For Him!"

Whether he be husband, brother, son or lover, we have just the article to please him. Most men prefer "Mannish" things, so you will make no mistake buying his Christmas present here.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS:

Gloves, Umbrellas, Fancy Vests, Ties, Silk Scarfs, Dressing Gowns, Etc.

A NEW STORE

New Goods, Best Qualities, Closest Prices.

These are points we want to impress upon you. A visit welcomed, whether you buy or not.

P.J.HUNT

GENTS' FURNISHER 53 Brock St.

The Very Articles for 'Xmas Buyers

- ARE -

Table Cuttery

Carving Sets, Safety Razors, Razor Strops, Food Choppers, Child's Sets, Self-Basting Roast Pans, Storey Cake Tins, Bread Mixers.

We have a complete stock of these articles at the very lowest prices.

LEMMON & SONS.

351 and 353 King St.

"A Page Without Words-Every Picture a Sermon"

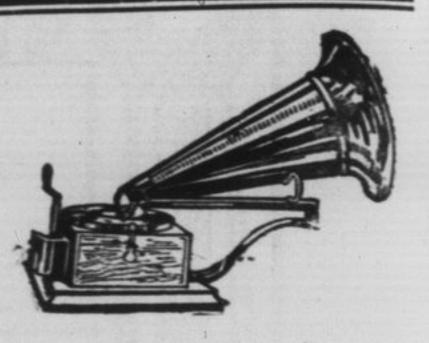

PHONOGRAPHS

MIDGET

THE Angelus

The Phonographs are the greatest of musical inventions, marvelous tone-easily operated.

McDERMOTT BROS. 260 Princess Street.

JUST A TRIAL ORDER

Will convince you of the value we can give you with large and choice assortments of Fancy and Staple Groeries to select from at lowest prices. We are agents in Kingston for the famous Barrington Hall Coffee. It is put up in one pound sealed tins and sells at 40c. a lb. We are direct importers of Teas and can thus save our customers the middleman's profits. We have just imported direct from Ceylon a lot of choice Black put up in 10 lb. caddies. This is equal to a regular 40c. tea but will be sold by us at $2.75 per caddie. : : : :

W. R. McRAE & CO. THE GOLDEN LION GROCERY.

You can buy anthing you want in MILLINERY or FANCY GOODS, at

"THE LONDON"

Ladies wi be interested in the following suggestions for 'Xmas gifts: Bedroom Slippers. Fancy Handkerchief Boxes, Cushions and Cushion Tops.

Hose Supporters, Silk and Mercerized Cords. Miss L. Sutherland

178 Wellington St.

Cluny Lace Centres,

Thirty Minutes with Santa Claus.

EAR BOY:-This is Christmas eve. Tuesday, December 24, 1907. | am careful to give you this exact time, because I am going to tell you a story different to what any other little boy has ever heard, a narrative of something that has taken place in your room, where Santa Claus has just called and talked with me. have been very ill for several days, and to-night the harbor is frozen over, and the ice thunders and crackles in the colas you have heard it before when the old river was being maled down and covered over with ice by Jack Frost. The wind will around the house, and seems to say: "I have got you !! have got you now!" I could hear it so plainly, and it sakes the windows of my room so relentlessly, that I could not leep for the wind is west and strikes that part of the house; and so came into your old room, where all is so quiet and still that I dropped to sleep at once. But I was awakened by a noise on the troof, as though an her ired horses were pawing there, and a big stone fell from the top of the chin acy (you know how large those stones are.) It rolled down the roof, fell struck the balcony in front of your room, breaking a piece out of it minute I saw what had knocked the stone off. I was lying on my left - ic it the bed in your room with my face twenty towards the door, when what o you think I saw? Why, there in the door stood Santa Claus, with a things for you. He seemed surprised when he saw you were not there laughed and said to himself: "O. I remember; Bert has gone to Brooklyn at I will slip over there." He looked so funny and good-natured that I was not bit afraid of him, and so I let him know I was awake, and asked him if he

