HOUSE WORK

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty.

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. A female weakness or displacement is often brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

comes as a boon and a blessing, as it did to Mrs. W. Barrett, of 602 Moreau St., Montreal, who writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For years I was a great sufferer from female weakness, and despite every remedy given me by doctors for this trouble, I grew worse.

"One day a friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and am thankful to say that it made me strong and well."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

Why don't you try it? Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

AMENDING THE LABEL LAW.

The contentions of the publisher of the Whig, before the Canadian Press Association—cannot be gainsaid. In dealing with the law of libel he claimed that the man who, from a public platform, makes statements that are not correct should be called to account, therefore, with the newspaper, that the liability of the printer is not the greatest and most serious. Similarly the writer of a defamatory letter should be called to account equally with the publisher. It may be said that the editor of a paper should exclude from the paper any article or letter which deals personally with any one, and in an offensive way. Sometimes the language is veiled, however, that the slander or libel is not apparent on the surface, and though the writer is known he is not, as the law stands, amenable for damages. The writer is known he is not, as the law stands, amenable for damages. The writer is known he is not, as the law stands, amenable for damages.

"DUPLICITY AT EVERY TURN."

Mr. McKay, the leader of the opposition, is calling for information which the government is supposed to have, and the handing out of which will help to clear the situation. Mr. Whitney made an oracular deliverance at the banquet he was tendered a week ago, but he was beautifully vague and the papers which usually support him are demanding further light.

It is up to the municipalities, said the premier a few days ago, to do something. It is up to the government rather to tell the people where it stands, now that a new monopoly has appeared, as a result of its action.

The Telegram has no hesitation in asserting that the government has abandoned the municipalities, that it had the chance, in acquiring the property of the Electric Development company, to serve the people, and missed it.

The World which has been greatly enamored of the government's power policy, is suffering some anxiety because of the change of circumstances. It says Mr. Whitney was not candid and clear in his late address that he was "not sufficiently specific," that there are people who have reason to believe he is nurturing in the cabinet men who are not friendly to the people's cause, and that "there is duplicity at every turn of the question."

The World is not disposed to stand any nonsense—any dodging, any deception, and it plainly intimates that "the whole battle for public ownership of Niagara power will have to be fought over again in the coming elections."

Mr. McKay is not collecting the data for which he has moved, to no purpose. He will be heard again upon the subject some of those days, and it will be the debate of the session.

The power scheme has been a very popular card so far. But the day of advertising is past. The time for action has arrived. Duplicity at every turn, and to Mr. Whitney's knowledge? That is a disconcerting announcement on the eve of an election.

A GREAT NATIONAL PARK.

The circular which has been issued in connection with Battlefield Park, at Quebec, is particularly expressive. It sketches briefly the events which have made the Plains of Abraham historic and becomes the more eloquent as it shows why a certain piece of land should be preserved for memorial purposes, thus:

"It is to be thought of that we should fall to dedicate what our forefathers have so consecrated as one of our fields of glory common to us all? Remember there is no question of having modern progress—the energy for which we inherit from these very ancestors. No town should ever be made a mere 'show place,' devoted to the petty kinds of tourism and dilettante antiquarian delight. But Quebec has room to set aside the most typical spots for commemoration, and this on the sound business principle of putting every site to its most efficient use."

"So there remains nothing beyond the time and trouble and expenses of making what will become, in fact and name, BATTLEFIELD PARK. This will include the best of what must always be known as the Plains of Abraham, and the best of every other centre of action that can be preserved in whole or part, or only in souvenir by means of a tablet to us all."

"Appropriate places within these limits could be chosen to commemorate the names of eleven historic characters: Champlain, who founded Canada; Montcalm, Wolfe, Lewis, Murray; Saunders and Vanquelin, who fought for her; Cook and Bougainville, the circumnavigators, who did her woman service; and Frontenac and Carleton, who saved her in different ways, but to the same end."

"High above all, on the calm central summit, the Angel of Peace, folding her wings to rest, will stand in benediction of the scene. In her breast will be the emblem of a fame told round the world in French and English speech can dwell upon a bounteous view that has long forgotten the strange, grim face of war. And yet the statue rests on ancestral prowess. The very ground reminds them of supreme ordeals. And though, in mere size, it is no more, to the whole vast bulk of Canada, than the flag is to a man-of-war, yet, the flag, it is the sign and symbol of a people's soul."

To the governor-general Canada owes the inspiration which has led to the tri-centenary and memorial movement. There have been some objections, but they are not numerous, either in parliament or out of it. A sum of $200,000 has been appropriated for the purchase of the land which has passed from public ownership, but this sum includes the military spectacle of next year, and the cultivation of a park and all the proposed expenditure will come before parliament for approval.

A Simple Remedy Well Worth Trying.

Thousands are in the same boat—all sickly, bilious and feeling far from well. Trouble is, the system is clogged with impurities which need to be cleared away. Before downright sickness arrives you should cleanse and purify the system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. At once you'll feel their mighty influence building up weak spots, clearing out disease, and putting you again on your feet. These purely vegetable pills change your tired, worn-out condition to one of health and vigor, because they supply the body with nourishing blood that builds up and enlivens the entire system. John Whitley, of Stanwood P.O., Ont., knows the merit of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and says: "I wouldn't be alive to-day had it not been for Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Last winter I was sick with grippe, and when spring came I was weak, bilious and rheumatic. I used enough medicine to cure twenty times, but I didn't get any help till I tried Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They purified my blood, took the yellow color out of my face, put new tone in my stomach and increased my appetite. The bilious attacks and rheumatic pains gradually departed, and Dr. Hamilton's Pills made a new man of me. I proved their merit, and proclaim them a medicine for all men."

"If better health and prompt recovery are important, get Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Wandrake and Bussacut today. At all dealers, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.

IRISHMEN INDIGNANT.

Have No Representative on Royal Whiskey Commission.

London, March 7.—Irish traders are indignant at the omission from the Royal Commission on whiskey of the representative Irishmen, and Mr. Devlin is raising the matter in the House of Commons in a question to Mr. Lloyd-George.

The present feeling in Dublin, Belfast, and Cork, is that the interests of Irish whiskey may suffer in the event of Ireland not being adequately represented, and there are threats of a boycott of the commission if the Irish claims are not recognized.

A conference of those interested will probably be held immediately to decide on common action.

A mass of evidence obtained from all parts of the country will be heard by the commission. The exact date at which it will commence its deliberations is not yet fixed, but it is stated at the local government board offices that the commission would meet almost immediately.

Dockrell-Webb.

A very pretty wedding recently took place from the residence of Charles G. Webb, of 107 Fuller street, Toronto, when Miss Mary E. Webb, of Brewers' Mills, was married to James Dockrell, of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Patrick Coyle in the Church of the Holy Family, Parkdale. The bride looked very pretty in a suit of green chiffon broadcloth, with point de Paris waist over satin.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb were the only attendants. After the ceremony the happy couple took train to Buffalo, where they will make their home. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents, among which was a set of solid silver knives and forks by the employees of the Dominion Express company. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver tea service lined with gold.

Tidings From Brookside.

Brookside, March 7.—A surprise party came to F. Martin's, on February 25th. William Martin, who fell from the loft and broke one of his ribs, is recovering. Miss Beatrice Cowdy has returned from Kingston, where she was visiting friends. Mrs. J. Cowdy entertained a few of her friends on Tuesday night. The roads are partly filled up again, owing to the recent snowstorm. William Wallace, who has been ill for some time, is convalescent. Mrs. Wallace and Russell are also on the sick list. Some of our young people attended the party at Harrowsmith, on Tuesday. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth, at M. V. Lake's.

The Late Dr. H. S. Bott. Napanee, March 7.—The remains of the late Dr. H. S. Bott arrived here, from Chicago, on February 27th, and the funeral took place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. W. J. Black, deceased was ill for a short time of pneumonia. He leaves a wife (formerly Miss Carrie Duncan, of Napanee), and one son, George, whose life also was nearly despaired of, an aged mother, Mrs. George Bott, Napanee; two sisters, Mrs. W. J. Black, Napanee, and Mrs. Luther Hawley, Hay Bay, and three brothers, Charles, of Harlowe; Jerome, of Manor, Manitoba, and John, of Chicago.

Davidson Heirs Wanted.

The Napanee Beaver has been informed by C. White Mortimer, of Los Angeles, California, that Miss Minnie B. Davidson died recently in that district, leaving considerable money in the bank and no known heirs. It is known that her father, John Davidson, a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, married her mother, Sophia J. Armistage, a native of Ireland, at Kingston, Ont., about 1856, and that he deceased had some cousins at Kingston, Berlin, Stratford or Guilford.

The Bread War.

J. K. McNaught, member for North Toronto, has introduced a bill into the legislature in opposition to that of Kingston. It will be more in the interest of the bakers, undoubtedly, than in that of the municipalities. Kingston's member places the standard in the hands of municipal councils, but if these councils do not bestir themselves, the bill will be snowed under in committee.

Glendower Notes.

Glendower, March 6.—They are drawing rock from the fellspar mines at Godfrey. Snow is very deep and feed is scarce. John Shane lost a horse on his way home to Glendower. Frederick Leeman, at Sanford Leeman's; Sanford Leeman, at All Snider's; Harrowsmith—Joseph Hassey passed through here.
