VARSITY TOOK GAME

DEFEATING QUEEN'S BY EIGHT TO SIX.

The Contest Was Very Fast and Exciting—Queen's Led Till the Middle of the Second Half, When They Succumbed.

Queen's I went down to defeat before the Varsity seven, at the Kings-ton rink on Friday evening. The game was one of the fastest ever witnessed on a local rink, and was practically free from unfair acts, being a good exhibition of hockey from start to finish. The first half time the score stood 1 to 2 for Queen's, and at full time 5 to 6 for Varsity.

The battle was witnessed by about a thousand people, and at certain periods the excitement of the crowd was intense. The ice was in perfect condition for the contest, the cold snap making it hard and clear and crystal. The surface could not have been better for both teams, and as the players of both sides can play far better on hard ice.

The game was, undoubtedly, one of the best, fastest and cleanest ever seen here. From the first toot of the whistle both teams went to work for all that was in them, and kept the pace till the finish. That all the players were in good condition was clearly shown by the fast pace which they maintained throughout the game. During the first half Queen's set a good pace, and Varsity seemed to be skating up well, and working like machines. In the second half the pace set by the visitors was terrific. The rushes of Herb, Clarke, Davidson and Toms seemed to bewilder the locals, and for a few moments Queen's were outskated from end to end. After about fifteen minutes of the second half, Queen's forwards seemed to get their second wind and kept the play in Varsity territory, but the visitors had the power and staying power, and no matter how hard Queen's would go Varsity would appear to go one better on the return rush.

The defense of both teams were doing some close checking all through the game, and the forwards would check back at lightning speed. In the check back Queen's forwards checked back faster, but in the last half Varsity got back nearly every time. At times the play would be so fast that individual rushes were all that could be attempted, and they could not be carried far before the opponent, and would be lost to the opponent, and the play would become a little more open and two and three man rushes were brought into use. Both teams showed a good knowledge of all the tricks of the game, and knew when to get away.

Nearly every time that Varsity forwards would rush the rubber into Queen's territory they would charge in close on goal before shooting. This seems the only effective method, and, although it has been drilled into Queen's by their coach, they will not do it. Time after time they would get in an nice rushes as one would witness anywhere, and would lose them by shooting too far out, giving the goal or point loads of time to relieve to the side after stopping the shot, whereas, if they had followed the shots in they had a good chance of hitting it in.

For Queen's, Campbell Dobson and Macdonnell were the stars, and for the visitors Herb, Clarke, Davidson and Toms were the most effective. Herb, Clarke is, without doubt, one of the best forwards in the province. In the last half his rushes were more of the sensational class. Many times he would secure the rubber near his own nets and charge through the whole Queen's line, until he came to "Hughes," and then he generally stopped. Davidson was watched pretty closely by Dobson, and in the first half he had George had Toms stepping for all that was in him, but the pace proved too fast for the Queen's man, and in the last half he lagged quite a bit. Crawford did not appear to be in his usual good form, and although he played a good consistent game his old time trick work was missing in the centre of the ice. In goal Bennett put up a star game, connecting with some hot ones in fine style. Penock put up a good game at cover, being effective in breaking up many rushes of the blue and white line. He played the puck a little more than the man some times, and very seldom used his body to the best advantage.

The teams lines up as follows:
Referee—George Richardson, Kingston.

Timers—Dr. Clarke, Toronto, and W. H. McInnes, Queen's. Goal judges, J. Ross, Toronto; "Jim" Byers, Queen's.

Told in Twilight

Mrs. Thomas Lambert, Clergy street, was at home to a very large number of friends on Thursday afternoon, the dreadful weather failing to keep people away. The rooms, already lovely with much greenery and many pink flowers, had additional beauty given them by the delicately-colored gowns of those present. The rooms were softly lighted, chiefly by unshaded candles. The hostess received, wearing a handsome gown of embroidered black nixon over black tulle, with trimmings of sequins and white lace, and with her hair styled in waves, Miss Lily, wearing the daintiest of pale blue silk gowns, over white tulle, her fair hair prettily arranged. The visitors were admitted to the presence of the hostess by a charming little maid, all in white. Miss Phyllis Coates, who was petted and made much of by everybody. At the tea table, where an immense crystal bowl held pink carnations and lily fern, were Mrs. R. E. Sparks pouring coffee, and Mrs. Robert Meek making tea. Miss E. Walsh cut the loaf, and a bevy of prettily-dressed girls assisted. They were Miss Mabel Meek, Miss May Worm with, Miss Mabel Milo, Miss Edna Booth, Miss Lulu Cays and the hostess' youngest daughter, Miss Beatrice Lambert. Upstairs wraps were taken off and put on by Miss Muriel Walsh and Miss Mildred Wormwood. Edward Walsh and Miss Margaret Walsh were everywhere in drawing-rooms and dining-room seeing to the guests' pleasure. Altogether Mrs. Lambert is to be congratulated on a most perfect success.

Mrs. R. Uglow, Barrie street, gave an afternoon ecire, on Thursday, which her guests found very pleasant. The first prize was won by Mrs. E. S. Holden, of Lowell, Mass. The second prize by Mrs. Henry Wade, and for the consolation prize Mrs. Robert Fraser, Mrs. Hugh Macpherson, and Miss M. Spangenberg played off, the latter winning. Tea was partaken of after play was over. Miss Helen Uglow, Miss Jennie Phillips and Miss Myra Dyde helping with it. The guests were Mrs. Francis Phillips, Mrs. Herbert Dyde, Mrs. J. R. Henderson, Mrs. J. G. Elliott, Mrs. James Macsise, Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. R. S. Waldron, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. David Murray, Mrs. William Mitchell, Mrs. Andrew McMahon, Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. Charles Livingston, Mrs. George Mahood, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Miss Emma Wilmot, Miss Bessie Kerr, of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Miss Annie Swales.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, Clergy street, are arranging for the golden wedding anniversary of their parents during the last week of February. The couple were married here and have constantly resided here. They have attended the same church throughout their long career and twenty-eight years it was a pleasing sight to see the longest pew in the edifice filled every Sunday with parents and children. The children have nearly all left the old home and are living in various parts of Canada and the United States. The reunion promises to be an affecting and at the same time, a pleasurable event to the family, their relatives and numerous friends.

Mrs. Havelock Price, Clergy street, gave a jolly little programme dance on Thursday evening for about thirty of Miss Alma Price's friends at Queen's, and a few girls from town. The house was pretty with palms and ferns, and Mrs. Angus Orr played music that set feet tripping swiftly. Mrs. W. H. Graham also assisted the hostess in making the affair thoroughly pleasant.

While in town, from Toronto, Miss Winlow, the charming young "cellist," was the guest of Mrs. John Macnaughton, West street.

Miss Jessie Hamilton, of Quebec, is the guest of Mrs. Alan Palmer, King street.

Miss Jessie Macpherson, of Ottawa, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Fenwick, King street.

Mrs. Edwin Adams, who has been with her sister, Mrs. James Craig, Princess street, returned to her home in Ottawa yesterday.

Miss Muriel Webster, Rockwood hospital, who has been staying with Mrs. Walter Rowan, in Ottawa, is expected home on Monday.

Miss Jessie McCann, Queen street, came home, to-day, from Carleton Place.

Mr. George Jackson, of the R.M.C., who took the Christmas holidays in which to indulge in an attack of typhoid, is back in uniform again, and is well on the mend.

THE FRONTENAC COUNCIL.

Who'll Be Warden?—John Foley Said to Be Chosen.

The Frontenac county council will convene next Tuesday for its inaugural meeting. Its members will make no mistake in coming on that day. The 25th is the right date of meeting, not the 21st, as the councillors learned to their regret when they gathered in "the red parlor" last Tuesday, and were informed that they could not transact business and might as well return home at their earliest opportunity. The most important committee will be the roads and bridges committee, which will have to spend thousands of dollars this year. The chairman of that committee will be a busy man. It is likely that Councillor Franklin will again be chosen for the position, as he attended very closely to the duties last year.

Twelve members of last year's council are again in office, with seven new men. Councillor Reynolds, of Portland, however, is a veteran, having served some years ago with the late R. J. Spoor and M. Avery, M.P.

Matinee and Night.
"Jerry From Kerry" which comes to the Grand on Saturday, January 25th, matinee and night, is a burrah farce comedy, up-to-date and clean. Clever specialties are the feature. The company consists of bright lively gun-makers. Good earnest work, and an evident desire to please make for this company a favorable impression. There is a continual round of merriment throughout the performance, new songs, pretty music, charming girls, funny comedians, and all the pleasing features one expects to see in a show of this kind. The company includes many well-known and clever artists.

Had A Jolly Time.
About twenty-five young people gathered, last night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Barlett, Quebec street, where a very jolly time was spent in games, etc. The affair proved very successful. Refreshments were served at midnight. The party broke up at two o'clock, voting Mr. and Mrs. Burch very pleasant entertainers.

The Board of Health.
The inaugural meeting of the board of health will be held on Monday afternoon. The members are: Mayor Ross, S. S. Corbett, John Lemmon, Dr. Evans, Dr. Etherington, Dr. Knight and Francis King, who constitute a strong body.
