OPERATION AVOID. EXPERIENCE OF MISS M. She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped. When a physician tells a wife that an operation is necessary, thought of the knife and the table strikers terror to her home our hospitals are full of women for just such operations. There are cases where an operation is necessary, but when the doctor tells a wife that an operation is necessary, thought of the knife and the table strikers terror to her home our hospitals are full of women for just such operations. Dear Mrs. Pinkham: I have been suffering with serious feminine troubles for several months. I have been unable to get on my feet, and my health is so poor that I am almost a invalid. I have tried many different remedies, but nothing has done me any good. I have heard of your Compound, and I have bought it, and I am glad to say that it has done me more good than any other medicine I have ever taken. I am now able to get on my feet, and my health is so much improved that I am almost a new woman. I am sure that your Compound is the best medicine for all kinds of feminine troubles. I have recommended it to all my friends, and I am sure that they will all be benefited by it. I am, dear Mrs. Pinkham, your truly, Miss Margaret Merkle.
