Eight of the Ten Chairs About the Table Filled By Former Occupants on the Fiftieth Wed ding Day.

One the evening of March 18th, large company of friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Scott, of Pittsburg, to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. On March 18th, 1858, Mr. and Mrs. Scott joined hearts and hands and courageously faced the future in what was then an unbroken forest in the rear of the village of Joyceville. Fortune smiled on the brave young couple and blessed their persistent efforts with prosperity. As the years went by new chairs were required around the well furnished table, and it was a pleasing sight to all to see eight of those ten chairs again filled by their former occupants. The absent members were perhaps more thought of during the evening than those present. Mrs. Trotter, Calgary, found it impossible to be present, and Mrs. Thompson has gone to a better land. The members of the family who were present were Mrs. Henry Johnson, Mrs. Thomas Gillespie, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Palmer, of Maberly; John Scott, of Kingston Olive and Harvey, who still, reside
