COMMITTED WEEKLY SPENDS TIME IN JAIL FOR CONSCIENCE SAKE.

German Soldier Persists in Refusing to Do Any Work on Saturday.

Berlin, Sept. 14.—A private soldier named Minge, belonging to the Thirty-first regiment of infantry, has been sentenced here to seven months' imprisonment by a court-martial for refusing to obey a command to do work on Saturday. Minge belongs to the sect of Adventists, who sternly forbid the performance of any sort of work between sunset on Friday and sunset on Saturday. Their Sabbatharianism, in fact, is stricter than that of the strictest order of Jews.

It is by no means the first time that Minge has received similar punishment. He "served" his arms last autumn, and since then he has been practically all the time in jail, for no sooner has one term of imprisonment expired than his refusal to obey fresh commands on Saturday brings with it fresh punishment.

Minge declares that he will die rather than commit the sin of desecrating the Holy Day. The military authorities are equally determined not to yield.

SENTRIES NEGLECT DUTY.

Bombard Shells by Shells of Fort.

Nancy, Sept. 14.—M. and Mrs. Bataille, of Nancy, were subjected to a terrible artillery fire while motorizing along the road from Amand-Morinord to Reims.

They were travelling along the road at six in the morning, when shells fired from the fort at Bourges began to burst close around them. Fortunately there was an overhanging rock at the side of the road near by, and they ran the car beneath it for cover.

After the fall of the guns and the bursting shells had continued for nearly a quarter of an hour, M. Bataille managed to signal to a sentry, whom he could see about a quarter of a mile away, and the bombardment was stopped.

The officers of the fort appeared and apologized, stating that the sentries, who had been posted to warn people off the road during the artillery practice, had neglected their duties.

"I attribute my prompt relief and ultimate cure entirely to the use of Peruna and gladly recommend it."
