TELEGRAM TOO LATE

DID NOT REACH QUEBEC IN TIME

To Give a Warning to the Bridge Workers—The Chief Engineer Was Out When it Came.

New York, Sept. 3.—The telegram sent to Quebec by Theodore Cooper giving a warning regarding the Quebec bridge did not reach Quebec till the middle of Thursday afternoon. The message, which was sent at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, was not received here until this morning.

The fact that the message was not received here until this morning is due to the fact that the telegram was not sent until 11 o'clock on Wednesday, and it took several hours to reach Quebec.

The chief engineer, John Sterling Deans, is in New York, and was unable to get to Quebec in time to give a warning to the bridge workers.

SOTHERN'S WIFE BLIND

Taking of Flashlight Pictures Destroys Sight Temporarily.

New York, Sept. 3.—Virginia Harrod, who is the wife of E. H. Sothern, was brought to this city on a special train last night suffering from blindness brought on by taking of several flashlight pictures in New Haven. In order to get Miss Harrod in the center of the pictures, the photographer kept the camera close to her. She stood the strain in taking pictures of the first three acts, and then said that she was too tired to make two more changes of costume for the remaining two acts of the play. She went back to the New Haven house and went to bed.

Early yesterday she called her maid and said that she was unable to see. Doctors Allinger and Blake were summoned, and worked over her until three o'clock in the afternoon before she was able to raise the lid of one eye. It was said that she would be confined to a dark room for several days and with care she would recover her sight.

SWISS POLICE ARREST

Two American Tourists on Wrong Charges.

Geneva, Sept. 3.—Two young Americans have had a very unpleasant experience of the methods of the Swiss police.

They are staying at one of the leading hotels in Lucerne, and were given the other night a bad 50-lire ($12.50) note. They gave this to a shopkeeper, who handed it to the police when he discovered it to be a forgery, with the result that the Americans were promptly arrested and lodged in prison.

After they and their baggage had been searched they were found to be innocent of the charge and liberated.

The Americans left Lucerne at once for Zurich, but they had hardly arrived in an hotel there when they were again arrested on the same charge and taken to prison in spite of their protests. One of them was kept in Zurich, while the other was taken under police escort back to Lucerne for a new enquiry.

The American consuls in these towns protested, two bank managers assured good family and had practically unlimited credit in their banks to draw on, but still the police were suspicious.

At the second enquiry nothing more was proved, and the Americans were again liberated with abject apologies. The cantonal authorities at Lucerne also apologized profusely, and dismissed the detective who brought the false charge. It is stated that the Americans will claim a heavy indemnity.

REPORT-BREEDING IN ONTARIO.

Report of Inspectors Who Made a Special Investigation.

Toronto, Sept. 3.—The report of the inspectors appointed by the government to make a special investigation into horse-breeding in Ontario has been published by the department of agriculture and is now ready for distribution. It is largely statistical and gives at considerable length details of the work of the commission in every county in the province. Opinions gathered in interviews with private individuals and at public meetings as to what should be done to improve the breed of horses are included. In all the counties the consensus of opinion was in favor of stallions being licensed and registered, and the inspectors in their reports favor the passing of an act to that effect. In many counties the horses were not of a good class, and one cause of deterioration of the breeds was held to be the syndical system of buying and dealing in so-called first-class animals for breeding purposes. At a number of those meetings held it was urged that more attention should be given at farmers' institute meetings to the question of improving the quality of provincial-bred horses.

Dainty and Pretty Thoughts.

An Italian paper has had the quaint idea of asking a number of actresses, singers and dancers what they think of the sea.

These ladies have entered into the matter with charming grace, and the result is a perfect collection of dainty and pretty thoughts.

Signorina Suzanne Dantes speaks of her own soul and its relations with the sea. "When I wish to see a reflection of myself I take a mirror, but when I wish to see the reflection of my soul I look at the sea. At the sight of these waves, sometimes mild and sometimes the wind men-fear the vagaries of my fascinating but perilous soul."

Lina Cavallieri seeks what would happen if she were suddenly to disappear. "How the artists and the lovers and the poets would regret its disappearance. (The famous singer does not give a thought to the floors.)"

Mme. Sallomea Kruscutska is seized at the sight of the sea by feeling of the "melancholy of the infinite, of life and of death. It attracts at the same time as it repels."

Mme. Emma Grammatica is not so deep. She says, "I love the sea, that is all I can say." Mme. Pinkert is very practical. She says, "I wish to see the sea, because it is so sickening. I wish to see the sea, because it is so sickening. I wish to see the sea, because it is so sickening."

A BAD TRAIN WRECK.

Seven Bodies Have Been Taken From the Debris.

Five out of the coaches, the one containing most of the passengers, were taken from the track. Seven bodies have been taken from the wreck, and brought to Orangeville. A large number were injured. Harry Halbert, son of James Halbert, nightwatchman here, had a leg broken. W. J. Robison, of North Bay, former mayor of Orangeville, was badly injured, as were Mrs. and Mrs. Douglas, of Markdale, father and mother of A. C. Douglas, druggist, Orangeville.

Gibson attended a private picnic at Loughboro Lake on Friday. J. Loutts rd, of Kingston, is at St. Gordon's. Messrs. Gibson and Gordon have purchased a new motor engine. J. Clark bought a new motor strander. Misses Cogger, Mary Hamilton and Kathleen and Mildred Green and Leonard Gordon are attending the Kingston Collegiate Institute.
