The Nuisance Was Stopped. This morning, the civic authorities were appealed to by Clarence street business men, to have a nuisance stopped. Workmen tearing out the plaster from the interior of the three-story building, by the removal of the local government offices, were throwing the lime out of the windows by bucketsful. The breeze carried the dust into the offices and British-American hotel. Immediate action was taken, and the nuisance stopped.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY. Newy Paragraphs Picked Up By Reporters on Their Rounds. Try Bibby's 25c. garters. Only all-cream ice cream in the city at Price's.

A MIGHTY WORK HAS GROWN FROM A SMALL BEGINNING.

Rev. Henry Wilson, D.D., in the City on a Brief Visit—He's Very Busy With His Alliance Duties. "I am well, and happy in my work. I am always glad to visit Kingston, for I love the city and its people." With his face beaming with smiles, Rev. Dr. Wilson, of New York, who is paying a brief visit in this city, made the above statement to a Whig representative, who called to see him this morning. Dr. Wilson is the guest of Mrs. Thomas R. Power, 220 Earl street, during his stay, but is leaving to-morrow evening for the north, where he is held superintendent of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, is well known to the majority of Kingstonians, he having lived here for many years, preaching at St. George's cathedral. His heart and soul is wrapped up in his present work, and he says that the work is progressing in all quarters.

WANTED IT HAULED DOWN. The Stars and Stripes Worried Some Persons. Yesterday some ultra-loyal persons applied to the harbor-master to insist that the Stars and Stripes on the United States flag in the harbor be ordered down. They didn't like the idea of a Yankee ship flaunting its country's colors in an old British harbor on the glorious Fourth, the day that the United States declared its independence from British rule in the year 1776.
