THE DRUG TRAVELLERS

HAVE AN OUTING. Eastern Representatives National Drug and Chemical Company Foregather at Mon-

An interesting gathering of the of cers., managers and travellers of the National Drug and Chemical company was held in Montreal on June 14th and 15th. This was the first occasion on which such a gathering has been held, and considerable interest centred about it. The idea of the meeting was to bring the various representatives of the company together, in order to make them better acquainted with each other. Business and pleasure were combined, for after talking business the delegates were taken off on some trips. The experiment proved very successful, and will in all probability b

On June 14th the delegates, with their lady friends, met in the Ladies' Ordinary, where they were welcomed by D. W. Bole, M.P., president of the company, after which they paid a vise it to the headquarters of the com pany, and inspected the chemical laboratory. After a business session in topics of discussion was with regard to the marketing of St. George's baking powder, of which the company are proprietors, the party boarded special cars for Dominion Park.

Another business meeting was held on June loth, and in the afternoon special cars took the visitors for run around the mountain, and through the city, and then to Lachine, where they boarded the Duchess of York and ran the rapids Mack to the city.
