"The fatigues entailed by my duties as accountant began to weaken my system about a year ago. I felt that I would not long be able to withstand the severe strain upon my nerves, as, a thing unknown to me before, I would long for office hours to be over in order to rest. "I gradually grew weaker and a few months later my sight was impaired.

I then broke down completely and was obliged to take to my bed. I was also suffering from palpitation of the heart. "After a few weeks' treatment by a local physician, I was in the same critical condition and as the doctor held out no great prospects for me, I decided to experiment on myself.

"I took several remedies advertised as tonics, but did not derive any benefit. "Peruna was then given a trial, and before I had taken it a week I felt my condition improving. After a few weeks more had elapsed, during which time I followed the directions carefully, my shattered nervous system became firmer, my sight stronger and I hoped to be out soon again. "My expectations were realized, for in three weeks I assumed my duties as
