THE 5 P.M. EDITION

FROM COLLEGE HALLS

DRAMATIC CLUB MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.

Alma Mater Elections on Saturday—W. L. Mackenzie King to Address the Political Science Club.

P. G. McPherson, who was president of the college Y.M.C.A. last session, will speak on "The Student's Outlook," at the association's regular meeting to-morrow afternoon. "Overcoming the Blues" is the subject of discussion at to-morrow's meeting of the college Y.M.C.A.

There have been posted in the various buildings of the university notices, signed by the registrar on behalf of the senate, to the effect that, in consequence of the fact that the playing or preparations of rooms for meetings, etc., are forbidden before the hour of four o'clock in the afternoon, as it is desirable that there should be no disturbance while the classes are in session.

The executive of the Practical Science and Debating Club has almost completed its plans for the season. Among those who will in all probability address the club during the winter are G. R. Peacock, M.A., of Toronto, a Queen's graduate, who has acquired distinction as a corporation financier, and W. L. Mackenzie King, of Ottawa, the well-known "peacemaker."

The Dramatic Club is now holding its rehearsals in the evenings in Convocation Hall and is making rapid progress under the direction of Sinclair Hamilton.

The latest report of the Journal's inter-faculty circulation comparison shows that arts is far the lead, with science second, in the earnest desire that the campaign be conducted in a clean and honorable fashion. This desire is evidently being realized as the election committees of the various faculties are seeing to it that British fair play is the distinguishing feature of the campaign. Provision has been made by Secretary Stidwell, of the Alma Mater Society, whereby the theological students and others who will be out of the city during Saturday and Sunday, may vote by sealed ballot prior to their departure.

Ill-health obliged K. S. Macdonnell, '11 arts, to return to his home in Fergus, a short time ago. Although he had been at college but a short time, "Ken," who is a brother of H. S. Macdonnell, Rhodes scholar, had made many friends, who deeply regret his departure.

GAVE STRIPS OF SKIN TO SAVE ENGINEER'S LEG.

Ottawa, Dec. 5.—An interesting operation was performed, yesterday, at St. Luke's Hospital, when eight employees of the C.P.R. and G.T.R. each gave a strip of the outsole from his arm, eight inches in length, which he had given to the leg of Engineer Herbert Reynolds, who was seriously injured in the Plantagenet wreck on the C.P.R. a few months ago. The grafting process was the only hope of saving the leg, and the operation, though painful, was entirely successful. It is the second case of the kind in Ottawa.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

The meeting of this society was held, yesterday, a good number of the members being present. There was a considerable amount of business to be attended to and all present showed their appreciation of the work which is being done. Reference was made to the loss to the society and all Christian works in the death of the late Mrs. Ward. Among the other items a reference was made to the treasurer, and the hope was expressed that the legislature would, at its next session, pass a law by which a good set of officers should be appointed for this work. The agents of the society, 325 Brock street, would thank any who know of any case requiring his attention if they would communicate the same to him.

TEACHER HAS RESIGNED.

Elsie Carter has sent in her resignation to the board of education as a member of the Collegiate Institute staff, much to the regret of the pupils who were attached to him. Mr. Carter took a great interest in helping the boys along with rugby and hockey.

CLOTHING FOR THE NEEDY.

Brook street Methodist church has parcels of clothing which will be given free to the needy, Saturday, December 7th, from 2 to 5 p.m., at the church.

THE NORTHERN LIGHTS.

There was a beautiful display of the northern lights, on Wednesday night, the long white flames leaping up into the sky from far to the west as far north as the lights are spirit fingers beckoning to the happy hunting grounds.

THE LAST CHILD TAKEN.

Rev. T. E. Burke, of Brook street Methodist church, surrendered, yesterday, to the General Hospital, the one remaining member of his family who was not already there—his eldest boy. Each of the four members of his family has been taken ill, of scarlet fever, though one of them has so far recovered as to be able to return home. The attack, happily, is a mild one, and no serious consequences are anticipated.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

By special arrangements with the publishers of weekly and monthly magazines, we are enabled to deliver to any address in the city, for the year 1908, any magazine without any additional cost above the regular subscription price of 1907. Subscriptions will be received at once. Ladies Home Journal for one year will be $1.50, through our system. McDermott Bros., 260 Princess street.

"THE FATAL FLOWER."

"The Fatal Flower," by Howard Hall, will be presented here for the first time at The Grand, on Monday, December 9th. William Walcott, who has the leading part, needs no introduction to those who are of this city, having been featured with the Belasco productions for several years. Mr. Walcott, is ably supported by Miss Florence Rossland, and one of the strongest and most capable companies ever got together for a road attraction. The piece is most magnificently equipped.

POLICE COURT BRIEVITIES.

Samuel Cole, in from the country, told Magistrate Farrell, this morning, that the cold weather was responsible for his having taken a little too much liquor. He had just come to town, was waiting for his trunk, and just for pastime had visited the different hotels, taking a sample of the different brands of "strong stuffs." The samples were too much for him, and instead of going to work, today he found himself in the police cell. His spree cost him $3.85. Another drunk was discharged.

REMINDER TO CLERGYMEN.

Recently a local clergyman neglected to ask for the burial certificate at a certain funeral, and in his report to the deputy registrar-general, was unable to report that he had seen it. Now the deputy has issued a circular letter drawing the attention of clergymen to their duty as required by law. Before a clergyman officiates at a burial, he must request the undertaker to produce the burial certificate. Clergymen do not usually do this. Now they are reminded that they must. The precaution is taken to have a double check on burials.

SURELY IN A QUANDARY.

One of the collegiate teachers reported as unsatisfactory for the pedagogy department stated before the management committee when questioned, that he had been examined in only one small section of his teaching. This he considered unfair. A Queen's University professor declares that the teacher in question is quite capable of doing his collegiate work, and that there is no need for removing him. The experts are not agreed. Another of the teachers on the list of those to be replaced is backed by another Queen's professor as a capable teacher. The board of education is surely in a quandary.

HIGH HONOR CONFERRED.

A former Kingstonian, Smyth Crooks, has been elected Eight Eminent Grand Commander of Knights Templar of Illinois, one of the highest positions in the gift of the Masonic order. On Wednesday evening, December 4th, his two members of the Apollo Commandery, No. 1, Chicago, tendered him a magnificent reception at Medinah Temple. Mr. Crooks is engaged in the boot and shoe business on North Clark street, Chicago. He served his apprenticeship with William Adams, Brock street, this city, who is rightly proud of the kind of apprentice he turned out. Mr. Crooks' many city friends extend hearty congratulations at the honor conferred upon him.

A SMITH'S FALLS WEDDING.

A quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized at St. John's church, Smith's Falls, November 27th, when Miss Daisy Lowan and Murvin Palmer were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Styles. The bride was assisted by Miss Minnie Hartman, and the groomsmen were Leslie Palmer, brother of the groom. The bride was radiantly charming in a costume of white silk, while the bridesmaid was becomingly attired in white silk or tulle. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the groom's aunt, Mrs. G. Hooper, where a sumptuous supper was awaiting them. The bride received many presents. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer are highly respected by their numerous friends, and all join in wishing them every happiness in their future home at Smith's Falls.

ACTION OF THE BOARD

BIBLE DEBARRED FROM SCHOOLS.

Chicago Tries to Make Its Public Schools Officially Barred From Chicago Public Schools. With the holy writ are excluded all books containing biblical excerpts.

The fight that has waged for weeks over the proposed introduction of scriptural literature as supplemental reading in the schools ended with this result, when the school management committee of the board of education disposed of the matter summarily.

The reason for the Bible's rejection is given by the trustees as a feat that result in evoking distrust of the integrity and unsectarian character of the schools. "The matter will not go to the board as a body, unless it is brought forward by some trustee."

Rev. Rufus A. White, after the committee acted, questioned the propriety of having certain books in the schools of an alleged sectarian character, which now are in use. His suggestion was dropped as if it were a red hot stove.

"Now," said Trustee White, after the hearing of the Bible, "are there not books in the schools now which violate the spirit of the resolution just passed? I know of one or two which I think can be so classed. There is a book, 'The Chosen People,' which I think violated the spirit of our action. I think Trustee Kohn, Trustee Spiegel, and my other Jewish friends will agree with me. That book has a literalness that outrages the common sense of modern times. I would not want my boy to take the history of Israel from it. In my opinion it should be stricken out."

Trustee Kohn said he thought it had and that it should be eliminated, but Miss Jane Adams said that she thought it unwise to stir up public opinion further on the subject. So the matter was dropped.

LEFT ALL TO WIFE.

Relatives of First Wife Contest His Will. Rockville, Dec. 5.—Before Justice Anson, in the high court, an interesting will case was started, which, from present indications, will continue for a week or more. The suit is brought by Mrs. Charles Cornwall, Rockport, against A. Cornwall and other nephews and nieces residing in the small village of Alexandria Bay, N.Y., to make them prove that the last will of her late husband was not valid. It is alleged that $100,000 is at issue, and the defendants allege that undue influence was brought by the wife in the making of the will whereby she became the sole beneficiary. Cornwall's first wife died in February, 1905, and the present plaintiff, a niece of the latter, was engaged by the nephews to take care of the testator, who at that time was eighty-one years old. On the May 2nd following the testator died, and his housekeeper, nephews were married, and the following month a new will was made in favor of his wife. Between seventy-five and one hundred witnesses have been subpoenaed.

FIRE IN LANCASTER.

Tailor Shop and Outbuildings Destroyed. Lancaster, Ont., Dec. 5.—A fire broke out, this morning, about 1:30 o'clock, in a building occupied as a tailor shop by J. B. Lalonde, on the opposite side of Main street to the McRae House, and completely destroyed the building and outbuildings. The local fire brigade was early in attendance after the alarm was given, and did good service in saving the McRae house, which was in great danger. It is thought the fire originated from the pipe. Loss about $600, partly insured. It was owned by S. P. Ecker, Montreal.

YEAR 74--NO. TRIBUTE

By Premier

To Memory of H. Drags Wearnly

From Our Own Correspondent.

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—The debate address dragged itself out, yesterday, and the first act has been voted down. For the time this session it was Sir Laurier's painful duty to announce the death of a member. In reference to the death of Henry Lovell, member for Stanstead, he said while he had not been widely known he had been a respected member. R. L. Borden added tributes.

Hon. Frank Oliver introduced bills in respect of the survey lands, and amending the income act, the latter without explanation. W. F. Maclean reintroduced of last session to compel rail carry passengers for two cent mile.

Mr. Foster asked if any limit had been granted during calendar year 1907 to George Leod, Tobin, Lundy and Lewis, Edmonton, and Mr. Oliver that there were six to Mr. Leod, four of them for $1, two for $1,250.

Mr. Oliver told Mr. Ames that R. Craig had been granted to leave, each comprising $3,841. Leaves are subject to cancellation.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, informed Foster that the total cost of insurance commission, excellent printing, was $55,812. Mr. Oliver received $25,000. Judge Mc $4,650; Commissioner Kent, Commissioner Langmuir, $4, Tilley, $12,300, and Actuary of New York, $5,350. Printed $9,500.

Hon. Sidney Fisher said for three cold storage plants paid for government assistance the act of last session.

Mr. Oliver stated that the number of immigrants to Canada in 1907, ending October
