This will be a genuine innovation for this country, although in Italy all the scenery is constructed of paper. The same amount of canvas scenery, such as is used in this country, would necessitate a special train load of cars. If New York is a barometer of things theatrical, there is significance in the fact that while this season four productions with a trend toward the serious have been compelled to withdraw after a trial of only a week or so, and ing to thin houses, tickets for musical comedies and vaudeville are so much in demand that it is necessary to secure seats days, and in some instances
