You'll be as good as dead. Don't you play the chicken. Roll yer sleeves up good an' high. Those assy yer collar: Simpy say you'll do or die—Don't lie down as a soldier!

Buckle in, fer all yer worth. Show folks you ain't daffy; Prave they's own cuss on this earth. Who's at the wheel on saffy? If you're sinner or a saint, Hitcockout of a soldier. Lesten to this safty plain—Don't lie down as a soldier!

Set yer teeth and show yer sand. Spise you chance to tangle will at the time play yer hand. Tain't no use to grumble. Or to win the dollar. Here's the way to bar the game—Don't lie down as a soldier!
