

WOMEN TALK TO WOMEN

About Pe-ru-na.

MRS. MCGOUGH.
Depressed Feeling.
Mrs. M. McGough, 219 W. 63rd street, New York, N. Y., writes:
"I gladly give my mite of praise to Peruna for what it has done for me. Two years ago a depressed feeling took hold of me. My back and sides ached continually. My stomach got out of order so that at times I could not hold a glass of cold water. I didn't like to eat, afraid that my stomach would get sick. I have been using Peruna for the three past months and now I feel as well as ever. My stomach is as strong as ever and my nervous troubles have disappeared. I keep recommending Peruna to my friends who are troubled as I was, and I have been thanked for doing so."

MRS. MOODERS.
Headache and Deafness.
Mrs. W. W. Moozers, R. F. D. 1, Lents, Ore., member Order of Washington, writes:
"For the past four years I was a wretched woman suffering with troubles peculiar to my sex, causing severe headache and bearing down pains and leaving me so weak and weary that it was only with difficulty that I was able to attend to my household duties. I used different remedies and injections, but found no relief until I had tried Peruna. Within two weeks there was a complete change for the better and in less than three months I was a well and happy woman and all the praise is due to Peruna."

MRS. NELSON.
Headache and Backache.
Mrs. Treasie Nelson, 602 N. 5th Ave., Nashville, Tenn., writes:
"As Peruna has done me a world of good, I feel it duty bound to tell of it, in hopes that it may meet the eye of some woman who has suffered as I did. For five years I really did not know what a perfectly well day was, and if I did not have headache, I had backache or a pain somewhere and really life was not worth the effort I made to keep going.
"A good friend advised me to use Peruna and I was glad to try anything, and I am very pleased to say that six bottles made a new woman of me and I have no more pains and life looks bright again."
"A good friend advised me to use Peruna and I was glad to try anything, and I am very pleased to say that six bottles made a new woman of me and I have no more pains and life looks bright again."

The above testimonials represent actual experience of every-day life. They are the truthful utterances of women who have been ill and have found a reliable remedy in Peruna. It means a great deal to the women of America who have at hand a remedy capable of performing such cures. Nervousness, headache, dyspepsia, melancholy, bearing down pains. All these and a host of other symptoms are relieved by Peruna. At least this is what the women say. They have no object in saying such things, except to render truthful testimony to their suffering sisters. The reader will note by reading these testimonials that in most cases other remedies were tried, doctors were consulted, and finally Peruna came to their rescue and made them well again. Peruna is making such cures every day. It is the testimony of the people that has made Peruna so justly famous.

Suffered Thirteen Years.
Mrs. Anna Munden, Hollygrove, Ark., writes:
"I suffered with female troubles for thirteen years.
"I saw an advertisement of your Peruna and bought one bottle and before I had taken it all I could get out of bed and walk about.
"After taking three bottles I was as well and hearty as ever and gained in flesh. I would not be without it."

Headache and Deafness.
Mrs. Mary E. Sampson, Londonderry, N. H., writes:
"I had terrible headaches, both ears run and I was nervous all the time, was deaf in one ear for thirty years. I took six bottles of Peruna and one of Mamslin, and am happy to say that it is the best medicine that I ever heard of. I am not so nervous, my appetite is good, everything I eat agrees with me, and I am feeling better in every way."

A Severe Cold.
Miss Marie Calvin, 927 Main street, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes:
"I caught a cold coming home from an evening party and as I did not pay particular attention to it, I quickly became worse and found myself in a serious condition.
"I took Peruna and it brought me immediate relief. Within a week I was cured and now whenever I feel badly Peruna will set things right."

COMBAT OF THE WILD

Peculiar Episode Witnessed at Sydenham Lake.

Tragedy Often Forms a Part of Animal Existence—What Human Eyes Beheld—A Remarkable Story.

That the members of the animal and bird kingdom do not live exactly the simple life they are sometimes supposed to do is evidenced by an episode which occurred at Sydenham Lake on July 23rd. One would imagine that the ordinary barnyard fowl lived a rather uneventful and tranquil existence. This is not always the case. Tragedy sometimes mars the even tenor of her way from the broken egg to the dinner plate. The incidents quoted below are related by a New York gentleman who is enjoying a few weeks' outing at Sydenham lake. Those who know him would not doubt his veracity. His story is substantiated by E. S. Suddard, the general division street grocer, who was fishing on the lake at the time, and who had the pleasure of eating part of the fowl killed, as related below, by a small but ferocious animal. Seldom do human eyes behold such woodland tragedies, though nature writers sometimes tell a similar story. But the letter of our American friend speaks for itself:

Sydenham, Ont., July 23.—On above date I was out on Sydenham lake, trawling about 100 yards from an abrupt rocky shore, when I heard the rattle cackling and then the piteous squawking and choking of a barnyard fowl. Hauling in my line as quickly as possible, I directed my boat to the shore and there saw a sight which would make any nature fakir tremble. A full grown mink had seized a large black hen by the throat and was strangling it. I struck the mink several times with an oar, but failed to hit him, as he would dodge so quickly and return savagely to the attack. At last I got near enough to seize the fowl and drag it into my boat. The savage bristled as I attempted to recover his booty and as I pulled away swam after me, for, perhaps, 50 feet, and then went back to the scene of the battle. I returned at night with a fine string of fish, one a four-pound black bass, and with the hen strung up with them. So the next day we had bass for breakfast and fowl for dinner—ALFRED B. ADAMS, New York City.

LATE SOCIAL NEWS.
The Yacht Club dance, last night, in honor of the visitors, was a great success. Mrs. F. Strange, Mrs. Howard Folger, Mrs. John Cochrane, Mrs. James Higgins, Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Harcourt Callaghan were among the married ladies who were present at the affair, and helped make welcome the visitors. The girls all turned out, and the dance was extremely pleasant, and the beat of the music. Refreshments were served in the billiard room, and the guests did not leave for home till after midnight.

The Mines camp out by the lake, was the scene of a novel little party, last night, which had Miss Ida Elliott and her coming wedding, as the raison d'être. Mrs. George Chown, Mrs. E. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Sumner, were behind the affair. The children of the various families, disguised as Indians, made themselves useful in carrying out the details. Tea was the first item, and the ladies then retired to the billiard room for congratulations, ad libitum. The Rev. C. A. and Mrs. Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. William Minnes and Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Harrison were among those who were present at the affair. The little event pleasant. Miss Elliott, who has been most successful in her deaconess work in Sydenham Street Methodist church, will be greatly missed.

Free Trade Lauded by German Editor.
Berlin, July 27.—The Berliner Tageblatt, the organ of the Berlin radicals, contains a remarkable article dealing with the returns of British trade for the first six months of this year. At no time, says the article, have the trade returns of any people shown to be false. The result can only be explained by the fact that the strength of the government, which is elected to maintain free trade against protectionist blarney. Protection has received a severe blow.

The article goes on to show that not only is an extraordinary growth noticeable in imports, but in exports as well. Here the growth is simply without parallel. With regard to imports, no protectionist can extract comfort from an examination of the figures, for the increase in the imports is most marked in those items which England receives raw for further manufacture and export, such as cotton and wool, oil, skins, wood, etc. These figures, says the article, in conclusion, testify to the success of free trade as the basis of the economic policy of Great Britain. The figures are a clear refutation of protectionist nostrums.

LOVE LETTERS PAY DEBTS.
Novel Way Employed to Pay Mortgage.
Sickleville, N. J., July 27.—There was great rejoicing in the New Brooklyn church when the last dollar of the debt against the parsonage was paid. The money was raised in a novel manner. Each female member of the church wrote a letter to all the boys that were her schoolmates in by-gone days, no matter where they now lived, soliciting contributions.

The men members likewise wrote to their school girl sweethearts of long ago. Many a pleasant correspondence developed, and it is said some of the letters were calculated to revive the spirit of affection that was kindled when the writers were youngsters, but, as husbands and wives were allowed to read each others' records, not a case of jealousy is recorded.

The money came in so fast that in a short time the entire debt had been paid off, and, as the contributions are still coming in, the parsonage will be brightened by a new coat of paint.

FOUND DYING IN PARIS.
Nothing Found to Identify Him—A Montrealer.
Paris, July 27.—A well-dressed man, apparently about thirty-five years old, was found dying, yesterday, in front of a church near St. Germain. In his pocket was an envelope bearing a Canadian stamp, addressed to the Union Nationale Francaise, No. 55 Rue Dufour, Montreal. The name of the address had been scratched out. The envelope contained a visiting card of Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, with these words written in English: "When you arrive in Paris use what you send at the last extremity. Keep the card to prove identity." Nothing showed the man's identity. It is stated that the man was suffering from the effects of poisoning and also from a cataplectic fit. His boots were made in Montreal.

THE SPORT REVIEW.

Notes on Baseball, Lacrosse and Other Games.

Tolska claims to have pulled off the greatest freak baseball play this season. Alfred Shrubbs quit in a handicap two-mile race at Boston. He conceded from 120 to 200 yards to the five others, who are the best in that section.

The Canada's Cup trials, which were to have been resumed yesterday, have been postponed, owing to the alterations in Crusader not having been completed.

In Montreal they have knocked the ball team, never realizing how good it really is. On Wednesday Buffalo, of New York and Thursday the Pea Soups whitewashed the Bisons.

"Noble Wilkes," the fastest stallion bred in northern New York, dropped dead in the stable of its owner, George Hoxington, of Adams, N.Y. The animal had a record of 2:13, and was well known on eastern circuits.

"It's a lie." This is what Frank Farrell, owner of the New York Americans, says with regard to the charge that Clark Griffith is to be deposed as manager of the Yankees and is to be succeeded by George Stallings. Farrell says Griffith looks good to him.

Manager Kelley, of Toronto, has protested Wednesday's game at Jersey City, and the protest is likely to be allowed. The dispute is over the two runs scored in the sixth inning by the Skeeters. With runners on first and second Merritt popped a low fly to Flynn. The big first baseman stepped back to get the ball for an easy out, but collided with Hanford, who was leading off first, and they both fell on the ground. McCarthy, who was umpiring on the bases, declared all the runners safe. Toronto's claim is that Hanford was out for interference, and Umpire Sullivan, who was behind the plate, and McCarthy himself afterwards admitted that he made a mistake. The umpire's error gave Jersey City two runs and the game.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.
The Items Gathered About the Wharves.
The steamship Idler, belonging to Col. O. G. Staples, Alexandria Bay, has been chartered to Cleveland parties.

Several weeks ago Detroit was notified by the department of marine and fisheries that a contract had been set for the removal of the wreck of the schooner Dobie, a serious menace to navigation for three seasons. So far apparently, nothing has been done toward the removal of the wreck, and it lies in the channel with its upper works covered by a low level of water.

The Comanche and 3B engaged in a race down the river, and the latter was fouled three times. A keen rivalry has sprung up between the boats and often have the owners striven to meet to settle the question of the fastest boat. The Comanche is owned by Howard Folger and the 3B by A. B. Tyler. The former crossed the 3B's bow three times, after which Mr. Tyler manfully acknowledged he was beaten and congratulated his conqueror.

Glad Colonials Come There.
London, July 27.—Speaking at the opening of the new University College School, at Hampton, the king referred to the fact that many colonial boys were educated there, and said that it was very gratifying to him that the colonies recognized the excellence of the British schools. His majesty expressed himself convinced that the reliance placed in the mother country would not be in vain in this or any other particular.

Wants Horse And Wagon.
New Haven, July 27.—Bro. George J. Simms, pastor of one of the negro churches in New Haven, finding that the ministry does not yield sufficient funds to provide for the needs of his family, issued an appeal to the Christian people of New Haven, asking them to present him with a horse and wagon to buy a wagon that he might run an express business along with his pastoral work.

Socialism in Wales.
Cardiff, July 27.—George Bernard Shaw, who has taken the residence of Hafod-ty, Llanbleid, as the chief organizer of a Fabian socialist summer school, which will begin on July 27th, and will be held at the village of Llanbleid, on the North Wales coast, about three miles from Harlech, and seven from Barmouth.

New Parasite Appears.
