ANOTHER GRANT TO CARNEGIE LIBRARY.
Educational Matters—Cherries Are Very Pleasant—Schooner Minnas Raised and Will Be Used as Range.

Pictou, July 12.—The town fathers have stepped down, and soon to gracefully either, from their position of opposition towards acceptance of $2,000 additional for the more fully equipping of the new Carnegie library. A few months ago the library board asked the council to guarantee this year's grant of $200, annually, but the council refused point blank. This week on the library board making a second effort the council gave in.

The school trustees have been doing this week and many interesting changes have taken place. Following the example of the high school board, the public school trustees have raised the salaries of their eight teachers. Principals get $100 additional, yearly and his assistants an added $25. Miss Aikman of Grade E has resigned, but as yet her successor has not been appointed. Secretary, Mrs. E. J. Patterson, B.A., of Toronto, who had been accepted as teacher of modern in the high school. PICNIC AT BATHAM.
A Day's Sport at St. James' Parish, July 12.—The members of St. James' church, Batham, held a picnic on July 12, the proceeds of which were to be devoted to the rebuilding of the church. The day was also taken advantage of to welcome the new incumbent, Rev. M. Cox, who for the past two years had been working at Havana. The proceedings opened with a prayer from the Rev. M. Cox, and a hymn from the choir. The Rev. M. Cox then made excellent time and arrived at the winning post in the following order and time: J. Stobie, fourteen and one-half minutes; G. Goodfellow, fifteen and one-half minutes; J. Magar, fifteen and three-quarter minutes; T. Bonar, seventeen and one-half minutes. Lunch was served in the open air at twelve noon, and consisted of about 215 people. At 1.30 p.m. Rev. M. Cox took the chair at the speech stand and started the topic of the day by addressing the crowd on "Domestic Day." He was followed by Rev. M. Hillyard Smith, of Sharnot Lake who spoke on "Our National Future." Then Rev. J. Lyons, who had charge of the Parish mission during the past month, delivered a stirring speech on "Almsgiving as it is today," while Melzar Avey, M.P., was the last speaker, summed up the whole subject. Races were then indulged in, of which mention may be made of two, viz. the ladies' contest. First prize, Miss Graves; second, Miss D. Goodfellow; third, Miss Lillian Killen. Fancy was set driving, first prize, James Curd; second, J. A. Goodfellow; third, W. E. H. There were also a number of other interesting events. The management of Dr. Geige who made an excellent master of ceremonies. Tea followed and the evening was spent in the Oddfellows' hall, where dancing was indulged in till the early hours of morning. After paying expenses a balance of $136.67 was left of upwards of $136. Great credit is due to the members of the committee who worked so hard to make the picnic a success. Dr. Geige and the incumbent shared the honors in presenting the prizes to the fortunate winners. On Sunday, last, the incumbent met with a warm welcome from a large congregation.

MOTHERS PROBLEMS

Weakness, spinal failure and that means falling behind in the race, and often premature death. FERRO-FORTE should be taken to give youth the vigor that clear blood will confer. FERRO-FORTE helps youth to sleep soundly, and gives the power of strength that clear strong brains and vigorous nerves afford. Give the ladless girl, the pale lady, the nervous, and watch how it quickens the power of both body and mind. FERRO-FORTE gives appetite, brings bright color to the cheeks, makes them strong—it not only brings health but preserves it. FERRO-FORTE is a body-builder, blood-former and nerve-strengthening without an equal. FERRO-FORTE cures that common ailment, indigestion, its harmless and efficient, 50c. per box, at all dealers.
