The regiment will leave the armour es at seven o'clock this evening for Folgers' wharf, where it will embark on the steamer America for Cape Vincent, en route to Watertown, N.Y. where it will spend the glorious cousins. United States Consul H. D. Van Sant will accompany the regiment, with his bosom friend Major the Rev. Canon Starr, chaplain the 14th.

Can't Go As A Corps. The officers and men of No. 3 company, Canadian Army Service Corps, of Kingston, expected to accompany the 14th Regiment to Watertown, N.Y., this evening, but Lieut.-Col. Kent, of the 14th, refused to take the responsibility. Accordingly, if any of that corps wish to go, they will have to do so individually, and not as a body. Permission to wear uniforms has been secured, and a number will take the trip.
