FRONTENAC POLITICS
WHO WILL BE THE LIBERAL CANDIDATE?

A Very Strong Man is Promised—Dr. Edwards Likely to Run For the Conservatives.
The liberals of Frontenac feel confident that they can elect their next standard-bearer as a member for the county. What the Frontenac liberals in the back townships have lacked in organization, with the organization that is found in Kingston and Pittsburg townships, the liberals can carry Frontenac. Their aim will be to organize every township.
A standard-bearer has not yet been chosen, but two of the best-known and most prosperous men of the county are mentioned, but their names are at present withheld. With good organization, either could win. One is a back-county man and the other resides in the front.
On the Tory side, there is likelihood of Frickie. If either J. S. Gallagher or Mr. Avery offer themselves, they are likely to meet vigorous opposition from Dr. J. W. Edwards, the county clerk, who was a close second to both of these county members in last election's candidates. It is said that if the doctor is not well provided for in the way of a government position, he will run, no matter who else comes out. The county clerk was understood to be slated for the position of jailer, but the attempt of some county councillors to have the council recommend the removal of C. H. Corbett failed, or was bungled, as is said to be the case.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a running ear, or it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be removed, the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It comes out of the ear, or is caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. STORY OF THE CUP

TROPHY DONATED TO THE ROYAL CANADIAN CLUB.

An International Trophy—Races to Be Sailed Off Charlotte in August Will Constitute Fifth Series.
Probably every yachtsman, says the Toronto Mail and Empire, knows something of the races which are to be held off Charlotte harbor in August for the possession of Canada's cup, but the origin of the cup, the work of its successive winners and defenders is not a matter of general information.
In 1896 a group of Toledo yachtsmen offered a silver cup to become the property of the yacht winning an international race of Toledo. The two races necessary to decide supremacy were accordingly sailed on August 25th and 26th, between the Commodore of Toledo, and the Vencor, of Chicago, the Canadian taking both races, the first by eighteen minutes and the second by one minute.
On January 10th, 1897, the owners of the cup, George Goodisham, George H. Goodierman, S. F. McKimmon, Francis J. Phillips, J. H. Plummer, James Ross and Amelius Jarvis—donated it by deed of gift to the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, as trustees, "as a perpetual international challenge cup for friendly competition between sailing yachts, representatives of yacht clubs of the two nations bordering on the great lakes." The trophy was to be known as Canada's cup, and was to be sailed for by yachts with a load water length of twenty-five to forty feet, under the regulations of the Great Lakes Yacht Racing Union of the Great Lakes.
The races this month will be the fifth series sailed for the trophy.

A VERY OLD MAN.

Robert Vair, of Glenburnie, Still Active.
An old gentleman who is still hale and hearty is Robert Vair, of Glenburnie. A Whig representative met Mr. Vair at the residence of his son, R. J. Vair, on Wednesday afternoon, and found him as active as he was years ago. He is in his eighty-sixth year, and has a wonderful memory. He told of incidents that occurred seventy-five years ago, at the time he came from Scotland to Kingston. Both he and his brother were engineers, and the latter was on the famous steamer Sir Robert Peel, which was sunk near Wellesley Island in the St. Lawrence, during the stirring times of 1837. Recently Mr. Vair met the veteran Capt. R. H. McKay, and these two had a happy talk over incidents that occurred in Kingston when they were youths. Mr. Vair is a year older than Capt. McKay.

CLOTHESLINE THIEVES BUSY.

Have Been Making Raids of Late.
Clothesline thieves are at work in the city. Some of the residents in the neighborhood of Brock and Clergy streets, have been missing articles from their line, and a warm time is in store for the thief or thieves if they are captured.
Some time ago there were numerous reports of this nature, and it will be remembered that one arrest was made. The young man taken into custody being allowed to go on suspended sentence, and after the trial he left the city.
In order to guard against such thefts, citizens would do well to see that their clotheslines are cleared at night. Then there would be no temptation for the light-fingered genry.

Stewart was in trouble here about four years ago, when, a lad, having served time for stealing a watch from a G.T.R. shop employee, Ormistown has a long record and only last winter served three months in the jail here for vagrancy.

HELD ANNUAL FESTIVAL

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR AT HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE.
Rain interfered somewhat in the afternoon's proceedings—Band Concert in the Evening.
Although held under unfavorable circumstances, the annual festival of the House of Providence, yesterday, proved a most pleasant affair, and was very much enjoyed by all who were in attendance. The heavy downpour of rain in the afternoon put somewhat of a damper on the proceedings, but the rain did not prevent the ladies in charge, making it a great success.
The various booths on the grounds were prettily decorated with flags and red, white and blue bunting, and presented a very pretty appearance. The rain came just as everything was in full swing, and everyone was compelled to make a hasty retreat to the building. The ladies had taken much pains in their decoration arrangements, and it was indeed rather unfortunate for them, that the rain should interfere. It proved to be such a heavy shower, that it was at one time thought that the festival would have to be postponed. However, the storm cleared up before tea time, when all the arrangements were carried out in detail.
Tea was served under two large tents, and ample justice was done the many good things provided.
In the evening the 14th Regimental band was present, and rendered an excellent programme of music. Dancing was indulged in by quite a large number, and the different booths were well patronized. It is expected that a good sum will be realized, the proceeds being in aid of the institution.
The following had charge of the different booths:
Japplyland—Misses Tierney, Crowley, Folger, Butler.
Refreshments—Mrs. Sowards, Mrs. MacFarland, Mrs. Tavaun, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Crowley, Miss Kennedy.
Home-made department—Mrs. Dolan, Miss O'Connor, Miss McNeil, Mrs. McArthur, Mrs. Orrison.
Ice cream—Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Hanley, Mrs. Leaky, assisted by Misses Abbott, Quigley, Hartly and Killenring.
Candy—Mrs. T. F. Baker, assisted by Misses Walsh, O'Connor, Mullin, Fancy work—Mrs. Eccles and Miss Corrigan.
Miss M. Dickson and Miss C. Crowley gave the ladies able assistance.
Where Suspicions Are Created.
What fills the political air of Canada with suspicions of "graft" asks Prof. Goldwin Smith, in an article in the Canadian Magazine, entitled "Party Government." What is impairing the integrity of judicial appointments and thus assailing the last stronghold of public right and purity of government? What but the necessity of party, which compel it to pay its adherents? Our people are good, but corruption will gradually work downwards. It has its instruments in party organizations and conventions, which, though the people are not aware of it, practically take the elections out of their hands. Government thus becomes standing machinery for the demoralization of the people.

A VERY OLD MAN.

Robert Vair, of Glenburnie, Still Active.
An old gentleman who is still hale and hearty is Robert Vair, of Glenburnie. A Whig representative met Mr. Vair at the residence of his son, R. J. Vair, on Wednesday afternoon, and found him as active as he was years ago. He is in his eighty-sixth year, and has a wonderful memory. He told of incidents that occurred seventy-five years ago, at the time he came from Scotland to Kingston. Both he and his brother were engineers, and the latter was on the famous steamer Sir Robert Peel, which was sunk near Wellesley Island in the St. Lawrence, during the stirring times of 1837. Recently Mr. Vair met the veteran Capt. R. H. McKay, and these two had a happy talk over incidents that occurred in Kingston when they were youths. Mr. Vair is a year older than Capt. McKay.
