THE SPORT REVIEW

THE 14TH TEAM READY FOR STRATFORD.

All the Players in Good Shape—Potter Ready to Play if Needed—Notes About Other Hockey Matches.

The 14th Regiment hockey team had its last full practice before its game with Stratford, at the covered rink last evening. All the players were out and are all in the finest condition. Potter made his first appearance of the season in 14th uniform. "Bill" says he is in just as good form as he ever was and ready to put up a hard battle, if need be. Bernier was out and has entirely recovered from his bad knee. The game on Friday last did not seem to do any of the players any harm, as they are all out and anxious for the fray.

On Wednesday night, they will have the hardest battle of the year, and to win the championship they must win this game with a margin of four or five goals. The 14th are in far better shape to meet Stratford, to-day, than they would have been had they defeated the St. Georges the first time they met them.

A referee for the contest has not yet been appointed, and it is not known who will handle the whistle. The best man to get for the two games is "Chaucer" Elliott, if the M.A.A.A. will let him go, for both battles.

14th Ought To Win.

The 14th Regiment hockey team ought to win from Stratford here, to-morrow evening, by a good majority. The westerners have practically the same team as last year, while the 14th are stronger. Stratford hasn't lost a game this season but it is not thought that the Western Ontario senior teams are very strong this season. Stratford's playing ability can only be estimated by considering the players who compose it. No doubt they are perhaps a little better than last year. The 14th team, by its showing on Friday night against St. Georges, is fifty per cent stronger than a year ago. It should, therefore, down Stratford. Kingston is not as crazy over a championship cup as small places are, for it has captured so many hockey and rugby championships during the past twenty years, that the continual performance became kind of monotonous. But it is now about time that the senior O.H.A. championship came here again. This is the 14th Regiment's second season in the race, and ought to annihilate the alleged hired hockey players representing the Classic City. And, by the way, what a mild name for a town like Stratford—Classic City! Just think of it! While Kingston exists, Stratford should never be called classic. It is running London a close second for the number of bad men it sends to the penitentiary here.

Regiopolis Beat K.C.I.

The last game of the semi-finals in the Junior City League, was played on Zion rink, on Monday afternoon, between Regiopolis and K.C.I. II, the former winning out by one goal. At half time the score stood 2 to 1 in favor of the Regis, and at full time 4 to 3. The game was one of the best City League games played this year, and was witnessed by large crowds of people. The teams lined up as follows:

Regiopolis (4)—Oldin, goal; Doyle, point; Coyne, cover; Gratton, rover; Lovett, centre; Sullivan and Gibbons, wings.

K.C.I. (3)—Workman, goal; Cooke, point; Aykroyd, cover; Larush, rover; Goodearle, centre; Reid and Welch, wings.

"Mike" Moran made a satisfactory referee. The Regiopolis will now meet the St. James' in the final.

The 14th Has Made Good.

The 14th Regiment Hockey Club had a couple of hundred dollars' deficit last year, owing to its long trips and a couple of poor games at the beginning of the season. This winter, it has done well in the way of receipts, and its managers will get back the $200 deficit they put up, and, besides, there may be a small surplus. The 14th has made good, and, henceforth, will be Kingston's representative senior hockey team.

Queen's Hockey Season Over.

The hockey season at Queen's is now all over, and the boys are beginning to realize that examinations are only about six weeks off, and are going to be as hard to pass as ever they were. Queen's may make another appearance on the ice against the 14th, for a city championship, but it is hardly likely, as the soldiers will be busy for the next week.

Have One Good Junior Team.

Next year, an endeavor should be made to have one good, strong junior hockey team represent Kingston in the O.H.A. When two or three teams enter, the best players are divided amongst them. The seven best junior players in the city should be got together by the Frontenac Club management, and there would be better results.

Cadet Juniors Practicing.

Cadets II had a lively workout at the covered rink on Monday night. The soldiers will likely meet Trinity College on Friday evening, here, and Monday evening, in Toronto, in the finals of the junior Intercollegiate. Cadets have not yet lost a game, and are showing fine form.

K.A.H.A. Games This Evening.

The Kingston Amateur Hockey Association schedule calls for two games at Royal rink to-night. The first between the Mac-Nacs and R.C.H.A., and the second between Royals and Black Watch.

Blaze In A Stable.

On Monday afternoon, fire broke out in the loft of the stables at the Archbishop's Palace. The firemen from both stations were quickly on the scene, and had the blaze under control. The loft was packed quite full of hay and some of it had been piled too close to the brick chimney, and it caught fire. About three tons of hay were ruined and the roof was partly burned, but no serious damage was done. The horses and cart-ribs were removed in plenty of time. The loss is completely covered by insurance.

A Very Sad Death.

J. W. Mitchell, superintendent of the Eastern Dairy School, yesterday morning, received a messenger from Toronto stating that his younger brother, Clark Mitchell, had been removed from Cobalt to a hospital in Toronto, suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. Later, the word came, that the young man had passed away shortly after reaching the hospital, to which he was accompanied by a doctor. The family home is in Lansdowne, and the mother of the deceased was on the railway platform at that station, waiting on the west-bound train to take her to Toronto, when the sad news reached her that her son was dead. The deceased was twenty-six years of age. Mr. Mitchell went to Toronto at once to take charge of the remains.

BANQUET AT Y. M. C. A.

ADDRESSES DELIVERED ON ASSOCIATION WORK.

Prof. Adam Shortt Speaks on the Subject of "Financial Crises"—Ladies Provide An Excellent Spread.

The business men's banquet held at the Y.M.C.A. last night, proved a most pleasant and profitable affair. The attendance numbered about one hundred and fifty. The tables were set in the gymnasium, and the arrangements, which were under the care of the ladies of the auxiliary, were perfect. The menu was of the best, and the ladies gave every attention to the wants of everyone. After justice had been done the fine spread, addresses were delivered for the association, which in times of alarm there was no adequate organization. There was no attempt made to regulate things, and this was simply because they did not stop to think.

The speaker, in a practical way, set forth the many dangers to be met with and his remarks were followed with keen interest by all present, and at the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Prof. Shortt, on motion of Rev. T. E. Burke, seconded by Elmer Davis.

The secretary, R. B. Nelles, said that he appreciated the good attendance at the banquet, and appealed to the business men for their loyal support, in carrying on the work of the association. He wished that they would stand shoulder to shoulder, and in this way the work could be easily carried on. Good work had been accomplished in the past, but still better work could be accomplished in the future, if this much-needed support was given. He outlined the campaign that was about to be made on behalf of the association, and asked for the co-operation of all interested in the work.

E. M. Thomasson, provincial secretary, also touched upon the campaign to be inaugurated, and reviewed the work of the Y.M.C.A., from its infancy. The opportunities for the young man here, were never greater than at the present day. Every age had its ideal, and he would say that the ideal for the present man was unselfish Christian service. He referred to the good work now being undertaken in the laymen's movement. There was now being manifested the great undecurrent of feeling that there was something in life besides eating and drinking, and making money. There was the feeling now, that one must interest himself in the welfare of others. The Y.M.C.A. worked as the representative of Christ, seven days in the week. The future of the city of Kingston depended upon the class of young men turned out in the next few years.

Toning upon the campaign to be made in this city, the speaker said that it would be one of the most vigorous, stirring and enthusiastic campaigns ever conducted in the city. He felt sure that the campaign would be a most successful one. Nowadays,

AT THE MARKET.

A Very Poor Day For Dairy Produce.

There was a very poor market this morning, in the dairy produce line. The demand for butter and eggs was very heavy, but the supply was very meagre. One farmer stated that there was very little butter to bring in, and from the showing made on the market the past few weeks, it would go to show that this was the case.

There was the usual good supply of vegetables, but a prominent vegetable grocer stated that in about three weeks, almost everything in the vegetable line would be cleaned-out. Butter and eggs sold from 30c. to 35c., and potatoes at $1. per bag.

A Pleasant Outing.

Canon Starr's Bible class spent a jolly evening, on Monday, when the members drove out to Truesdale's hall, on the Bath Road. The young men and back was enlivened with songs, and all sorts of games, recitations and songs filled up the time at the hall. Supper of a most delicious order, provided by the girls of the class, was looked after chiefly by Miss Isabel Letourne, and Miss Martha Tomlinson. Louis Marchand, Charles Dalton, D. C. Waring and Francis Smythe were hosts in themselves as far as the entertainment part went, and indeed all members did their part in making the evening an entire success. Canon Starr was warmly thanked for all the trouble he took, and always takes, for the pleasure and help of his class.

The Price Of Bread.

"Equilizer" writes, asking what is being paid now in Kingston for bread. The price is four cents a pound, or six cents for a pound and a half loaf, and twelve cents for a three pound loaf. About five per cent. of the output is luxury loaf, which is higher in price.

INFORMATION ASKED

ON SEVERAL LIGHT AND POWER MATTERS.

Board of Works Has Not Yet Decided Upon What Road Machinery It Will Buy—Hopes to Do So This Week.

The light and power committee was to meet in its regular fortnightly session, this afternoon. At the last meeting of the city council, several questions were referred back to it for information. For instance, information was wanted as to the lowest charge at which power could be supplied from the present steam plant to local manufacturers, and yield a small profit to the city. The committee was also asked to be in a position to discuss intelligently the street lighting question.

The board of works has not yet decided as to what road machinery it will buy. Part of the sub-committee appointed by it thinks that too large a plant was advertised for. The city engineer does not think so, neither did Ald. Gaskin, chairman of the board of works, who went carefully into the matter. The plant is not to be bought for this year's work alone. The expectation is that there will be steady work on the streets for the next five years. It is expected that the board of works will come to some decision on Thursday. The plant for which tenders were received will cost about $1,000, instead of $7,000 as at first figured. However, some changes were made in the city engineer's original plans, which called for a plant run by electricity. It was afterwards found that steam would be more satisfactory.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The Wilbur Company Attracts a Big Audience.

An immense audience at the Grand Opera House, last night, greeted Frederick W. Homan's presentation of the Wilbur Stock company. It is seldom a stock company on its first appearance has won such favor and appreciation before a Kingston audience. The attraction presented was entitled "The Switchman's Daughter," a drama bristling with startling situations and changes, and one of intense interest. Charles H. Homan, as "Bessie Pendleton," who, under the hypnotic influence of a designing villain, and her work in the switch box, gave a clever interpretation of her role. Jane Tarr, in the dual characters of "Mrs. Pendleton" and the "Widow Whitney," was well up in her parts. The charming Alice Clements, in her role of "Amanda Pickard," proved herself to be an accomplished actress. Charles Nelson, as "Confucius Socrates Hobson," the professional ribbeater, was perfect in his allotted part. H. Marion, H. M. Truesdale, E. Bryant, C. Nelson, M. Jenkins, T. Whalen, David Bellman and Charles Page, in their various roles, acquitted themselves creditably.

The specialties were new and original, and of a high-class variety. Bellman and Pratt, the French gymnasts, gave a fine exhibition of acrobatic work and barrel jumpers. Moran and Moran, in their singing and dancing, won approbation. Their graceful dancing was unequalled.

Madame Flower, the Boston Melba, by her marvellous singing and the beauty of her voice, captivated the audience. Either as a soprano, tenor or baritone, she was wonderful. She rendered "Good-bye, Sweetheart," "Good-bye, Dreaming Sirenade," "Roll On Silver Moon," and "Bol of Love," in each of which she charmed all by the sweetness of her voice. She was recalled four times. Her admirers seemed to revel in the sweetness and power of her voice.

The company, this evening, will present "Driven From Home," and Madame Flower will again appear.
