MAN & SHAW

Fused Joints are Air-tight

Fused Joints are used only in "Hecla" Furnaces. They are made by bringing the iron and steel of the radiating chamber to a white heat and fusing the metals into one piece—making a joint so permanent and so tight, that it prevents for all time the escape of smoke, gas and dust into the house.

"Hecla" Furnace

Hecla joints are just as tight, after ten years service, as when first installed. "HECLA" FUSED JOINTS are covered by patents and are used exclusively in "Hecla" Furnaces.

Learn more about Hecla Furnaces by seeing the nearest agent, or by writing for the latest catalogue to Clare Bros. & Co. Limited, Preston, Ont.

THE PARAGRAPH PULPIT. Rev. G. W. GASSON, OTTAWA. Being a Christian. There is only one way in which a man can really be a Christian. It is not by any profession or any belief or even any faith. It is not by the acceptance of any religious scheme, whereby heaven's joys are received by the charity of God and the purchase of Christ. It is simply and solely by the living of the same life that Jesus lived, the endeavor to do the same deeds that Jesus did, and the adoption of the same principle that dominated His life. It is not in following the man, but in following the method. Believe what you like, but do as He did. You are no Christian otherwise.

Address, Mr. Casson for free literature. IN OLDEN TIMES. People Were Content to Take Things Easier Than Now. If our forefathers could behold the modern locomotive, automobile and electric cars, they would hold up their hands in astonishment. The stage-coach was fast enough then—people were more content to take things easy. They used to be satisfied with any sort of a hair lotion that came along—if it did not prevent baldness they thought it was because baldness could not be prevented. It is different now. People know that germs cause baldness and that Newbro's Keratin kills the germs, used for medicinal purposes and preventing baldness. Sold by leading druggists.
