FORCEFUL SERMON BY REV DR. MACTAVISH.

Dishonesty in Itself and Leads to Other Dishonesty-Indulged in By Women and Children.

In Cooke's church, Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. Dr. MacTavish, prenched a forceful sermon on the subject of gambling. In the course of is remarks he said :

'Anyone who discerns the signs of the times, must see that the gambling evil is becoming very common. It meets us in many forms. It flourishes in all grades of society. From the lowest den of iniquity where men play for 'the drinks,' up to the gilded drawing-room, where fashionable ladies play for small stakes at bridge, this vice flourishes. In the quiet hamlet where the lambs reside, and in the crowded, noisy stock exchange, where the bulls and bears are, the victims of alley where the gamin is educated n sin anti crime, and in the well trimmed college campus, where the lower of the country take their exercise, this evil reigns.
