News From Lombardy. Lombardy, March 5.—Miss Maud Dopperwell spent Sunday at her home, Wayville. The village has a new merchant, H. Polk, of New Haven, who has purchased the property and stock of the late Ira Pye, and took possession last week. Mr. and Mrs. Polk are well and favorably known here, and will, no doubt, enjoy a large share of the public patronage. Mrs. M. Dopperwell is spending the week with her sister in Smith's Falls. The council of this township (South Emsley) has purchased a large snow plough from S. Hall, Rideau Ferry, and on Tuesday the road commissioner, Mr. Nichols, engaged four teams to haul the plough to Smith's Falls, making an excellent road. Andrew Walker, of Winnipeg, has returned home after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Clark and other friends here. Mrs.

Marvelous case of Leo Corrigan which shows that skin diseases heretofore considered hopeless can be cured. Leo Corrigan had been tortured with the burning agony and itching of Eczema. His parents had spent a great deal of money in consulting physicians and buying medicines—but all to no purpose. As he grew older he sought other doctors—some of them specialists. He was eleven weeks in a Toronto hospital—eight weeks in bed. At times the irritation and pain caused by the Eczema were so severe, life was a burden. He would get so bad he could not walk. Several winters he could do no work.

He wrote, on February 20, 1906: "In November, 1905, I had another attack, and was advised to use Mira Ointment. I had tried, and of no use to me. But, to my great delight, a few hours after the first application, I felt great relief. I have used it since, two and a-half months, and substantially state that it is the best remedy I ever used. It has worked wonders for me. Since using Mira Ointment I have been able to work every day—without irritation or blisters, and in a few days I have been able to do my usual work. I have used it on my face, neck, and chest, and it has effected it. I strongly recommend any person afflicted with this terrible complaint—Eczema—to use Mira Ointment."

What this wonderfully effective Ointment has done in this extreme chronic case, it can do in other seemingly incurable conditions. If you suffer from any form of skin-disease, don't delay. Certain relief and cure is waiting you in Mira Ointment. Get a box to-day, 50c.—6 for $2.50. At drug-stores—or from The Chemists' Co. of Canada, Ltd., Hamilton—Toronto.

By means of this "Eziajusta" your cuff can be drawn up by placing your fingers on the edge of the cuff, your thumb on the starched piece, and giving a slight push. And the cuff will remain out of the way until brought down by means of a sharp pull.

IRISH AND FIE SOCIALS Two Men Who Were Caught in Their Own Smartness. When a male citizen of Russia attains the age of twenty-one he is summoned before the military official in the district in which he lives and is compelled to undergo a mental and physical test. If he be found defective in either, he is excused from service in the army. A story is told of a young man trying to escape duty, who tried the following trick. The day of his examination having arrived, he appeared at the military depot ready to be examined. Being capable of twisting the thumb of his right hand back in such a manner as to render him incapable of grasping anything, he did so, and explained to his examiners the absurdity of an enlisted man, since he was unable to even hold a gun. The applicant, being prepared, evaded the truth so skillfully that he was about to be excused, when, on second thought the doctor asked: "In what position was your thumb before it became dislocated?" "Why, so!" he, without thinking, answered, straightening it into its natural position. "So!" the story is told of one, trying to escape from duty, pretending to be deaf. "What's your name?" asked the official. "Twenty-one," he answered, looking innocent. "No, what's your name?" again queried the official. The applicant explained that he was deaf. Thus, every question put to him had to be repeated several times before the correct answer could be obtained. The applicant, being unable to find anything wrong with the applicant's hearing apparatus, hit upon a plan by which to test the truth of his claim. "Take your valise and go home," he said in low voice, turning away. The applicant snatched his valise—and—but he was stopped.

Bonaparte A Deadhead.

Frederic Febvre publishes in the Gaulois an interesting document preserved in the archives of the Theatre Francaise. It runs as follows: "Pass the Citizen Bonaparte to this evening's performance of 'Manila.'—Talma." This shows, of course, that the Emperor Napoleon when he was only a lieutenant of artillery, was very glad of "orders" for the theatre. M. Febvre adds a story which he heard from Talma's son to the effect that the future ruler of France used to lie in wait for the tragedian in the galleries of the Palais Royal, and that the tragedian used often to whisper to his companion: "The other way, if you don't mind. I see Bonaparte coming, and I'm afraid he'll ask me for seats."
