THE DAY'S EPISODES

LOCAL NOTES AND THINGS GENERAL.

Courtesies in the City and Vicinity—Other Brief Items of Interest Easly Read and Remembered.

New crop Florida grape fruit at Carrovery "on the corner."

"Kisses." The McConkey brand are sold at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.

The high wind of last night made it very rough on the lake.

"At the candy booth," at the Made-in-Canada Fair, just say McConkey's candy. They are the choice of royalty.

The Y.M.C.A. has had a fine run last night. The course taken was Princess street, Alfred, Union and Barrie.

J. W. Davis, Sydenham, has been appointed clerk of the third division of Frontenac, vice J. E. Chown, resigned.

W. H. Jones, of the Montreal Herald, is in the city to find a young lady to enter the Herald's "Trip-to-Europe" competition.

Some additional truancy cases will come before the police court, in a few days. The cat-o-nine tails does not scare all the lads.

Several police constables are doing special duty each evening. The "Made-in-Canada" fair. Everthing is reported to be quite orderly.

The cargo of hemp which arrived from Cape Vincent via the steamer America for the penitentiary was reported to that institution to-day, in carts.

The board of works has placed some broken stone on the King street roadway, near the market, filling up the hole which has caused much trouble.

"Molasses kisses," McConkey's, fresh at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.

The boats of a few fishermen, tied up along the water front, last evening, were in danger. The strong wind was driving them against the wharf, and some were badly scratched and dinged.

Word was received to-day, from Belleville, that it was very doubtful if William W. Renick, the victim of Wednesday's accident in the railway yards, would recover. One arm and a leg was crushed, and both were amputated.

A. A. Jordan has left for Toronto, to attend a meeting of the executive of the advisory council of the educational department. During his absence, his class will be taken by J. Russell Stuart.

The "You Can Have It" club held a dance at Miss McAlister's dancing hall, last night, and had a pleasant time. At midnight, an adjournment was made to the Chinese restaurant on Princess street, where a supper was enjoyed.

Students' fountain pens are sold at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store. It pays to go there.

A Peterboro man challenges the county to produce "a mad hole, half as big and deep, and only as that in the middle of the street in front of his residence." Sorry that Kingston is not permitted by the challenge to enter its mud hole "of the fourteen-year-old class."

One of two of the local merchant tailors will be manned by Monday next, with as many hands as they require on the bench. As soon as open shops were declared communications were sent out to other cities in the dominion, and all the men needed were secured.

Sponges from 10c. to 85 at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store. Phone 230.

Wonderland drew exceptionally large audiences to every performance yesterday, when the Passion Play was presented. The film from beginning to end is clear and life-like, and the pictures are shown without the humming that is common to many machines.

The play is produced in an hour. A new march and two-step, "Old Faithful," by the well-known composer of "Blaze Away," "Uncle Sammy," etc., has just been received from the publishers and will be sold at 15c. a copy at McDermott Bros., 260 Princess street.

"He Goes To Church On Sunday," "Love Me And The World Is Mine," big song successes, at McDermott Bros., Phone 773.

Hard On The Drunks. The police were out on the war path for drunks, this morning, and before eleven o'clock, they had two offenders in the cell. The arrests were made by Constables Filson and Craig. One offender lives on Clergy street west. He is employed as a driver, and up to a short time ago, has been on his good behavior, but broke out again. Only this week he gave up his position. He is on License Inspector Wright's "Indian list," and will be asked where he received the liquor, when he is arraigned before the magistrate.

Was Turned Back Twice. Another Scotch girl was turned back from Cape Vincent by the immigration officer this week. The first time the girl went over, she was sent back because she had not paid her head tax. She returned to the city, paid her 81 and went back again. When she arrived at Cape Vincent she was sent back, and told that she could not enter at all. She was not put under any examination whatever, and feels keenly her unjust treatment at the hands of the U. S. service.

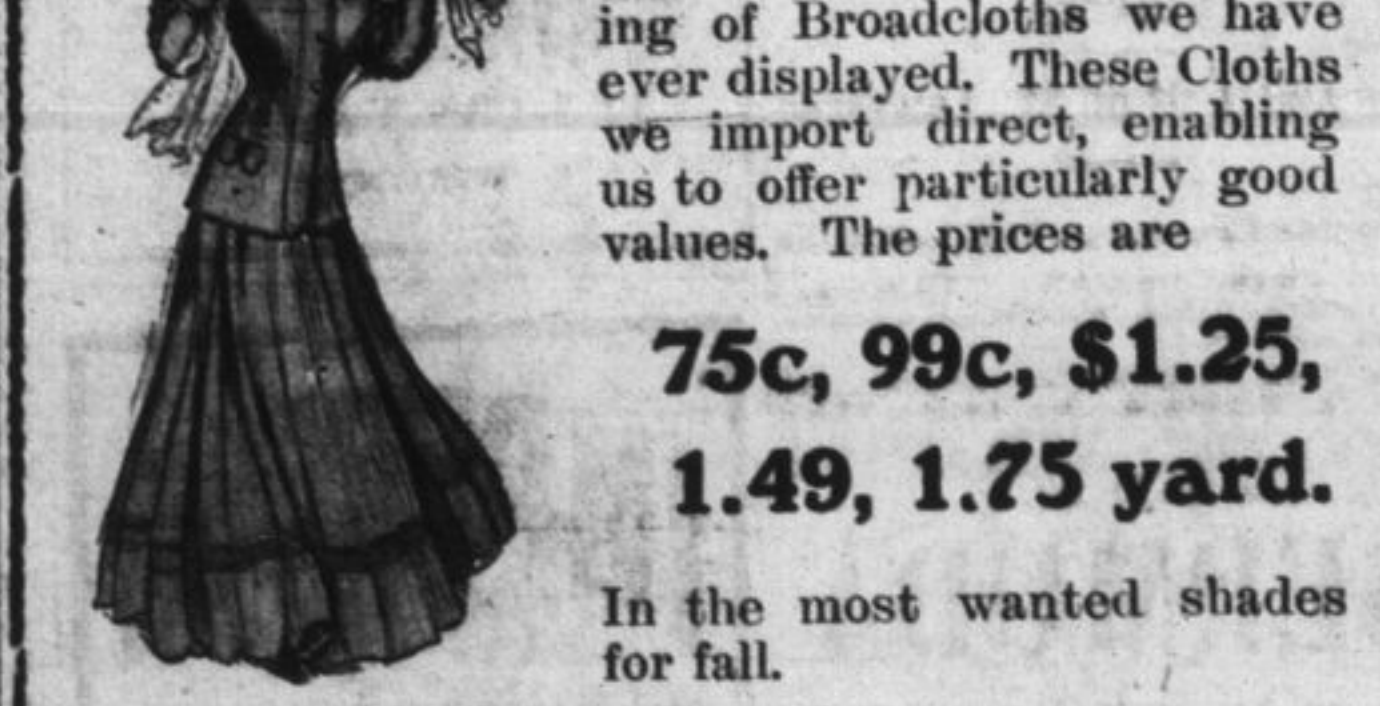

Indian Drank Peruna. Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 10.—What might have been a fatal accident occurred on the Canadian Pacific railway, about thirty-one miles west of Agassiz, when west-bound train No. 97, in charge of Conductor Buckley, struck an Indian on the shoulder, but without seriously injuring him. The man was asleep on the track with two bottles of Peruna, one partly empty.
