THE SPORT REVIEW

THE THREE QUEEN'S TEAMS FOR TO-MORROW.

All Are in Fine Condition—Gleason Likely to Refuse Two Matches—Limestone Head a Good Turnout Last Evening.

Queen's teams had their last real practice at the athletic grounds, yesterday afternoon, before their games on Saturday. All three teams were put through a good, stiff hour's work and every man showed up well. After the practice the men took a good run on the cinder path. At a meeting of the committee, held last evening, the following players were chosen to represent the university in the different series. The first team will be the same as defeated McGill here on Saturday, with but one exception. The line-up will be: Crawford, full-back; Williams, Macdonald, Elliott, halves; May, Barker, Bruce, scrum; DeBouss, quarter; Kennedy, Gallaher, inside wings; Beggs, Buck, middle wings; Turner, Cooke, outside wings.

Queen's II—Limestone, full-back; McKeasie, Pennock, Fraser, halves; Meikle, quarter; Brown, McKay, Norris, scrum; Pringle, Clark, inside wings; Lawson, McEann, middle wings; Young and Murphy, outside wings.

Queen's III—Haffner, full-back; Bennett, George, Truesdale, halves; Rattray, quarter; Moffat, Reid, Dunlop, scrum; McKay, Thomas, inside wings; Mavet, Houser, middle wings; Marcellus, Losse, outside wings.

Every man on the above teams is tried and true, and if the games do not happen, Queen's should win their games on Saturday. Queen's II and McGill II play in the upper campus at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, the third team play at R.M.C. at 2:30 and the first team play Ottawa College at the athletic grounds at three o'clock.

"Eddie" Gleason, a former Ottawa player, will likely referee the Queen's-McGill game in the morning and the Queen's-Ottawa game in the afternoon.

Limestone had a fine workout at the cricket field, last evening, from 7:30 to 8:30, when fifteen men took out in uniform. A good steady practice was held, after which the players took their customary run. The boys will be in good shape for the game with Westmont a week from Saturday.

Limestone Get The Grounds.

Queen's athletic committee is giving the use of its grounds to the Limestone on Nov. 2nd for thirty dollars for their senior match with Westmont. This will give the Limestone a chance to make a little money so as to cover their expenses, which are by no means small. The prices for the match will be fifty, forty, thirty-five and twenty-five cents, and it is hoped a big crowd will turn out for the contest which will be the first senior match outside of intercollegiate rugby that has taken place here since 1901, when the old Granites played the Rough Riders at Lake Ontario Park.

Secretary MacInnes says that Queen's can easily use their grounds every Saturday throughout the rugby season. In order to give Limestone the grounds on Nov. 2nd the junior match between Queen's III and R.M.C. II will have to be played in the morning.

Sport In General.

The Montreal Eastern League baseball franchise is for sale.

McGill threatens to protest Jones, the weight thrower, if he is entered by Varsity in the intercollegiate games.

The football excursion from Ottawa will arrive here at noon to-morrow. The bunch will leave at 9:30 p.m. on the return trip.

If Ottawa College wins the intercollegiate championship the C.A.A.U. will be asked for a permit to play against the champions of the Inter-Provincial Union.

Coach Elliott is confident of the Montreal team downing the Tigers on their own playing field and says that "it's a dollar to a peanut that Montreal wins out."

A few local sports will leave to-night for Montreal to see the Tiger-Montreal game to-morrow. Montreal is picked as winners by most of the judges, but some think that Tigers have a good chance.

Rochester talks of organizing a hockey club, building a covered rink and joining the Ontario Hockey Association, all for the coming winter, the greatest difficulty being a late start.

The O.H.A. will probably welcome the Flower City in 1908.

Father Staunton, who coaches Ottawa College football team, hails from Buffalo. He is a young man, and has had less than ten years' experience in Canadian football, but he was a baseball pitcher of more than local prominence in New York state, while at college.

At a smoker tendered to him by athletes of Winnipeg, Alfred Shrubbs announced: "I intend to return to Canada and settle in Winnipeg and make this city my headquarters. I will devote myself to training long distance runners in the Canadian North-West."

Longboat is entered in the four-mile open race at the Galway Men's games at New York Sunday. James E. Sullivan, the president of the A.A.U., will surely bar Longboat, but the Galways have decided to defy him, and the Irish-American Athletic Club, the New York Athletic Club's victorious rival, will back them up.

Alfred Shrubbs, the English runner, is expected to do well.

CELEBRATED JUBILEE

THE EARLY HISTORY OF THE ORPHANS' HOME.

Plan Originated With a Few Kingston Ladies—Placed on Successful Basis—An Institution That Has Flourished.

Fifty years ago the Orphans' Home was established in Kingston, and this event was fittingly celebrated at the annual meeting of the Orphans' Home and Widows' Friend Society, held this afternoon, at the Home, on Union street. During these many years the home has been run on a most successful basis. The institution has prospered, and is in a flourishing condition.

The institution having entered upon its jubilee a synopsis of the early history of its home will be in order. The plan of establishing an Orphans' Home in Kingston originated with a few ladies who, as members of the Widows' and Orphans' Friend Society, in their visits to the House of Refuge, continually witnessed the suffering and neglected state of destitute orphans and children there. This state of affairs led to efforts in their behalf. A memorial was addressed to the committee of the House of Industry, representing the want of the proper supervision over the orphans, and the final result was the resolution to unite their efforts in obtaining funds for the establishment of an Orphans' Home. Ladies from all various Protestant churches entered into the plan, and through their united exertions a sum amounting to over $765, was raised by a sale of work at the provincial exhibition in 1856, and to this sum another $60 was added by a lady of the society, the name of Kingston requested to advocate the claims of the society; private subscriptions raised, and in February, 1857, the committee were able to purchase a home. In March, 1857, the home was opened for the reception of orphans and homeless children, and at that time thirteen were admitted from the House of Industry.

And thus the efforts of the willing band of workers were crowned with success, and the good work has been continued from year to year.

In this institution these poor, destitute children are cared for. They are taken into a pleasant and comfortable home, where, as one family, they are preserved from evil habits without, and trained in the habits of virtue and regularity. The society is carrying on a grand and noble work. The committee of management of the home is composed of the following: Directresses—Miss Gildersleeve, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Duff; treasurer, Mrs. Garrett; secretaries, Miss Muckleston, corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. V. Rogers, recording secretary, Mrs. C. Livingston, assistant recording secretary.

General committee—Mrs. Birch, Mrs. R. W. Brock, Mrs. H. Calvin, Mrs. Capper, Mrs. J. B. Carruthers, Mrs. A. P. Chubb, Mrs. W. G. Craig, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Hendry, Mrs. Noel Bent, Mrs. Mackie, Mrs. G. Richardson, Mrs. B. W. Robertson, Miss Jane Robertson, Miss Eliza Robertson, Mrs. Sparks, Mrs. W. B. Skinner, Mrs. Spence, Mrs. A. Strachan, Mrs. Van Straubenzie, Miss Spangenberg, Mrs. Waldron, Miss Machar.

Matron, Mrs. Smeaton; superintendent, Thomas Smeaton.

The society has about 130 qualified members.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Good Performance By H. Wilnot of the Young Company.

The H. Wilnot Young Stock Company has made its first appearance at the Grand Opera House last evening before a very large audience. The company is a talented one, and made a decided impression. The piece presented was "Broken Heart," one of the pathetic interest, depicting the sorrow and sufferings of a woman who has been deserted by him who has vowed to cherish and protect her. The scene is set in New York, and at the home of an American embassy in Paris, Marjorie Adams Young, as "Queenie Montrose," afterwards, "The Queen of the Lyric Stage," the deserted wife, proved herself in the portrayal of her character, to be an artist of no mean ability. H. Wilnot Young, in the dual character of "Walter Lawrence" and "Lord Huntingdon," won sympathy in his efforts to win back the affection of his deserted wife and child. His interpretation of his character was an artistic piece of work. Miss Vera Secord and Miss Marie Purcell won applause by the able manner in which they carried out their parts. Baby Marguerite, a pretty child of three years, was quite an attraction.

The specialties were very fine and greatly appreciated. The illustrated songs by Charles Morse gave much pleasure. The De Maton, the lantern experts, were clever and performed some wonderful feats. Verona, the electrical expert, gave a beautiful exhibition and was loudly applauded. The costumes were rich and costly, and the music was appropriate to the play presented.

To-night "A Dash for Liberty," and to-morrow night "Count Monte Cristo" will be the bills presented. At the matinee "A Broken Heart" will be repeated by request.

"Way Down East."

"Way Down East," with all its bucolic adjuncts and original cast, will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House, Friday, November 1st, and present indications predict that the famous old pastoral has lost none of its popularity. Several new features in the way of improvements in the set and mechanical effects have been introduced this season, which are said to have greatly enhanced the pretty stage picture.

STILL ON THE DOCKET.

Some Drainage Cases Not Yet Disposed Of.

There are still three drainage cases which have not been cleared off the police court. It is stated, however, that the necessary work is being carried out, and that there will be no further trouble. The board of health has a strong campaign and Medical Health Officer is keeping a sharp lookout for offenders, as he says the health of the public must be protected. That the court is in sympathy with the health campaign, was amply shown in the police court a few days ago, when a citizen was fined very heavily for neglecting to have proper drainage, and for not going on with the work after being given ample time to do so.

The K. C. I. Team.

A meeting of the K.C.I. football management was held, last evening, when the following players were picked to represent the blue and white against Ottawa, at the athletic grounds, on Saturday afternoon: McCarty, full-back; Dick, Robertson, LaRue, halves; Meikle, quarter; LaRue, Cook, Smith, scrum; McCammon, Stewart, inside; Hazlett, Reid, middle; Sliter, K. Reid, outside.

Lieut. Bodwell in China.

Lieut. H. L. Bodwell, a graduate of the Royal Military College, and instructor there for a year, is in charge of a section of railway construction at Yueh-han, Central China. The railway is being built by a British company. Lieut. Bodwell has written an interesting letter to Dr. J. C. Connell, describing conditions in China.

Balloonist Known Here.

Maj. Hersey, of the weather bureau, Washington, who piloted one of the balloons in the big race from St. Louis, and took fourth place, is a passenger on the train to the morning. All three went through the Rockies on a trip two years ago. Canon Starr corresponds regularly with the major.

One of the garbage gatherers has been doing tricks in the past few days and nights that may get him into trouble. He visits many of the houses between one and three o'clock in the morning, when every person is asleep. One woman in the upper part of the town came near taking a shot at him the other morning, and says she will next time be extra careful.

The grand stand at the athletic grounds has been markedly improved this season by two divisions. A reserved part, with good seats, with backs, is a pleasure that spectators will enjoy.

WATERWORKS RATES

WHAT BATH AND HOSE CHARGES YIELD.

The Bath Charge Should First Be Dealt With—Next Should Come Hose—The Highest Ratepayers Should Be Relieved.

With reference to the proposal to reduce the waterworks rates, it might be of interest to know that the extra charge for baths yields about $2,900 annually, and hose charges bring $1,100. To wipe out both would mean that the yearly profits would be reduced by about sixty per cent. If any reduction is to be made it is conceded by those who have studied the matter that bath and hose charges should first be taken off, before any further general reduction is made. Those who pay the highest rates should get any benefits that can be given, in view of the fact that they are paying three, four, five and six times as much for water as those who own cheap property, and yet in most cases they use no more and oftentimes less water.

The lowest rate is eighty-five cents a quarter for a house, and the highest about $4 a quarter. One citizen paying the former rate may have a family of eight, and another paying the high rate a family of only three or four. Hence, the latter is entitled to consideration when the rates are again revised.

If the waterworks committee decide that a reduction in rates can be made, it is felt that the reduction should be made by a re-arrangement of the present tariff—first by striking off the extra charge for bath, and secondly by giving free water for lawn purposes. The bath charge, however, should be dealt with first.
