

ITS MERIT IS PROVED

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

A Prominent Montreal Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Completely Cured Her.

The great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many leading scientists, and thinking people generally.

Mrs. M. C. Letellier

The following letter is one only one of many thousands which are on file in the Pinkham office, and go to prove beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must be a remedy of great merit, otherwise it could not produce such marvelous results among sick and ailing women:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Soon after my marriage my health began to decline. My appetite failed me. I was unable to sleep, and I became very nervous and had shooting pains through the abdomen and pelvic organs, with bearing-down pains and constant headaches, causing me much misery. The monthly periods became more and more painful, and I became a burden and expense to my family instead of a help and pleasure. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. Soon after I began using it I felt a change for the better, and at the time of my next period I noticed a great difference, and the pain gradually diminished until I was well. I am stronger and look better than I did before I was married, and there is great rejoicing in the house over the wonders your medicine worked. Mrs. M. A. C. Letellier, 752 Cadieux St., Montreal, Quebec.

If you have suppressed or painful periods, weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, pelvic catarrh, nervous prostration, dizziness, faintness, "don't-care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, excitability, backache or the blues, these are sure indications of female weakness, or some derangement of the organs. In such cases there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FLOTS AGAINST THE SHAH

Popular Uprising Against Persia's Ruler.

Constantinople, Jan. 27.—Reliable advices from Teheran indicate that the situation still causes uneasiness.

There is a widespread belief that the position of the shah is insecure. There is much plotting against him. A popular rising is, indeed, not impossible, but it is believed that in that case his majesty would be safeguarded by Russia and Great Britain.

BIG STORM IN OTTAWA

A SWINDLER DISCOVERED BY A PRIEST.

He Had Secured Money From the Father, But Was Finally Caught—Ottawa Street Railway Dividend of Twelve Per Cent.

Ottawa, Jan. 27.—Ottawa to-day is experiencing the worst snow and wind storm of the season, and the district roads are badly blocked. About seven inches of snow has fallen, and it has been drifted by a wind going twenty miles an hour. Fortunately, however, the temperature has not reached lower than about seven degrees above zero. The Ottawa electric railway has maintained a continuous service, and the steam trains are arriving from half an hour to two hours late.

Edward McEvoy was arrested here yesterday, on a charge of swindling Canon Sloan of St. Bridget's church. The priest went to the priest with a hard-luck story, and obtained financial help. Then he got the priest on the telephone, and posing as H. B. Spencer of the C. P. R., told the priest to advance him anything he wanted. The swindler holding himself responsible. The swindle went on for several weeks until Canon Sloan happened to ring up the real Mr. Spencer, and discovered the fraud.

The Ottawa Electric Railway company's receipts last year were $74,378, an increase over 1906 of $18,531. The number of passengers carried was 12,623,440 or 1,215,218 more than in the previous year. The company declared a dividend of twelve per cent.

CITY OF SUICIDES

More Than One Per Day During Last Year.

Vienna, Jan. 27.—Three hundred and fifty-six men and 108 women committed suicide in Vienna last year. This is an increase of thirty-nine over the previous year, and enhances the reputation of the city for a pre-eminence in suicides among all the capitals of Europe. Further, 441 men and 298 women unsuccessfully attempted to take their lives.

Asking For Big Sum.

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 27.—A deputation from Rochester township waited on Hon. Dr. Reame, minister of public works, here, on Saturday, and asked that the government set aside $7,000 to carry out a new drainage scheme in the township. The plan contemplates the opening of the Ruscombe river for a distance of about three miles above the point where the work of the dominion government will stop.

LOOK AT THESE PICTURES.

Two Thrilling Ones at The Bijou Theatre.

Have you ever read of "The Paris Commune"? Do you recall the revolt which followed the Franco-Prussian war, and how the people were hunted through the streets like rabbits by a ferocious soldiery? These were thrilling days. They are recalled now by a new picture drama at the Bijou, in which these scenes are repeated. Every man who has carried a gun, and everybody who ever, or never, saw the Alps, mountains, will be interested in the thrilling picture, "Hunting Above the Clouds," which brings the audience close beside the intrepid hunters and close beside the game. You see the hunt from both ends, which is more than any hunter ever saw before. Don't miss these, Caruso sings; also Vera Holden and John Robert Davis.

LOOKING FOR A ROBE.

Police Have Busy Time Finding It. In connection with the case of the theft of a robe, which came up in the police court this morning, the police had quite a time in locating the missing robe. It was taken from a farmer's sleigh by a man who was very much under the influence of liquor. The man who performed it was of the opinion that he was taking it from a man he was well acquainted with, and thought that he would play a good joke. His joke was to leave the robe in a store on Princess street and not to tell the owner where it was. He left the robe in a store but later, when he was placed under arrest, he found that there was no joke in what he had done. He was asked by the police as to where he had left the robe. He could not tell. Whiskey was the cause of his bad memory. And then it was up to the police to find the robe. In order to get trace of it a tour of the different stores had to be made. After spending some time on the job, Constable Mullinger proved the lucky man, locating the robe in a Princess street store. One of the clerks informed the officer that a man had left robe, and also a small parcel, in the store on Saturday afternoon. The officer then took possession of the robe and arrived at the police court just intine to have it identified by its owner.
