WHO WAS DINED ON EVE OF DEPARTURE.

U. S. AMBASSADOR REID. New York, Feb. 20 .- Whitelaw Reid United States ambassador to Great Britain, was dined, last night, by the Pilgrims on the eve of his departure for London. In his speech, Mr. Reid declared that everything now in the relations between the two countries, was substantially, as the Pilgrims would have it. The fisheries question, the oldest outstanding source of ieritation between the two countries and up to-night and down town hotels are a constant danger for a century and a quarter, was in the course of penceful adjustment. Both nations had reach their homes. The storm, which agreed to refer their differences about it to The Hague tribunal. "We have a little list of other matters unadjusted between our two countries," he ded. "They relate chiefly to Canada. People who have large interests along three thousand miles of frontier, as well as around the globe. must constantly have outstanding questions, but we rely upon the fairby the accomplished statesman whose services they enjoy as premier, Sir. Wilfrid Laurier, to get most of them equitably adjusted between ourselves and what we cannot settle. The Hague conference surely can. Where mutual good will is, all of them are simple."

Ringston Girl Writes About the Start In New York.

New York, Feb. 18.-Last Wednes day 150,000 people assembled around the Times building, 42nd street and States Broadway, while the mayor of Greater New York gave the signal for the starting of one of the most remarkable undertakings of modern times. The men about to leave on their trip from New York to Paris must bave enjoyed the enthusiasm they inspired. The toreigners, it is said, looked with mazement at the crowds that everywhere assembled to greet them and cheer them on.

Chicago, Feb. 20 .- Several deaths, many injuries and much suffering followed, in the wake of one of the worst blizzards experienced in this section in several years. Traffic on surface and suburban lines is practically tied filled with residents of outlying districts, who found themselves unable to broke early in the day, raged with increasing fury until nightfall, subsiding toward midnight. One of the most tragic occurrences in connection with the storm was the wrecking in the harbor at Waukegan of the fishnarrow escapes from death. The boat left the harbor early in the day to visit nets ten miles out in Lake Michigan. Caught in the storm on the return trip, the vessel battled with the elements until it regained the harbor at six o'clock in the evening, only to be blown against a protection wall and crushed. Capt. Oliver Rubier, with five men, composing the crew, were thrown upon an ice pack. Four into the water and were drowned.
