A BOLD ROBBERY

MAN RAN OFF WITH $35 FROM A RESTAURANT.

Two Chinamen Engage in a Lively Chase Down the Main Street—Police Make An Arrest Later.

There was great excitement around the Chinese restaurant on King street about ten o'clock, Tuesday morning, when a young man entered the restaurant, relieved the till of $35 while the proprietor of the place was not looking and made off. Two Chinamen saw the young man make his hasty exit, and gave chase. The man ran along King street to Queen, and then turned down to Ontario street. The Celestials gave him a hot chase for two blocks, and were compelled to give up. The man then made his escape, and from last accounts had not been seen.

Quite a few people who were on the street at the time witnessed the race, but did not know what had happened until it was all over. It was thought by some that the young man had misbehaved himself, and had been ordered out of the restaurant. The police were notified and given a description of the thief, and are now endeavoring to locate him.

Later—Constables Arnel and Mullinger who were notified about the case, arrested a young man, aged twenty-two, giving the name of Don H. Wilson, of Watkinson, N.Y., just as he was about to board a train at the Grand Trunk station. He admitted to the officers that he had stolen the money, and asked them to let him down easy.

Wilson is also alleged to have stolen money from the Chinese restaurant on Princess street, and it may be that he will have several charges to answer for. He came here from Watkinson about two weeks ago, and according to all accounts, has been spending quite a sum of money and having a good time.

SUING FOR DAMAGES.

A Woman Shut Out at Russell Hotel.

Toronto, Nov. 5.—The case of Mrs. Florence L. Appleyard, who is suing Milligan Bros., proprietors of the Russell house, Ottawa, for $10,000 damages, was before the master, at Osgoode hall, to-day. The woman occupied two rooms at the hotel, furnished by herself and went on a trip to the old country. On her return Milligan Bros. refused to allow her to occupy the rooms, and she thereupon sued for damages. It was decided by the master that the trial must be held on December 3rd at Brockville. The defendant desired a rider attached to the effect that Mrs. Appleyard must remove her furniture from the hotel and the master reserved judgment on this point.

A TERRIFIC DASH

RACES DOWN GRADE AT 90 MILES AN HOUR.

Cars Hurled Into a River—Two Brakesmen Killed and Engineer is Missing—Accident on Jersey Central.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 5.—Two men were killed and a third is missing and one man was injured in a collision between two freight trains, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near McMillan, W.Va., about seventy miles west of here. One of the trains had gotten beyond control. The dead: Jacob W. Gensch, brakeman, of Cumberland, Md. W. E. Fallon, engineer, of Keyser, W.Va.

Missing: Martin J. Fallon, engineer, Piedmont, W.Va., supposed to be under the wreckage.

Injured: J. H. Cornwell, of Grafton, W.Va., conductor.

At the top of the grade at Terra Alta, W.Va., the air brake of the train which ran away was tested and it is said it was found in good order, but in going down the grade the train got beyond control, reaching a speed of ninety miles an hour and making a terrific roar.

The collision occurred about two miles from the bottom of the grade after the train had run about twenty miles. Cars were hurled in all directions. Fourteen cars, including the caboose, were thrown down the embankment into the river. Eleven were steel cars loaded with coal. The fireman of the runaway train was thrown opposite the river embankment and escaped injury.
