A Concert At Parham. Parham, Dec. 3.-The members of St. James' Choral Society on Friday ast gave a second concert in the O.O.F. hall, which proved very sucssful. The good name that they ad won for themselves at their first venture had evidently spread far and wide for by 8 p.m., when the resident, Rev. Mr. Cox, rose to open dings, the hall was filled with a representative gathering from the neighborhood for many miles w the audience from start to finish proved that it was an appreciated one and none too long. The society were fortunate in again securing the help of G. H. Gillespie, of Kingston, always a host in himself, and ever ready to lend a helping hand. The programme opened with a selection by the orchestra, then item followed item cluding with a very amusing half an the latest of Parham productions.
