WILD HORSE'S CARE
NOT TO INJURE A LITTLE CHILD.

A Runaway, Yesterday, Swerved to Escape Trapping on Baby —Dash Was Down Princess and Along Wellington.

A very exciting runaway occurred on Princess street about four o'clock on Thursday afternoon, one that came very nearly causing serious damage, and injury to some citizens. The horse and cutter of J. B. Cooke, was being driven down Princess street, near Clery, by his two young sons, when Chief Bailie, in trying to pass them, collided with their cutter, and both sleighs were tipped over. The occupants were thrown out, luckily escaping serious injury.

The chief's horse ran down Princess street, at a rather slow gait (it being in the old age class), and was soon stopped. The other animal started to raise trouble, and had soon kicked itself free from the cutter and dashed along the street. The frenzied horse turned off Wellington street, nearly breaking a window, in trying to turn the corner.

At the post-office corner, two children were pulling a baby in a sleigh, and were just in the middle of the crossing when the runaway came stopping so frightened that they dropped the rope, leaving the child in the horse's path, and ran for safety.

It has often been stated that a horse will never intentionally injure a human being, especially a child, and in this case it seems proved, as the animal swerved in its mad rush, the shaft that it was dragging just passing the child's head.

People on the corner were powerless to render any aid, and as the horse lashed by their thought that the child would surely be killed. Some shut their eyes, while others screamed. The horse was captured near the city park.

Valuable Horses Burned.
Listowel, Ont., March 6.—About two o'clock this morning fire broke out in the large stable of W. C. Kidd, which were totally destroyed, together with all the contents, also thirteen horses, many of them being thoroughbreds, sires and some trotters of note. Among the sires was famous Oliver Wilke. Only one horse out of fourteen was saved. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Singleton, cover; Rattray, rover; Laird, center; McCartney and Bates-son, wings. Russell Britton will refuse.

Tied Up Street Railway.
The storm, to-day, tied the street railway up for a while, but the sweepers soon had the tracks clear again.

cars to get a hold.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Mother Asks About Fire Drills in the Schools.

Kingston, March 6.—(To the Editor: I beg to contradict a statement made by Inspector Kidd in yesterday's Whig, as to the fire drills in the public schools. I have two children attending Sydenham school, and upon enquiry I find that there has not been fire drill in that school since the autumn. My little son's answer to my question, when I asked was: "Why, mother, we cannot have fire drills in winter. We never do." Then I asked a young girl attending Louisa school, and was told the same thing. I have attended both these old-fashioned schools, and know too well the narrow stairs, and passages (that I believe condemned by the inspectors), and in the face of the awful calamities that have occurred in Montreal and Cleveland, if no other protection is provided, at least let the fire drill be kept up, as this will be more Rachels mourning for their souls than that not.—AN ANXIOUS MOTHER.

SCHOOL DOOR LOCKED.

A parent who neglected to sign his name, writes the Whig that he is informed that the Louisa school door leading from Division street, is locked after the pupils are marched in. If this is so, it is a dangerous practice. No school door should be locked during school hours.

CRAWLED TWO MILES.

With His Severed Leg Under His Arm.
Vanover, B.C., March 5.—Carrying his severed right leg with him, Daniel Stetson, a handlogger, crawled through two miles of bush to tidewater at Toba inlet, got a boat and rowed another two miles down the coast to the logging camp before finally collapsing.

He was working along Monday when caught by falling timber. It crushed his right leg into a shapeless mass, practically tearing it off, and Stetson completed the work by cutting the wrecks of skin and bone. A man of iron determination and courage and although bleeding to death he retained consciousness and laboriously made his way through the bush to the coast. Foot by foot he crawled over the logs and through the swamp until he reached the water's edge. Suffering untold agony he got into the boat and managed to reach a small camp two miles away. Then he collapsed and died the next morning.

YEAR FOR DESERTION.

Member of R. C. H. A. Gave Himself Up.
Gunner Adolphe Fournier, a deserter from the R. C. H. A., gave himself up, and was sentenced to a year's imprisonment in Central prison, and will also be discharged from the service. This is the third time that Fournier deserted from the service, and he was given the full penalty.

No trace has been found of the four members of the R. C. H. A., who deserted a week ago. They went from here to Waterloon, N.Y., so it is believed.

VICTORIA DAY EVENT

IN THE HANDS OF KINGSTON DRIVING CLUB.

Which Will Be Responsible For a Day's Sport—A Race Meet to Be Held For Two Days.

The annual meeting of the Victoria day celebration committee was held in the council chamber on Thursday evening, Mayor Ross presiding. The treasurer's statement was the first thing considered, and it showed a balance in the bank of $832.68.
The mayor enquired if the committee wished to hold a celebration, and on motion of Joseph Hiscock, seconded by Daniel Reeves, it was decided to hold a celebration on Monday, May 25th. The meeting was made up, principally, of the members of the Kingston Gentleman's Driving Association, who asked that they be given the race track for that day, that they be allowed to conduct the whole celebration, the sports in the forenoon, the races and games in the afternoon, and that all the proceeds be given them, they agreeing to pay all expenses without asking any subscriptions from the citizens.

This caused considerable discussion, and the mayor suggested that three members of the Victoria day committee and three members of the driving club retire with him, and reach some agreement and report it to the meeting. Besides the mayor Dr. Waugh, Lieut.-Col. Kent, James McFarland, W. J. Fair and Joseph Hiscock returned. The sub-committee brought in a report recommending that the club be given full control, with full responsibility for the financial end and that the surplus lying in the bank to the credit of the Victoria day committee be not touched, no matter what condition the driving club were in after the celebration. This report was adopted.

The following of the Victoria day celebration committee were selected to act in conjunction with the driving club: Mayor Ross, J. Hiscock, W. W.
Sands, Dr. Bell, G. A. McGowan, G.
Darragh, Lieut.-Col. R. E. Kent, and J. P. Turner.

At present the Kingston Driving Club has eighty-five members, and it is hoped to increase the number to 150. The club hopes not only to meet on May 25th and 26th, but to give matinee driving events at the fair grounds during the summer.

The "Shacktown Fund," for the some connection with the little conversation, reported in Saturday Night as having occurred between two of the Shacktowners: "These colonials are good-hearted folk, giving us coats, and food, and things to tide us over the winter." "They ought to be good to us English. We own them."

COURT SAYS HE IS DEAD.

Decision in Case of a Man Who Disappeared.
London, March 6.—One of the strangest cases ever brought before a sedate English court was heard this week in the probate division, when an order was asked for leave to assume that a certain man who disappeared 128 years ago is dead.

The man in question was C. M.
Pulteney, who was practising as a surgeon at Sherborne, in Dorsetshire, in 1780. The application was brought on behalf of the administrator of the estate of the late Miss Betseva Pulteney, a daughter of the surgeon, who herself departed in 1833.

The court took up the case in its traditional business-like fashion for the purpose of getting real evidence from Mr. Pulteney as to the sum of £8,000, representing the surgeon's portion of his father's marriage settlement, might legally be turned over to his rightful owners. This sum of money was paid into court some time after Mr. Pulteney disappeared, and had been there ever since.

It was finally decided that Mr. Pulteney really died, and that £367 belonging to him should be distributed to his heirs.

surprise can well be imagined and next time he will take more care.

NOT FOUNDED ON FACT.

Story That Ross Rifle is Made Outside Canada.

Ottawa, March 6.—The story sent out from Boston and published under a flashing headline in the Montreal Star, yesterday, to the effect that practically one-half of the Ross rifle, as adopted by the government for the militia of Canada, is not made in Canada, is entirely without foundation in fact, and is regarded by those who know the facts of the case here as another unjustifiable attempt to make party capital out of the opposition out of whole cloth. As a matter of fact, a few of the details of the rifle are not actually made at the factory in Quebec, as was announced in the investigation before the public accounts committee. These parts are hand-made in large quantities in the States, and could easily be made in Quebec if desired. The rifle, in all intents and purposes is a strictly Canadian arm, and the statement sent out from Boston is on a par with other misleading and inaccurate statements published editorially in the opposition papers and designed to discredit the action of the government in its dealings with the Ross rifle company.

ELOPED AT AGE OF 70.

Col. Ward Selects Young Toronto Maiden.
Providence, R.I., March 6.—Eloping from Toronto with Theresa Moplin, a twenty-two-year-old French maiden, Col. Victor Ward, seventy-four years old, the oldest living confederate army officer, former governor of Kentucky, and on the staff of President Jefferson Davis, of the confederacy, reached here yesterday, believing they had outwitted the relatives of the girl, who they say are following them.

Col. Ward is one of the best known men of the south. He called on Governor Higgins and introduced his wife.
Considerable mystery was thrown around the party by two detectives who acted as a bodyguard.

DRAGGED FROM TABERNACLE.

Four Men Arrested For Attempt to Kill Shah of Persia.
Berlin, March 6.—A despatch to the Tagblatt from Teheran states that four arrests were made in connection with the recent attempt to assassinate the shah. The men arrested are believed to be the actual throwers of the bombs from which the shah had such a narrow escape. They had taken refuge in the shrine of Abdol Azim, a holy place where criminals for centuries have been allowed immunity.
The troops, however, disregarding the traditions, dragged out the alleged assassin despite the protests of the mollahs, and conveyed them to the capital.

Countries Where Disease Exists.
Montreal, March 6.—Private cables received in the city to-day state that the embargo placed on hay by the British government only applies to those countries where there is foot and mouth disease, and that the act does not affect Canada.

Dear Girl; Dearer Scenery.

Toronto, March 6.—The beauties of Canadian scenery cost Samuel Jacobs $100. Jacobs, who is a sewer on pumps, earning $9 per week, met Hannah Weitz, an attractive little Hungarian lady, in September last, a week after her arrival in this country.
They spent many pleasant hours together, and yesterday she sued him in the jury assize court for $10,000 damages for breach of promise. Jacobs admitted spending many evenings at the lady's home in the seclusion of the park, with the lights subdued, but said he never talked of marriage as he merely used to talk about what a nice country this is. He admitted, also, that he had serious thoughts of marrying a girl in New York, who had $400 in real money of her own. The jury awarded Miss Weitz a solatium of 100.
