SEVERAL MARRIAGES

MISS GILBERT GOES AWAY TO MONTREAL.

Went West to a Quiet Summer Resort—Miss Kelly Married at St. John's Church—Four O'clock in the Morning For Another.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of the bride's father, A. Gilbert, Barrie street, Tuesday evening, when his daughter, Jessie Victoria, was united in marriage to W. J. Rathman, Montreal. The house was decorated with a profusion of flowers and whitesters and ferns. The bride was unattended, and was daintily gowned in cream and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses, and carnations. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred Bright, Ingersoll. The wedding supper, the young couple left at midnight, for a quiet summer resort, accompanied as far as Belleville, by a party of the guests. The bride wore a brown travelling suit. They will reside in Montreal. Mr. Rathman being a jeweller, in the employ of Johnson Bros., of that city.

Married At Early Hour.
A pretty wedding was solemnized at four o'clock on Wednesday morning, in St. Mary's chapel, when Emma Paradis, youngest daughter of Joseph Paradis, Ontario street, was married to Richard Deschamps, assistant foreman for the Bell Telephone company, late of St. Anne's de Belleville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Hanley, in the presence of the immediate relatives of both parties.

The bride wore her travelling dress of brown tulle, wearing also the gift of the groom, a beautiful gold watch. After the ceremony the party returned to the residence of the bride's parents, where a most sumptuous wedding breakfast awaited them. The bride was the recipient of many useful and costly gifts, which testified to the esteem in which she was held by a host of friends in this and other cities. Mr. and Mrs. Deschamps left on the steamer Kingston, for Montreal and eastern points.

Married At Portsmouth.
St. John's church, Portsmouth, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, on Wednesday morning, when Miss Mary Gertrude Kelley, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kelley, Elberker street, was married to John Mercer, Miss Ethel Kelley, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and James Mercer, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride looked charming in her wedding dress of white satin with medallions and yoke of lace. A wreath of orange blossoms lent the only touch of color to the pretty costume. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. O. Connor, in the presence of a large number of friends. After the ceremony the party drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where a dainty wedding breakfast awaited them. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents, which spoke plainly of the high place she held in the hearts of her friends in this city and other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Mercer left, on the noon train, for the west, their destination known only to themselves. Upon their return they will take up residence in the city.

RAIDED THE CHINESE.
Officials Get Into a Peck of Trouble.

Regina, Sask., Aug. 27.—When the mounted and city police raided the Chinese room in Regina on Friday evening, and took into custody some sixty-five members of the colony, they raised a question of international privileges, and serious developments are likely to follow.

Summonses were issued before Magistrate McCausland, requiring the presence in court of the city police, while civil proceedings were started in another direction. The Chinamen, who have not taken the oath of allegiance, claim residence rights, and are seeking the protection of the consulate. An appeal is to be made to the Pekin government and an international question raised.

The police, who will appear in the court on the charge of having placed under arrest four prominent Chinamen in the city without cause, are R. J. Herwood, chief of the city police; C. J. Hogg, corporal R.N.W.M.P.; Alfred J. Hoggarth and Charles Gleadow, constables. The Chinese should not have been disturbed without a search warrant. There are fourteen of the Chinamen who are proprietors of businesses in this city.

Civil action is to be taken against Mayor Smith. Similar suit will be entered against Frank Ford, deputy attorney-general, claiming damages for their alleged action in authorizing the arrest and detention of Chinamen.

The whole of the sixty-five Chinamen will bring action for the recovery of $2,000 each. Total claims for damages amount to $130,000.

To Rear Gas Holder.
D. E. Harding, Waltham, Mass., arrived this morning with six men to construct the new telescope gas holder. Work will be commenced this afternoon and will be completed in about six weeks. Six bricklayers were engaged here this morning. Mr. Harding came here from Quincy, Mass., where he erected a large tank.

Touring The States.
J. M. Greenfield, of Montreal, well known in Kingston, arrived in the city today, via the Cape Vincent boat. He has been making a tour of the states in an automobile, and brought his automobile over on the boat. He will go on to Montreal by boat, to-night. He left on his trip on July 22nd, and reports having had a most enjoyable trip.

Theatrical Attractions.
Manager Brannigan has arranged for some good attractions at the Grand next week. On Wednesday, September 4th, Bernard Daly, Erin's sweetest singer, will appear in Joe Murphy's celebrated play, "Kerry Gow" and on September 5th, 6th and 7th, the Stoddard Stock company will be at the attraction. This company has a strong line of popular plays, and has been doing a great business.

Died In The Hospital.
The death occurred at the General Hospital, on Wednesday morning, of Mrs. Mary Welch, Charles street, after a lingering illness. The deceased, fifty-two years old, came here a few weeks ago from the United States. She was only here a few days when she was taken ill and removed to the hospital for treatment. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at Cataract cemetery.

The Fate Of Trial Fixed.
On Wednesday morning Wesley Parks, of the township of Kennebec, was before Judge Price on a charge of assault preferred by Peter Boomhower, a neighbor. He elected to be tried summarily and pleaded "not guilty." The assault occurred on August 10th, and was one of the kind developed through a dispute over land. A pitchfork and a scythe were used and both parties were considerably battered. The trial was fixed for September 4th.

AT THE POLICE COURT.
A Drunk Was The Only Offender To-Day.

"I was not feeling very well; that was the reason for my taking a drink."

This was the explanation given Magistrate Farrell at the police court this morning, by William Whitehead, who was gathered in for drunkenness. The court did not look upon this as a good excuse; however, and imposed a fine of $1 and costs, with the option of ten days.

"Give me a week to pay?" asked Whitehead, whereupon he was escorted from the room. If the money is not produced to-day, he will do time at Corbett's Castle.

Whitehead was the only offender before the court who was arrested by Constables Hughes and Napton.

STOLEN CARTRIDGES.
Found in a Mill Yard at Arden.

The trial of B. F. Dettlor, of Arden, for theft, will occur before Judge Price on September 27th. Mr. Dettlor is a wealthy property owner in Arden and recently in sawdust in his mill yard was found a quantity of ammunition, chiefly cartridges, which had been carried from the carriage shop of W. W. Pringle, where they had been stored for use by the volunteers. The government stores, it is testified, were valued at $150. In defence Mr. Dettlor denies all knowledge of the matter. His mill yard was open to the public and it was an easy matter for the stolen goods to be hidden there. He declares he has no part, whatever, in the theft.

To Call Out Police.
