A local doctor with a very delicate taste came near being thrown out of a Clarence street office this morning when he informed the proprietor that he had had for his morning meal, "I've just breakfasted," he said, "and I enjoyed the viands greatly. I had peacock brains, nightingale tongue, parrot liver, coconut milk and a warmwood cocktail."

"You had a slice of stale bread and a drink of cheap tea," the proprietor shouted, and proceeded to eject the medicine man.

No Sunday Calls.

Toronto Globe.

The steamer America, which has been carrying Sunday excursionists from Clayton, N.Y., to the Thousand Islands, has been in the habit of calling at Canadian ports for the purpose of avoiding some American coasting laws. This it has been reported, has been stopped by the customs officer at Kingston, who has ordered the steamer to cease calling at Canadian ports on Sunday, declaring that either they must remain at the port they touch on or he will prevent any passengers from landing.

HE HANGED HIMSELF

GOULD ADMITTED SLAYING WOMAN.

Stabbed Emma Levin in Fit of Drunken Anger—Wife Helped Pack the Body.

London, Aug. 14.—In a dispatch from Montreal, a correspondent of the Telegraph says that Vera St. Ledger Gould, the confessed murderer of Emma Levin, has hanged himself in prison.

Helped To Pack Body.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—Vera St. Ledger Gould confessed here yesterday, that she was the murderer of Emma Levin, a wealthy Swedish woman, whose dismembered body was found in the trunk of a trunk in the trunk of a trunk on her arrival here from Monte Carlo, August 9th.

The "trunk mystery" created much excitement, especially as it was soon learned that the goods were of a good English family, their explanations of how the corpse came to be in their baggage were in no sense convincing, and the confession did not come as a surprise. It was demanded $100 for Mrs. Gould's confession to the examining magistrate. He related coolly all the details of the horrible crime. He had slain the woman, he declared, and it was he who cut up her body, although his wife was ordered to pack it away in her baggage. After this had been done they both agreed to journey to Montreal, where they planned to cast the body into the sea.

Mrs. Gould, whose first name is Violet, also confessed her part in the crime. She said her husband had promised to give Emma Levin $100 for a certain article, but she demanded $100 more which she wanted to give to a man friend.

To this Mr. Gould objected and said he would not pay the extra hundred. Thereupon Emma Levin abused him. Referring to what happened next Gould says in his confession: "I had been drinking and becoming angry. I seized a hunting knife and buried it in Emma's back. She fell dead. The knife had been caused by the body with a saw and knife, and placed the torso in a trunk and the head and legs in a valise. I stabbed the woman only once. The other wounds on her body must have been caused by shaking around in the trunk."

Mr. Gould said he carried off Emma Levin's jewels not for their value, but in order to prevent their discovery in his department.

Referring to his family, Gould said his grandfather was a baronet and his father an Irish magistrate. He said he had at one time served on the Irish Land Commission in Dublin. In 1892 he moved to Montreal, where he says he made a fortune. He then went to Holland, and later moved to Monte Carlo. Mrs. Gould corroborated everything her husband said.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

Newspapers Picked Up By Reporters On Their Rounds.

The nights are growing longer. The steamy yacht Galatia, from Detroit, was at Swift's wharf, to-day, on her way to Alexandria Bay. Bay of Wild Strawberries, 35c., and our own wild strawberry compound, 35c., at Hoag's.

The steamer America brought three hundred passengers from Alexandria Bay and intermediate ports, to-day, returning at two-thirty.

Steamer America makes another of her famous tours of the Islands, via American and Canadian Channels, Thursday, 2:30 p.m., 6c.

A retreat is being held at the Hotel Dieu for the sisters. It is being conducted by a Niagara Falls father, and will conclude on Friday.

The telegraph operators at points along the river and among the islands joined in the general strike now on all over the United States.

Much inconvenience is caused the excursionists to the city, especially those at the ferry wharf, by the G.P.R. box cars being run in front of the gates and left there. To-day the people were forced to walk away down the track before they could get across to the dock. The same thing often occurs at Swift's wharf.

OFF TO CLEVELAND.

Steamer Nevada Leaves Kingston Wednesday Forenoon.

The steamer Nevada cleared at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning for Cleveland, to enter the dry dock there. She went under her own steam, with two pumps ready for business.

The work of unloading the cargo of damaged grain was rushed along, quite a large staff of men being employed on the job.

Marine men say that it will cost at least $25,000 to repair the Nevada, and the fact that the vessel could not be repaired in Kingston, so that a local firm would benefit by it was the subject of much comment. However, no local firm has the facilities for doing the job, and the vessel had to go either to Cleveland or Collingwood to have the job done.

The steamer Plummer stopped at the dry dock to-day for supplies on her way from Montreal to Fort William, with package freight.

The schooner J. B. Kitchen has cleared with a cargo of kelp, for South Point.

The steamship John Randall is at Richardson's loading grain for Washburn.

The Statement Made is Very Untruthful.

Paris, Aug. 14.—An official note, issued this afternoon, says that Gen. Droude, in command of the French expeditionary force at Cuba Blanca, has not asked for reinforcements, and that, therefore, the statement that the government has declined to furnish him with any more troops is incorrect.

Ran Away With Purse.

A young lady from New York, who is visiting in the city, was walking on a young man pick it up and run. She was way from Macdonald Park, when she dropped her purse. She had only taken a few steps when she missed it and turned around to walk back. She had just started back, when she saw a young man pick it up and run. The missing purse was a small silk one, was containing $2.60 and two postage stamps. The thief is known.

About Street Watering.

It is said that the new watering cart was doing duty on outer King street with the steam roller yesterday, instead of being in operation down town to lay the fearful dust. Contractor McFarlane is not to blame for the inadequate watering. The city must supply him with enough carts or he cannot do more than at present. Ald. Bigney, the street watering champion, should give the board of works another "dressing down" for its negligence.

OUTRAGE IN IRISH LODGE

Clonmel, Ireland, Aug. 14.—Lord Ashford has a narrow escape from death at his residence, Glenbury Lodge, early this morning. He was asleep in a room on the ground floor when a terrible explosion caused by a bomb shattered one of the walls of his apartment, and destroyed most of the furniture, but did not injure Lord Ashford, who only arrived at lodge last night. The game-keepers recently had trouble with poachers on the estate and the outrage is attributed to them.

DRUNKEN INDIANS RIOT.

Create Disorder on Steamer Estervin.

Peterboro, Aug. 14.—Monday, the steamer Estervin, returning with cheering Lindsay and Sturgeon Point people from the Stone Lake regatta, was the scene of a disgraceful row. Some drunken Indians for a time terrorized the passengers and assaulted the ship's officers. A magistrate on board swore in some special constables, and after a hard struggle the intoxicated Indians were put off the steamer. While the steamer was passing through the double locks at Burleigh the Indians were served openly and liberally with whiskey. Respectable passengers are highly indignant at the breach of the law, and the license authorities are called upon to take action. County Attorney Wood was among the passengers and prosecutions will likely ensue.

SAFE FOR SOME TIME.

Rochester, N.Y., Aug. 14.—The Canada Cup is thought to be safe for two years at least. The Canadian yachtsmen will probably not challenge for some time and the cup holders will not go hunting up challengers to come after the trophy.

THE ANNUAL PICNIC

Was Held on Rogers' Farm on Tuesday.

The annual picnic of the Woodside branch of St. Mark's Sunday school, was held in the spacious grounds of B. Rogers, on the Front-road, Pittsburgh, on Tuesday afternoon, August 13th. The Sunday school with the friends and parents, was well represented and a most enjoyable time was experienced by all. An excellent tea was provided by the ladies of the church, which was done ample justice to by all who partook of it. The usual games were indulged in, and the names of the contestants who were the first to reach the goals at the races are here appended:

Boys under twelve—L. Staples, H. Tolan.

Girls under ten years old—Isabella Gillespie.
