GROSS SLANDER OF THE WORLD. Mr. Maclean, M.P., has surprised and shocked his conservative friends by "butting into" London election. He is like Mr. Bourassa, in Quebec, professing to be a member of a party, but the only one in a position to express its ideals correctly and desiring to advance them by abusing and deserting its political friends.

The World, Mr. Maclean's paper, advanced some peculiar theories a few days ago. It accounted for the absence of a liberal candidate in London's bye-election by saying that a compact had been made by the liberal and conservative parties. In consideration of the fact that opposition was not to be projected by the liberals the Whitney government would drop the prosecution of certain alleged offenders and violators of the law, in a former election.

It has remained for the Mail, the chief conservative organ, to denounce this rumour as "a gross slander," on the government and the liberal party, and to describe it as part of a scheme by which Mr. Maclean "could knife the conservatives." The liberals can afford to leave the issue there. They did not see the wisdom of expending their strength upon a bye-election, a few months before the general election. It is said that this was the first decision of the conservatives, also, but they changed their tactics afterwards, and the result is a contest which has been exceedingly bitter, and likely, in any event, to lead to a great estrangement between the conservative and labour parties.

REPUDIATED BUT SILENT.

Has there been a break between Mr. Graham, of the Montreal Star, and Mr. Borden, the leader of the opposition? There has been a difference of opinion, and it has been the theme of much newspaper comment. An examination in the L'Evening case. Mr. Graham said he received in October, 1904, a letter from Mr. Borden, "the chief," telling him that moneys should not be handled by men in public life, presumably by candidates for parliamentary honours. Hence the Graham cash went after that to local members of the party. Some of these were named.

Mr. Graham's evidence was given in May of this year. In September, when Mr. Borden set out upon his tour, he spoke in Montreal. He referred to the alleged Graham letter, and said that no such epistle was written by him, in the campaign of 1904, or at any other time. "So far as these (money) matters which have been alluded to as matters of reproach to me are concerned," said Mr. Borden, "I may say that I have had nothing to do with them from first to last, and I absolutely disown any connection with them."

Mr. Graham does not directly return to this repudiation—he does not resent it in fiery and indignant language, as one might be expected to do whose veracity had been called in question—but he repeats, in a long letter to the press, the idea that Mr. Borden did write him about campaign funds, and did direct that they "should be distributed through committees acceptable to the local party friends." Had Mr. Borden come back to the subject if he likes. Mr. Graham has indicated that he has endured enough for his aforesaid political allies. They may take his money, and ignore his advice, and repudiate him if they will, but they will stop short probably, in his present humour, of throwing him down stairs.

FOLLY OF SCHOOL SYSTEM.

The Ontario school system has been held up for the admiration of the people, and there is about it a great deal that is really commendable. But there is also a great deal that excites the ridicule and adverse criticism. Because Kingston is an educational centre one sees evidences of this the more.

The model school teacher-students have been under instruction since the beginning of the school term in September. They have had exceptional advantages this year in the presence of a new head of the model school, and the appreciative helpfulness of the supervising principal. From now until the end of the model school term these teacher-students will be largely engaged in practice and observation in the public schools. There is one subject in which they have yet to be coached, namely music.

whole proceeding suggestive of that folly which should not be continued in the cause of education? Music is considered essential, and every teacher during his or her period of qualification has to study it, but not under conditions which will give assurance of success.

That which applies to the model school in this respect applies with infinitely greater force to the school of pedagogy. In this brand new institution, established in Kingston under very promising auspices, music is to be taught, and to the extent of twenty or twenty-five lessons. Some of the graduate-students may understand music, but they may not know anything about the Tonic Sol Fa system. How much of it they know by a lesson once a week, given during the winter months? Is not the whole thing—in the model school and school of pedagogy—a screaming farce, and one that reflects seriously upon the education department?

Music cannot be taught in the schools in a haphazard way, and it should be taught properly and effectively or not at all. The education department is responsible for the present defects of inefficiency resulting from methods in the Normal and Model schools that are wretched in form and practice, and the wonder grows that they are tolerated so patiently.

AN APOLOGY IN ORDER.

Charles G. Fraser, in a letter to the Toronto News, has made an unprovoked attack upon the principal of Kingston's model school. He has been deluded in some way and reached the conclusion that Mr. Jordan occupies a government position, the acceptance of which has disqualified him as a member of the Advisory Council. Mr. Jordan was offered the place he now holds because of his exceptional ability as a teacher, because his style, his manner, his work and methods were considered worthy of study by the students of the School of Pedagogy.

The government had nothing whatever to do with his appointment. He is a member of the public school staff, and is amenable to the Board of Education and to no other body. Apparently Charles G. Fraser does not know this, but he could have ascertained the facts with a little enquiry, and a misunderstanding is no justification for his unhappily inspired epistle. Mr. Fraser's letter leads one to believe that he has associated Mr. Jordan in some way with the School of Pedagogy to which the government makes a contribution of $5,000 a year, a sum by no means sufficient to meet its expenses.

The education department has not appointed any member of this faculty. The most it has done is express through the superintendent of education the qualifications which they should possess. The dean and his associates are the appointees of Queen's College trustees. The teachers of the high school and public schools, in which the lectures on methods are given and which the students attend for practice and observation, are the choice of the Board of Education, and the education department has not been consulted with regard to their selection.

In view of all these facts how absurd is the demand of Charles G. Fraser, of Toronto, that Mr. Jordan resign from either the Model School or the Advisory Council. Mr. Fraser simply does not understand the situation, and unless he desires to forfeit the respect of all fair-minded men he will hasten to offer Mr. Jordan his apologies.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

By-elections in North Wellington, London, and East Northumberland today. Who will be the winners?

Did the license department of this city inspire the attacks on the police department? That is the question which some people would like to have answered.

It has not yet been announced who, as mayor, intimated that it was not the duty of the police department to buy itself with the enforcement of the liquor laws. Is it a profound secret?

On Sunday Mr. Roosevelt put another notch in the tally of years. He was then forty-nine. In the prime of life, and the favourite with four-fifths of his people for president for another term.

The Whitney government—which Charles G. Fraser, of Toronto seems to adore—should give him a tip. He is looking for notoriety as an exponent of the government's ideals, and he is sadly in need of inspiration.

Dr. Peters, of New York, in Toronto, said nine-tenths of the people remain away from church because "they want practical, not theoretical religion." Is there anything in this suggestive to the churches in Canada?

The Toronto News says the government is trying to buy East Northumberland with public works. But the Tory candidate discounts that by saying that the government will go on with the public improvements regardless of the result of the election.

In the general election two of the ridings in which elections occurred to-day, went liberal, London and North Wellington, and "one East Northumberland, went conservative."

Why do people destroy the leaves of trees? E. P. Powell, in an American paper, says that having served their purpose in the summer they drop to fatten the soil. "Fools burn them," said he, "but other fools burn bank notes. It is all the same, the destruction of wealth."

Dean Lavell, in Queen's College Quarterly, expresses the spirit and ambition of the university—and they animate all having to do with its faculty of education. The graduates of this new school promise to make their mark in the teaching profession.

KOREA AND ITS MODELS.

Perhaps it is just as well that Korea as a nation should pass. When a nation reaches the point Korea reached as shown by its budget, it is time for a change. Think of $1,103,359 for the imperial privy purse and $424 for public works; $1,000,000 for the furniture of the crown princess and $27,718 for all the public schools in the country outside the capital; $5,000,000 for what was called the army, $450,000 for the annual expense of keeping in commission one old gunboat which constituted the whole navy of the country, and an expenditure of about $250,000 for the palace guard. Japan will at least give the people something for the taxation levied. It may be Egypt over again.

APPRECIATION OF AYLESWORTH.

It is intimated by a contemporary that, after a few weeks' rest does not cure Mr. Aylesworth of the ear ailment from which he is suffering, he may retire from the government and public life. It would be a pity. Public life does not offer Mr. Aylesworth anything as sure and material as he could earn in his law practice. He may be said, therefore, to have sacrificed his personal interest for the service of his fellow-Canadians. And whatever may be said of his individual fitness for the game of politics, he has this one point to his credit: that with little to gain and much to lose he consented to enter the service of the people. His bitterest political foe should be able to wish him better health.

WILL NOT WORK WITH PRAYERS.

The party which under Mr. Borden's leadership has raised $29,000 supported by Hugh Graham for use in one group of Quebec constituencies, and had a fund of $25,000 for one constituency alone in New Brunswick, and a total fund of $290,000 for the whole province, as Mr. Pugsley has publicly declared and challenged Mr. Borden to an investigation of the truth of his charge, and that had as its aim the raising of the party campaign fund, will not work with prayers. The Russell-Graham-La Presse deal, upon the details of which daylight is beginning to get in, will not carry on the coming campaign with prayers for all the pious platform professions of Mr. Borden. Mr. Borden knows that it will not; and everybody in Canada with the most elementary knowledge of politics knows that it will not, and knows, too, that behind the platform immaculateness of Mr. Borden there is a disposition equal to that of other public men to have their side make use of such means as are deemed necessary to secure victory in political warfare.

DROPPING WORDS OF ADVICE.

Bank stocks in Canada have dropped a little, but there are comparatively few shares changing hands. The best investment to-day for one who has the money, is not to buy, but to sell. The market is not as strong as it will pay a good interest at present prices; and there is nothing safer so long as the banks are conservatively managed. For all legitimate business purposes the banks are supplying necessary funds to borrowers where the security is gilt-edged, and the rate of interest has not made any great advance. The leaders of finance and in banking in Canada have no apprehension of financial trouble, and no apprehension have expressed themselves in substance that the country is as prosperous to-day as ever.

The nation, are in splendid financial shape. That crops have been excellent and that the middle west and far west are booming, is a fact. That shrinkages in stock values largely are paper losses and that in reality stocks are now getting down to a fair level.

VALUABLE PRESCRIPTION AND HOW TO PREPARE IT.

Simple Home Mixture is Recommended Highly in Kidney and Bladder Trouble and Rheumatism.

This is a message that will bring happiness again into many families, and sunshine into the lives of hundreds of disheartened and discouraged men and women here. It requires just a little inconvenience for it can't be bought already prepared. It is a simple home recipe now being made known in all the larger cities through the newspapers. It is intended to check the many causes of rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble which have made so many crippled and invalids and weaklings of some of our brightest and strongest people.

The druggists here have been notified to supply themselves with the ingredients, and the sufferer will have no trouble to obtain them. The prescription is as follows: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce, Compound Kargon, one ounce, and Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle. The dose is one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Recent experiments, even in severe hospital cases, prove this simple mixture the remedy for rheumatism, because of its positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It compels these vital organs to filter from the blood and system the waste impurities and uric acid which are the cause of rheumatism. It cleanses the kidneys, strengthens them, and removes quickly such symptoms as backache, blood discharges, bladder weakness, frequent urination, painful, scalding and discolored urine. It acts as a powerful stimulant to the entire kidney and bladder structure, puts new life into the system and invigorates the entire tract. It makes the kidneys clean the blood. The Dandelion will take care of liver trouble and constipation, and is fine for the stomach.

All the ingredients, states a well-known local druggist, are of vegetable extraction, making it a safe and harmless prescription at any time.

Those who suffer and are accustomed to purchase bottles of patent medicine should not let a little inconvenience interfere with making up this prescription. Where this becomes generally known saves a large Eastern publication. It ruins the sale of the patent medicines and so-called rheumatism and kidney cures, which is its best endorsement of virtue.

Blouse of Silk Or Soft Satin.

In the sketch is shown a new French blouse which would be effective in various colorings. The model was made of cream white lousine, with an edging and loops of black velvet ribbon. The blouse was laid in loose plaits and had wide armholes. The embroidery, cravat and sleeves were of embroidered linen batiste, with the little chemisette of dotted tulle.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop's Remedy. It ruins the sale of the patent medicines and so-called rheumatism and kidney cures, which is its best endorsement of virtue.

Watch yourself thoroughly and see how busy you will be. Sympathy and money make a fine-working combination. The trained gossip never complains of sore feet.

Sinking Sensations

In the Stomach.

Do They Effect You? These unpleasant feelings of weakness and collapse indicate that the sympathetic nervous system is out of order.

The cause is impairment of nerve tone, arising from failure of the stomach to perform its work. Acute indigestion follows and the natural result is mental depression, and a feeling of collapse and extreme weakness.

The best, because the quickest and surest cure, is Ferrozene. It acts at once upon the digestive and assimilative organs—it fortifies the stomach—makes the blood nourishing, gives it a rich, red color, the best evidence of health.

"For ten years I suffered acutely from stomach trouble," writes Maxwell Thompson, of Toledo. "I always had a headache and dull feeling after meals. My appetite was poor, and I didn't relish food. It was all due to a weak, defective stomach. I read about Ferrozene and ordered six boxes from my druggist. It was no time at all before I felt much better, and when all the Ferrozene was used I really took a new lease of life. I am stronger, brighter, and feel more like work than before trying Ferrozene. It is a splendid tonic, the best I ever used." Ferrozene is unparalleled in curing stomach ailments, try it and be convinced. Sold by all druggists in 50c boxes.

THE ETERNAL WRANGLING.

Bishop Criticizes Bitterness in English Church.

London, Oct. 28.—The Bishop of London pointed his sermon at the Church of the Holy Trinity, yesterday, with reference to what he saw in America.

"There is far greater generosity, love and trust between the different bodies of Christians and between the schools of thought in the same church in America than here in England," said Dr. Ingram. "It was like going into another atmosphere to pass from the wrangles of Great Britain into an atmosphere where they are unknown."

"I found that the bitterness which disgraces our church at home is unknown in America, although there are conscientious differences there. It was quite a shock, amid the love and harmony there, to take up the English newspapers and read the reports of the church congress here and find that the eternal wrangle was going on today which had been going on for fifty years."

"And then," added the bishop, "what services we had out there! Why, I heard the rafters shake with praise."

Congress Too Costly; Will Run For Governor.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Because, so he says, he can't afford to live in Washington on the salary he gets, Representative Watson is going to run for governor of Indiana. Watson is the republican whip of the house and has been regarded as one of the coming men, but he finds that he can't hold on long enough to get there.

He was reminded that the salary had been increased from $5,000 to $7,500.

"I know it," he answered glumly.
