erence, Advises Women in to Their Health.

nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant for many years before her decease.

A GIRL'S LETTER.

Miss Rose Hurst, 733 Harris Street, Appleton, Wis., Writes Something of Interest to All Women.

Read What She Says:

The golf tea, on Saturday, was a great success, a large number going over for it.

Some of the married ladies went over for high tea and a game of bridge to the Country Club, yesterday.

Mr. Norman Stuart Leslie will give a little dinner, to-night, at the Country Club, in honor of Mrs. Rutherford, of Ottawa.

Mr. J. C. Farthing, King street, will receive on Wednesday, October 2nd, and on every Wednesday following.

An occasional game of bridge, in a very quiet way, has been filling up society's idle hours for the past few days.

The croquet players have been resting on their mallets for the last few days, weather being partly the cause.

The marriage will take place on Wednesday, October 2nd, of Miss Laura Purdy, youngest daughter of Mr. David Purdy, treasurer of the County of Frontenac, to Mr. G. H. B. Gibson, of Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McMurray Kelso are going up from Toronto to Hamilton, the Bank of Montreal having moved Mr. Kelso there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Macpherson, and Miss Annie Macpherson, Brock street, came home on Monday, from Ottawa, bringing Mrs. James Pennington Macpherson with them.

The Rev. Dr. Barrett and Mrs. Barrett, have been spending a few days in town, and while here were on pension at "Rumilly House."

Dr. and Mrs. Hamilton Mackerras arrived in town, on Sunday morning, when Mrs. Charles Kugler, of Oil City, arose from her bed she went to the crib where her little three-year-old son was sleeping, and was horrified to find the boy's finger nails scabbed and the bed clothing covered with blood.

The bank depositor is apt to lose his balance when the cashier becomes untidy.

A thing that sounds well ought to be if it is.

Youthful Old Age is the result of a healthful middle life.
