A CONSPIRACY OF OFFICIALS.

Hon. Mr. Haggart, bluff old man, has the faculty of saying some things that do not please his party.

Mr. Haggart could not refrain from saying a few words. He was amused, as he had a right to be, by the criticisms of his friends, by the advice which they so unostentatiously tendered to the government.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

MISS AMELIA BINGHAM IN "THE CLIMBERS."

The Play a Strong One—Presented By An Excellent Company—Miss Bingham Refers Her Role in This Play to All Others.

Only a fair-sized audience, not nearly as large as the production deserves, greeted Amelia Bingham at the Grand Opera House, last evening.

As Mrs. Stirling, Miss Bingham was seen in one of her best roles, one of the roles she likes the best, and has played the longest.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS

Gets What He Wants.

Gen. Stoesel is deserving of one of two things—death, or a niche in the Hall of Heroes.

So It Seems. Toronto News. C. N. Smith draws attention to large fees paid to conservative lawyers by the Ontario government.

Gambling Spirit. Montreal Witness. In the unholy wars of "getting something for nothing" hundreds perish or come to shame.

There's A Limit. Hamilton Times. Whitney will go on taxing incomes of even $300 from invested savings, having since 1905 to exempt such.

Dropped The Party. Exchange. The Earl of Dudley, who was Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland under the tory ministry of 1902-05, has publicly cut himself adrift from the British opposition.

Literary Notices. Charles M. Pepper will describe, in April Scribner, the wonderful tide of commerce through the Suez canal, showing how the Orient has already obtained a big ocean trade on its own account.

Beatrix Demarest Lloyd has written several novelettes for the Smart Set, but her latest story, "The White Stain," in April issue, will be most popular of all.

Richard Harding Davis has devoted so much time to writing plays that it is years since he has written a novel. Scribner's Magazine announces that in April number he will begin a serial entitled "Vera, the Medium."

The movement to separate the township of Front of Leeds and Lansdowne has been dropped.

A Toilet Luxury. Mira Skin Soap is a delight to every woman who values a soft, beautiful skin. Mira Skin Soap takes away all skin irritations—cares skin troubles—and keeps the skin clear and smooth.

Jane Corcoran Coming. The character of Nora in "A Doll's House," probably has done more to bring the average wife to a realization of the selfishness of man than any other play that ever has been written.

Kathryn Osterman. "The Girl Who Looked Like Me," fairly bubbles with comedy of the sort that appeals to every class of theatre patrons.

NEVER TASTED WHISKEY. Rockefeller says Prohibition is a Good Thing. August 16, 1907. "I am an old man and I am glad to say I never tasted whiskey."

To Cure Scalds, Burns. Nothing can possibly give better results than Dr. Hamilton's ointment. It draws out the pain, destroys inflammation, gives ease and comfort in any application.

Money Or Your Life. Chicago Daily News. "On the strength of your assertion that you would not Windig with your life, I loaned him $10 and now I can't get it back."

Cuba's Electors Total 419,000. Havana, March 17.—The electoral census is complete and so far as it is concerned the elections may be held at any time.

After The Fakir's Performance. Toronto Globe. Original documents need very rarely be asked for, as a copy is in a thousand cases all that is needed.
