C.P.R. GIFT TO KENORA.

$30,000 For Construction of Railroad Y.M.C.A.

Kenora, Aug. 15.—Announcement is made of the first gift made by the Canadian Pacific railway to the Young Men's Christian Association, of $30,000 with which sum an excellent structure will be put up here. The building will have a large number of dormitories, restaurant, bath rooms, and possibly a gymnasium. It will be four stories in height and will embody all the features considered valuable in work among railway men. The present grant of $30,000 is the first by the Canadian Pacific, with the exception of a grant of $100 per month for current expenses in Revelstoke. It is anticipated that other large gifts may follow and that the company may aid in erecting buildings at other points, where large numbers of their men are employed. Work on the building here will be begun at once, and it is expected that a considerable portion will be completed this year.

Has it ever occurred to you how much it would cost, if YOUERS was the one and only advertisement in the WHIG? The low rate we make you is made possible by our service to many and, with the expense of reaching the same number of circulars or other advertising devices, is sure of netting the largest net return because newspaper advertising is no experiment and has been declared by the most judicious advertisers to be THE MEDIUM that nets the largest net cash returns.

NEW MEN IN IT

What is Said About Cabinet Changes.

THE NEWS' FORECAST

THE LIBERALS ASK FOR SIFTON'S RETURN.

Hon. R. W. Scott to Be Retired—Emmerson and Hyman Will Not Return—Pugsley and Devlin Are to Go in and Graham or Pardee Are Slated From Ontario—Mackenzie King to Seek Election.

Toronto News. Ottawa, Aug. 15.—It is pretty well settled that Mr. Pugsley will be the official liberal candidate in St. John, and will succeed Mr. Emmerson as minister of railways. Any minister of Mr. Emmerson re-entering the government has been abandoned. It is clear, however, that he desires to return, and that he will resist the action of the prime minister. Any minister that will do will be confined to New Brunswick. The general conviction at Ottawa is that he was not a strong minister, and that as his administration of the Intercolonial was due mainly to the deputy minister, and that under all the circumstances his reinstatement by Sir Wilfrid Laurier could not be considered.

It is not expected that there will be any changes in Quebec, and whether or not Mr. Sifton will return to the government seems to be undecided. It is said that the prime minister is eager for Mr. Sifton's return, and that the mass of western liberals feel that his reappearance to the cabinet would vital if the unity of the party in the western provinces is to be assured, and its full force as a fighting instrument exerted at the next general election.

In Ontario Mr. Scott will withdraw and will be succeeded by Mr. Devlin, of Nicolet. He will be the spokesman for the Irish Catholic element, and may stand for an Ontario constituency at the next general election. Mr. Devlin is a speaker of unusual power and persuasiveness, and it is said that his temper has been greatly mortified by his experience in the British parliament. Stronger on the platform than Mr. Scott, and more acceptable to Irish Catholics than Mr. Fitzpatrick, the government will accept a measure of strength through his acceptance of a portfolio.

It is believed to be settled that neither Mr. Campbell, of Centre, nor Mr. Sturgeson, of North Essex, will receive a portfolio. Many federal liberals favor the appointment of Mr. Graham in the conviction that he will strengthen the party at Ottawa, and that his speech at the Ontario convention was hopeless at the next provincial election, it is of far greater importance to hold power at Ottawa and to improve the position of the federal liberal party in Ontario. If the prime minister should decide against Mr. Graham or Mr. Pardee, Mr. Pardee, of West Lambton, will be chosen. Mr. Hyman will not re-enter the government, and it is not at all likely that he will seek re-election in London.

If a department of labor should be created, W. L. Mackenzie King will be the minister in charge. In any event he will contest a constituency at the next general election, and if he does well on the stump and in parliament he will find his way to a portfolio easy and rapid.

Essen, Aug. 15.—A son was born, yesterday, to Frau Bertha Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach, eldest daughter of the deceased gun maker. The infant is heir to the enormous fortune of the Krupp family. Frau Krupp was married October 15th, 1906, to a young German diplomat named Bohlen und Halbach. The Krupp was incorporated into her name by imperial decree.

Has Hill Lost Control?

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 15.—The great John J. Hill and the Great Northern stockholders have held over the Northern Pacific railway for some years has been forfeited, according to the latest current railroad gossip. While it has been reported for several weeks that control of the road has been lost, little credence was given to the gossip at first. Reports have been so persistent and so convincing, however, that they are now believed by nearly all railroad men in the city. It is reported that Hill and his friends first began to lose control when the last great shrinkage in market values commenced a year ago. Hill borrowed much money on his stocks, and in that way kept his controlling interest. Recently he was compelled to let go.

A BRAVE ACT

Saved A Life At Ottawa Station.

MRS. F. B. PROCTOR

PULLED A MAN FROM THE TRACKS.

On Which He Had Stumbled While a Train Was Right at His Elbow—The Lady's Brave Act Merits a Medal From the Humane Society.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Attention is drawn to an act of bravery at the Central station which will merit the attention of the Ottawa branch of the Royal Humane Society and the presentation of a medal for bravery. Mrs. Proctor, wife of F. B. Proctor, barrister, saved the life of a man who was almost under the wheels of a moving locomotive by pulling him from the track.

Several ladies were at the station waiting to see a relative leave on the Winnipeg train, and it was from one of these that particulars are learned.

"Our blood runs with very horror," said the lady, "and we were sure the man would be killed. The Winnipeg train was at the station and one—I think, from Montreal—was walking in some way a man who was walking over the tracks, stumbled, and fell right under the moving wheels. We expected to see him killed or badly injured, when the lady, Mrs. Proctor, sprang from the station and pulled him from off the track. It was a brave thing to do, and she is well worthy of a medal from the Humane Society. After he was pulled off the track two other men assisted and he was carried away to the safety but it was the presence of mind of Mrs. Proctor that saved his life."

FRANCE MAY BE FORCED.

The Algiers Convention May Be Broken.

Paris, Aug. 15.—Competent government circles refuse to discuss the possibility of France eventually being compelled to overstep the terms of the Algiers convention, but the following statements were made on the subject to-day, from an authoritative quarter: "Events may force our hands, but until they do we shall try in good faith to carry out the mandate which we hold from the powers."

BATTLE IN THE SOUTH

GIRL SLAIN IN KENTUCKY FEUD

Her Murderer Shot Dead By Her Brother—Another Connected With the Feud Escapes on Horseback.

Prestonburg, Ky., Aug. 15.—Miss Nora Stephens and Susan Stephens, the two daughters of the late John Stephens, were shot dead in a feud in the county. Miss Stephens met her death last night trying to assist her brother, William Stephens, engaged in a battle of close range by Arnett and Thomas Shepherd, Coburn sympathizers.

Stephens' wife was a sister to the Fitzpatrick boys, now under arrest for the assassination of Andy Coburn in the court room here several weeks ago and being under the influence of liquor, yesterday, Arnett and Shepherd said they intended to make him leave the county. They went to his house and calling him out, began cursing him.

His sister, Miss Nora, a beautiful young girl ran out to get her brother into the house and they began shooting at her. Stephens was not hit, but his sister was shot through the breast and sank lifeless in the doorway. Stephens entered the room, procured his Winchester rifle from behind the door, and standing over the lifeless form of his sister began firing at his enemies. Arnett threw up his hands, dropped his revolver and fell forward at the ray fence gate and Shepherd ran, reached his horse and galloped off. It is believed he was wounded.

Stephens came here to-day, bringing the news of the tragedy and surrendering himself to the sheriff. Stephens is a well-to-do farmer and has no relatives entering the room, and his relatives. Shepherd is said to have gone toward the Virginia border and defies arrest.

THE MODUS VIVENDI.

Boston, Aug. 15.—As a result of a conference between Congressman F. Gardner, Massachusetts, and Mr. Bacon, assistant secretary of state, it is announced that a temporary agreement has been reached between the two parties, which is consolidated and put in effect before the British parliament adjourns at the end of the month, whereby the Newfoundland fisheries question between the United States and Great Britain will be settled without doubt, and go into effect during the coming year.

Traced by Finger Print.

Elizabeth, N.Y., Aug. 15.—Traced by finger prints, discernable in an ink impression of a Black Hand, signed to a letter received by Father Ferretti, of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic church, in which the priest is threatened with death unless he turns over $800 by September 1st, Michael Venzio, an Italian barber, was arrested as the writer of the letter.

Sturdy Old Couple.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 15.—Amos S. Miller, aged eighty-three, and Susan B. McLaughlin, aged eighty, of Little, were married, yesterday. They walked to and from the house of the justice who matched them, four miles. Each one was married three times before. Miller lost two wives by death and one by divorce. Mrs. Miller's former husbands are dead.

CATCH SMUGGLERS.

Uncover New Way of Evading Duty.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 15.—Perhaps the most daring of the many smuggling performances along the frontier that have been detected during the past few years by customs inspectors, was that disclosed yesterday afternoon, when a wagon was held up on the steel arch bridge by Inspector Crosby and 400 wooden traps were found in a false bottom attached to the vehicle.

HOTEL BROOKLYN BURNED.

250 Guests Escaped, But Effects All Destroyed.

New York, Aug. 15.—The Hotel Brooklyn, situated on the Bay front, one and a half miles east of Centre Moriches, and the most pretentious public house in that section of Long Island, was burned last night. The 250 guests escaped serious harm, though several were affected by the smoke that filled the corridors, and rooms. Few, however, saved their effects, only fifteen trunks being removed. Proprietor Frank Rogers was unable to estimate the loss to himself or his guests.

A PLUCKY WOMAN

SAVED THROUGH PRAYER

Lily Lynn's Recovery Credited to It.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 15.—Lily Lynn, the sixteen-year-old girl who on July 2nd was brutally assaulted and nearly died in a field here, by Albert Greenhill, a man from an English reformatory, has almost entirely recovered, and is now perfectly rational.

John G. Lynn, her father, appears to be most gratified since the tragedy. He would not permit his daughter to be interviewed, as he was of the opinion that it would be altogether improper for her to make any statement whatever. She, however, says that she comes up for trial at the fall assizes at Sherbrooke.

Mr. Lynn said that he was a strong believer in prayer. He and his wife prayed for her and he could not say that he had heard of any other cases where prayer had been so successful. He said that he had heard of many cases where prayer had been successful, and he believed that it was the power of prayer that saved her.

SHE TIES BURGLAR UP WITH HIS SHIRT.

Ripped the Garment of Intruder's Back Binds Him and Then Sends For Police.

New York, Aug. 15.—Not content with catching George Marthesi, eighteen years old, of No. 439 East One Hundred and Forty-sixth street, who broke into her home at 22nd street, early yesterday, Mrs. Margaret Bosman tore his shirt into strips, made a rope of them and tied him up securely. When the police arrived, some time later they found Marthesi done up in a neat package all ready for delivery.

Mrs. Bosman thought she heard a noise in one of the rooms shortly before dawn. She listened and when she made sure she started for the room, only to be confronted by Marthesi, who is stockily built. Although an elderly woman, her courage did not desert her. Without an instant's hesitation she grabbed the intruder and started pummeling him.

He fought back, blackening one of her eyes, but she hung on like grim death. Finally she bore him to the ground with an avalanche of swings and scratches. When she got him down Mrs. Bosman called for help and bound his wrists and ankles. He pleaded hard for his liberty but Mrs. Bosman refused to listen.

When he went to the Westchester police station the brave woman sat on Marthesi until Detective Dwyer and several policemen came and took him away. Marthesi's court, Marthesi admitted his guilt and he was held for trial. The police say he stands an excellent chance of going into retirement for some time to come.

HIGH BRIDGE MILE LONG.

C.P.R.'s Plan to Span the Belly River.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—Contracts for what will be one of the longest high bridges in the world, were awarded by the Canadian Pacific railway company. The bridge is to be on the Crow Nest Pass branch, and will cross Belly River. The bridge is to be over a mile in length, and its centre will rise 291 feet above the surface of the water. The bridge crosses at a place where there are high and steep banks on each side, and owing to its great height above the river will be unique in bridge building.

The bridge will be practically a viaduct, being carried on great steel girders which will stretch like from piers in the river. The steel supports will rest on piers built up of concrete piles. This is a departure in bridge building.

A NATURAL FLAGPOLE.

Lightning Splits and Peels a Basswood Tree.

Keene, Ont., Aug. 15.—By a peculiar freak of lightning during recent local storm a basswood tree, five feet in circumference at the base, and eighty feet high, has been converted into a lightning rod. The tree is in Cromer's white mast. The tree is in Cromer's white mast. The tree is in Cromer's white mast.
