THE CONVERSAZIONE AT QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY LAST EVENING.

A Large Crowd in Attendance—An Excellent Programme Was Rendered—The Affair Was One of the Best Ever Held.

As a function which convulses the professors and students of all faculties of Queen's, as well as many graduates and friends of the university from many points throughout the province as well as the city, the conversation has long been regarded as an affair without which there would be something wanting in the college season. And the conversation of the present session, held in Grant Hall last evening, was no exception to the rule. On Thursday morning it was announced that there was a deficit of some $235. With characteristic loyalty to their Alma Mater the students rallied to the occasion, with the result that there will be scarcely any deficit.

The patronesses were: Mrs. J. C. Connell, Mrs. E. Ryan, Mrs. W. J. Goodwin, Mrs. D. M. Gordon, Mrs. J. Cappon, Mrs. J. Macnaughton, Mrs. C. E. Lawell, Mrs. J. Watson, and Mrs. N. Dupuis. Shortly after eight o'clock they were escorted from the patronesses room to Grant Hall by members of the various committees, and the Alma Mater executive, and at the stately entrance to the commodious hall they received the guests, some 700 in number.

The floor was even superior to its usual excellent condition as a result of recent repairs provided for by the Alma Mater Society. The Grand Opera House orchestra furnished delightful music, the time always being in perfect sympathy with those who danced. The dancing-room was thrown open for dancing, as formerly, and the result was that Grant Hall, spacious though it is, was somewhat crowded. But could the crowd be avoided? The dancers agreed, mentally or verbally, that it was a case of necessity and all accepted the dictum of the Gods good-naturedly. And happily there were those who preferred to watch the hundreds of gay dancers from the balconies and listen to their merry conversation as it came upward, mingled in pleasing roundelay with the measured straining of many feet, and the softening strains of the orchestra. And many there were who occupied the seats sitting-out places of which there were many throughout the arts building. And the entertainment up in the large English room attracted its quota which, in harmony with the high-class nature of the concert, was a large one.

Refreshments were served in the reading room, the junior mathematics room and several of the smaller class rooms. Pretty decorations were everywhere. Flags and pennants of multicolor color blendings decked the walls, while a wealth of streamers in rosy festoons from the ceilings of the lecture rooms, and broad corridors.

A feature of the entertainment was the presence of Miss Maud Buschlen, violinist, who accompanied the Mandolin and Glee Clubs on their tour of two winters ago. The entertainment, which would have been a rare treat in itself altogether apart from the function of which it formed a part, was as follows: Violin solo, "The Years At The Spring," "Slyve Boat Song," "Miss E. Macdonnell; vocal solo, "The Turnley's Song," "A Cruise," vocal solo, "Creole Lovers' Song," Miss C. Bajus; vocal solo, "At a Fantomine," "Happy Song," Miss H. Buschlen; vocal solo, "Proposal," "The Nightingale Has a Lyre Or Harp," vocal solo, "Sahab D'Amour, Gold," Miss O'Hara; violin solo, "Gipsy Dance," Miss Buschlen; cornet solo, "Love's Old Sweet Song," W. Allen; vocal solo, "Bedouin Love Song," W. A. Beccort; accompanist, Miss L. Singleton.

At the hour of 2:30, there came to a close one of the best and most thoroughly enjoyable ever held under the auspices of Queen's Alma Mater Society.

Married At Gosport.
On Wednesday evening last, Miss Dorothy Bernice Vine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vine, Gosport, was united in marriage to William Van Dusen, son of F. W. VanDusen, Napanee. Rev. Mr. De Mille performed the ceremony, in the presence of about seventy invited guests. After the ceremony the guests went down to a sumptuous wedding supper. The bride received a large array of useful and elegant wedding presents, testifying to the popularity of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. VanDusen drove to Napanee and took the midnight train for Toronto, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Smoking Will Be Prohibited.
Owing to complaints of lady voters, City Clerk Samuel will instruct deputy returning officers at the coming municipal elections that they must allow no smoking or spitting in the polling booths. The deputies will be required to carry out this order and make conditions more pleasant for lady voters, who do not relish the way things are conducted at some voting places.

Have They To Resign?
Have aldermen who consent for the mayor's chair to resign, if their city council term has not expired? There is nothing in the act re-constituting the Kingston city council regarding the matter and it would seem that the two aldermen who are contesting the mayorality can retain their aldermanic seats if they wish. The probability, however, is that both will resign before the year ends.

FIRE BRIGADE TEST

CALL TO QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY GROUNDS.

The Brigade Made Excellent Time—The Fire Committee Was Present to View the Test.

At the fire and light committee meeting yesterday afternoon, were Ald. Ross (chairman), Nickle, Angrove and Henderson.

The question of the recent surcharge reduction in fire insurance was mentioned. The reduction of the fire insurance rate of the city on which the great surcharge had been made. There was very little surcharge on the residential section. The chairman said that if the city made the additional water main and hydrant changes, all the surcharge might be wiped out.

Some of the department's hose was destroyed at the waterworks. A notice was received from the Underwriters' Association, pointing out the extra danger of fire existing during the Christmas tide, and advising fire committees to see that their departments were ready to respond quickly to calls. The notice also reminded the committee of the necessity of there being constant attention given to the hydrants so that they will not freeze.

Brigade Had Test Run.
On adjournment the committee decided to give the fire brigade a test run, and the members, with press representatives, took a walk over to Queen's University grounds. Ald. Nickle telephoned to the two stations. Three minutes after No. 2 station got the alarm, its chemical engine and ladder wagon arrived in rear of the medical building, coming through the Union street entrance. Three quarters of a minute later, the chief and his men had a stream on. Four and a quarter minutes was the time made by No. 1 station men, who had a much longer haul than the other two.

He hoped to interest London, Guelph, Brantford and Hamilton in an international baseball league with four good towns in New York state, but has thrown the idea up as impracticable, in view of the apathy and stand of the Canadian towns. That settles the matter for another year at least, and there will be no international circuit. "Chaucer" has not formed any plans for the winter. He is spoken of as referee in the Eastern Canada Hockey League, but he says they are not offering him wages down there, and unless they increase the price he cannot afford to work for them.
