Had Palpitation of The Heart EVER SINCE SHE WAS NINE YEARS OLD, MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS EFFECTED A COMPLETE CURE.
If you find your health failing, your food beating irregularly—slow, now fast—skipping a beat now and then, palpitations or throbbings on the slightest excitement or exertion, pain in the region of the heart, face pale, dizzy and faint spells, these all point to heart weakness, to nerve derangement, to a state of health consequent upon Nose, which, if not corrected and cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, will surely end in utter prostration and hopeless invalidism.
From the depths many have been raised by this remarkable remedy, as its power is beyond all question most marvellous; but, why wait until you have gone so far? Taking these pills now will turn you from the perilous path of sickness and put you on the highway to health.
Miss Mary Wilson, Toronto, Ont., writes:
"It is with the greatest of pleasure that I recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Ever since I was nine years of age I have been afflicted with palpitation of the heart, pain in my side and nervousness. As I grew older it kept increasing.
After having tried numerous doctors' medicines, but to no avail, I was induced to try your pills, and after using several boxes I began to improve, so kept on taking them for some time until now I can truthfully say I am in perfect health." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cts. per box or three for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

His Move.
I have known William Cassidy, one-time editor of the Albany Argus, possessed the traditional Irish wit. On one occasion a number of years ago, he was a guest at a political banquet in Albany. At that time finger-bowls were seldom used, and their correct usage (a passing fad) meant to dip a corner of the napkin in the water and therewith deftly cleanse the finger-tips.
Most of the men present eyed the innovation when introduced at dessert, narrowly and uncertainly. One after another ended by plunging the hand into the crystal dish. But Robert Fruyn, a well-known Albany gentleman, correctly moistened a bit of his napkin and laved his fingers. Mr. Cassidy watched him admiringly, not having as yet touched his own glass.
"That's good," he whispered to a neighbor. "That's good. If Fruyn hadn't done that I would have put my foot in it."

HER CROWNING GLORY
WOMAN'S HAIR ONE OF
HER WEAPONS.
A Beauty and a Snare, a Shining Web Stretched For the Entanglement of the Unwary.
Poets from earliest times have sung of women's hair. It has been one of the strongest weapons in the feminine arsenal of charms—a beauty and a snare, a shining web stretched for the entanglement of the unwary, a fascination, a bewilderment, a delight. Man with his unbound locks has been less fortunate. Samson, short, lost his strength, his flowing hair proved Absalom's undoing.
It is rather an interesting study to watch the passing fashions in the arrangement of this "crowning glory." The present picturesque style of dress demands a corresponding picturesqueness in hair dressing, and while this elaboration of coils, puffs and little curls proves most becoming to the young and charming woman, it must be admitted that, to woman of uncertain years and very certain angularity, it has proved anything but a beautifier. The quantity of hair in this new mode of coiffure demands is somewhat appalling to the woman with an ordinary amount of hair, and very often she has to call upon her hair dresser to supplement what nature has bestowed upon her. This he does, adding curl and strand so cleverly matched in color and quality that she sometimes wonders if Milady ever gives a thought to the head that this purchased hair last adorns—to the peasant girls of France and Italy who were persuaded to part with their plaits of hair? Persuaded is, however, hardly the word, for in many cases, these girls are only too anxious to sell, although a law passed not long ago forbidding the purchase of whole heads of hair has had an appreciable effect upon the supply.
Still there is hair to be had—and hair in plenty, gathered by peddlers, whose business it is to travel through the countries bargaining with the peasant women. These men become very expert judges, and to a certain extent the price of the hair is determined according to the difficulty found in obtaining a good supply.
White hair is the most difficult in the world to get, and, therefore, is the most expensive, notwithstanding the fact that very little of the white hair sold is genuine. If the truth be known, much hair sold as genuine white hair was at one period since it left its original owner of a much darker shade, and only after numerous baths in acids and chemicals did it take on the much-prized snowy whiteness. If the genuine white hair is possible to obtain it retains at an outrageous sum—a braid weighing two ounces, costing $100.
A goat, whose home is in Turkestan, bears wool, which, when treated, is a remarkably good imitation of genuine human white hair. Only the hair of the goat is used, and, although in its natural state, it is coarse and woolly, it becomes under manipulation soft and silky.
Blonde hair is principally bought in Sweden and Germany, and, therefore, both these countries being noted for their luxuriant fair hair. But genuine blonde hair is also expensive, and once more the chemist is called upon, and after repeated chemical baths and treatment, brown hair emerges in all shades of flax, gold, red-gold, bronze and pink, honest red. This dye is quite permanent, but, as it does not change, as dye applied to growing hair is apt to do. This is explained by the possibility of using much stronger chemicals, and even submitting the hair to boiling, without changing the color. So if you invest in some reasonably expensive hair at a reliable hair dealer's, you may rest confident that it will keep its color and luster until the end of time.
It is not quite a pleasant thought that some of the cheaper grades of hair adorned the heads of our Celestial brethren, but such is the case.
Chinese hair would seem, at first thought, too coarse and of a color not apt to be in demand. But once again the manipulator of chemicals has to be considered. He has the one-time queue with acids and fades it with bleach until, when it finally passes from his hands it bears absolutely no resemblance to the original black hair which went to him. Without this transformation Chinese hair is used for making negro wigs, for which it is particularly suitable in color and quality. By very careless use it can be crinkled into a perfect imitation of negro wool.
Fashion in hair, like fashion in everything else, is constantly changing.
This applies not only to the mode of arranging it, but also to the color, and as nature shows a dignified disdain for the follies of fashion, art must come to the rescue. As one of the characters in a recent novel is made to exclaim, "Oh, duchess, dear, I do like that color for your hair!"
To which "duchess" replies, "You know I have just had my drawing room done over, so I had my hair done to match!"

THE SPORT REVIEW.
Interesting News From the Various Sporting Fields.
The Toronto Telegram accuses the intercollegiate teams of playing more burling football than those in the inter-provincial.
Hans Wagner's feat of winning the batting championship of the National League five times is without a parallel in baseball.
Ottawa Press: Press: Two Ottawa teams playing in Montreal next Saturday, should cement the friendship of the two cities. But it's a safe bet cement will not stand the strain.
The Quebec Rugby Union decided that Montreal and Ottawa should play a series of home and home games to decide the intermediate championship, the first game to be played in Montreal today, and the second in Ottawa on the 23rd.
President Cannon of the University of Toronto, disputes the statement that Queen's are the 1907 soccer champions, and contends that, whereas Varsity has two games to play with Queen's, the locals have a good chance to win the honors. The first game was to be played in Toronto today.
Father Stanton, of Ottawa College says that it is not at all improbable that the Capital City University will be represented in the senior series of the intercollegiate Hockey League this winter. This move would be heartily welcomed by the other three universities.
Ottawa Journal: Ottawa College has the highest team in the intercollegiate and McGill one of the heaviest, but weight counts but little these days, and Father Stanton's pets should outplay the McGill stars on the forward line and back division.
Toronto News: The constitution of the Canadian Rugby Union provides that all challenges for the Dominion championship must be in November let. The Inter-Provincial Union didn't decide to apply for membership until Monday, and their challenge being several days late the newcomers can hardly be considered by the union when the final games are being arranged.
Paris used to fight with its feet. La savate, but now takes to the loe. American as a duck to water. A rare carnival of boxing is to be held in the regional building on the Hudson quarter this month. A number of bouts will be on the programme, all of them fought under the American rules. It is understood that some of the French boys have developed considerable skill with the gloves and are able to give and take in fine style.
Montreal Gazette: The present Mc-Gill difficulty is the obtaining of a good rink, where the intercollegiate matches could be played. McGill are dissatisfied with the Victoria rink, which they have hitherto used, and the executive were instructed to report and arrange with other rinks on more favorable terms than that accorded by the Victoria rink.
The latest action of the C.A.A.U., in placing all players of the Intermediate Inter-Provincial League under the ban means that all the Ottawa II's will be professionalized when they line up against the Hamilton Tiger club or Dundas for the intermediate championship of Canada.
A Warning To Mothers.
There are unscrupulous dealers who for the sake of trifling gain are willing to sacrifice the health of the lives of little ones. This is proved by the fact that there are a number of imitations of Baby's Own Tablets offered. The mother must be on her guard, and see that the full name Baby's Own Tablets and the four-leaf lover with child's head on each leaf, a found on the outside wrapper, are on the wrapper. Do not take anything else as you may endanger your child's life. If you cannot get the genuine tablets from your dealer send 25 cents to The Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and get a box by mail postpaid.
The Soloist's Joke.
A very amusing incident is told in which the principals were Dr. Potts and a well-known lady vocalist of Victoria, but formerly of the doctor's home city, Toronto.
The lady was formerly with the choir of the Metropolitan church, Toronto, and shortly before leaving Toronto happened to be the soloist at a service when Dr. Potts was the preacher. Some years afterwards the doctor visited this city and occupied the pulpit of the local Metropolitan church, and by a curious coincidence had the same party for soloist. To the lady's surprise and amusement the doctor preached the same sermon as on the Toronto occasion.
Not to be outdone, the soloist altered her text, and sang the same thing else as you may endanger your
25 cents to The Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and get a
box by mail postpaid.
Have Iron Strength.
Strong people have rich, red blood.
The color of the blood is due to the iron in it. When iron is lacking, vitality and strength is reduced. Then it is time to take Wade's Iron Tonic Pills (Laxative). This form of iron slips into the blood without tax on digestion and increases energy and vitality. They are a great nerve strengthening and blood maker. In boxes, 25c., at Wade's drug store.
Money back if not satisfactory.
Peer's Conception of Socialism.
London, Nov. 9.—Lord Henage, replying to a Fabian critic, says "The new socialism," in his opinion, "leads and is intended to lead, to the overthrow of christianity and morality, and the absolute repudiation of Almighty God and the gospel of Christ."
