

GRATEFUL MEN AND WOMEN PRAISE PE-RU-NA.

MRS. ELLEN NAGLE

HON. C. C. BROOKS

Mrs. Ellen Nagle, 414 4th St., Green Bay, Wis., writes: "I have often heard Peru-na praised and it is more widely known here than other medicines, but I never knew what a splendid medicine it really was until a few weeks ago when I caught a bad cold which settled all over me. The doctor wanted to prescribe, but I told him I was going to try Peru-na and sent for a bottle and tried it. I felt much better the next morning and within five days I had not a trace of any lameness or cough."

PRINCE JONAH KALANI'ANO'OLE

Malaria Fever For Several Months.

Mrs. S. M. Morris, 224 Patterson St., Nashville, Tenn., writes: "Last fall a severe attack of malaria fever laid me up for some months. My condition was serious for a time and the doctor who was attending me did not seem able to cope with the trouble. A neighbor advised me to let the doctor's prescription alone and try Peru-na, extolling its virtues to the skies, and I am now ready to do the same, for in three days I was much better and in ten days I was able to be up and in two weeks every trace of malaria had left my system."

MRS. S. M. MORRIS

Weak and Nervous.

Mr. Charles Brown, Rogersville, Tenn., writes: "I feel it my duty to write you a few words in praise of your Peru-na. I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peru-na is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder. A friend advised me to take Peru-na for indigestion, and it cured me in a short time. I was very weak and nervous, could sleep but little at night, but Peru-na cured that, and I feel like a new man, so I heartily recommend it to all who are weak and run down. Peru-na will give new life and energy. I cannot speak too highly of Peru-na, and will not forget to recommend it on every hand. I will answer any letter from those desiring to know what Peru-na has done for me."

Hon. C. C. Brooks, Mayor of Sunbury, Ohio, also Attorney for Farmers' Bank and Sunbury Building and Loan Co., writes: "I have the utmost confidence in the virtue of Peru-na. It is a great medicine. I have used it and I have known many of my friends who have obtained beneficial results from its use. I cannot praise Peru-na too highly."

Cystitis Entirely Relieved.
Miss Mattie McArthur, care of Hospital, Medical Lake, Wash., writes: "I have not written to you for some time, but, Oh, I have given you many words of praise. I am so well. I had cystitis very badly and could not walk any distance without suffering intense pain, but I do not have a touch of my old suffering now. I can never praise Peru-na enough. I am telling every one how much good Peru-na has done for me."

Catarrah of Head and Throat.
Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, 20 Myrtle street, Beverly, Mass., writes: "I have taken four bottles of Peru-na, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrah of the head and throat. I recommend Peru-na to all sufferers with catarrah. I do not think I ever felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can do. I do not think too much praise can be said of Peru-na."

Systemic Catarrah.
Miss Marie Lesser, 928 W. 26th street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I am glad to give a good word for Peru-na, and I hope that all who see this who are troubled with systemic catarrah as I was for years, will profit by it. I had tried many remedies, but none did more than give me temporary relief and some did not even do that. I took Peru-na at the suggestion of a friend and was more than pleased and surprised at the results. I am now perfectly well and strong."

The Doctors Gave Me Up.
Mr. Lewis Kitchen, Huntington, Ohio, writes: "I cannot thank you enough for the good your Peru-na has done me. About six months ago I could not leave my bed, and the doctors gave me up saying that I had consumption and could not live. Then a friend recommended Peru-na to me, and I commenced using it. When I started to use your Peru-na I weighed 117 pounds, and now I weigh 172 pounds. I had been sick for ten years, and was so sick I could not turn over in bed when I began the use of Peru-na. I think it is the greatest medicine of its time. I am now feeling well and hearty and would not be without Peru-na."

Does Woman's Vanity Ever Wane.

Does woman's vanity ever wane? Is it a ruling passion, strong in death as in life? And does it control, as Paola Lombroso, the observant daughter of the great Italian scientist, declares, the action of the human brain from the first baby hour when she is able to creep to the looking glass to the moment when, perforce, she lays her mirror down and breathes her last, exsiring sigh?

Europe, the wife of an American millionaire—beautiful, ambitious, extravagant on occasion, as the wives of American millionaires are so prone to be—expected a visit from royalty. At a cost of $10,000 she ordered two dinner gowns, sublime creations. Until the fatal day she could delay making a choice between the two. The gowns came. One, rose colored, transformed her into Eve, the temptress; the other, white, made her an incarnation of the angelic.

At last, the governor of the prison, helpless in the presence of the general inspection, confessed himself vanquished, and made rather becoming tailor-made jail costumes the prizes of good conduct. In a short time all the prisoners were behaving like angels, and all were wearing tailor-made suits. They have passionate natures, over there in Italy; and it is possible that the Italian bent for beauty might not hold good in the colder climate of the United States.

But the experience of all officials demonstrates that it does hold good in America to precisely the extent to which regard for appearances is displayed by women outside of jail. The completely negligent woman—and she is of the type that frequently arrives in jail—is as negligent, untidy and unkempt in her cell as she was in her home. But the female prisoner who has been accustomed to preserve her appearance at its best speedily finds ways and means to convert even the prosaic prison garb into an attire the neatness and freshness of which are in themselves an adornment. And, it may be remarked, the worst offenders are often the most presentable prisoners.

While reading temporarily in Europe, the wife of an American millionaire—beautiful, ambitious, extravagant on occasion, as the wives of American millionaires are so prone to be—expected a visit from royalty. At a cost of $10,000 she ordered two dinner gowns, sublime creations. Until the fatal day she could delay making a choice between the two. The gowns came. Unkind March Winds Play Havoc With Skin and Complexions Put on your veils before venturing out into the howling March winds. It may be very exhilarating and beneficial to get out doors when the wind playfully remembers that unless you are covered with this same playful March wind will dry and crack your skin until it will take weeks to bring back the delicate tints which the rose leaf texture a perfect complexion should have.

Archibald Hugh Douglas, Midshipman Archibald Hugh Douglas, who has recently broken all records for physical strength at the United States Naval Academy, is unquestionably one of the most remarkable athletes who has ever attended the great, great, university. Although handicapped by the breaking of his leg during his first year at the academy, Douglas has been smashing records in almost every field of sport at the naval school, and lately has broken the record for strength by over 100 points, playing it at a figure not likely to be exceeded for a long time to come. In the test of strength Douglas made a total of 1,622 kilos, the previous record being 1,481. He made the highest figure for grip and back lift ever made at the Naval Academy, while his leg lift, dips and other feats were remarkable. Douglas, who will graduate from the Naval Academy this year, is six-foot two inches in height and weighs 180 pounds in training.

A GREAT ATHLETE

Broken All Records For Physical Strength.

He Howled All Night.
Seemed as if he would go crazy, neuralgia was torturing him—pity he didn't have some "Nerviline" handy. Just one rub with Poison's Nerviline and away goes the worst neuralgia or lumbago ever known. No liniment known cures half so fast as Nerviline.

From Life.
The Actress—In this new play I'm supposed to die from a broken heart. Now, how am I to know how a person with a broken heart behaves?
The Manager—"I'll tell you what to do. You study the author of this play after he sees the first rehearsal."

Made Herself Understood.
A large German woman held up a long line of people at the post-office window in the Boston post office the other day, and all because her memory went back on her. She wanted to send some money to her son, a sailor on a merchant steamship then in foreign waters, but when she presented the application at the window the clerk noticed that the address was lacking.

Confidence
when eating, that your food is of highest wholesomeness—that it has nothing in it that can injure or distress you—makes the repast doubly comfortable and satisfactory. This supreme confidence you have when the food is raised with ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure
The only baking powder made with Royal Grape Cream of Tartar
There can be no comforting confidence when eating alum baking powder food. Chemists say that more or less of the alum powder in unchanged alum or alum salts remains in the food.

WHY HAVE THEY QUIT

MYSTERY SURROUNDS THE CLUB WITHDRAWALS.

Odd Circumstances Connected With the New Imperial and Colonial Club Withdrawals. —A Divorced Woman is Secretary.
London, March 28.—Clubmen and clubwomen are greatly agitated over the circumstances connected with the formation of the Imperial and Colonial Club. Mysterious notices have been appearing in the daily papers stating that one celebrity after another has withdrawn his membership. As a matter of fact, a very great many noble lords and ladies have withdrawn their names and there is every chance that the club will never be started—at least not in its present form.
The secretary of the club, a divorced woman, who was connected with the formation of the American Rensselaire in Regent street, and who has had a very varied career, is the cause of all the trouble. From various sources, including the colonies, a sum of about $40,000 has passed through her hands for "organizing" the club, which has temporary premises near Piccadilly. As a very small part of the sum mentioned remains in the hands of the ladies asked for details of expenditures, which are not forthcoming.
The first cloud came when the Bishop of London withdrew his name. His resignation was followed by that of the Duke of Newcastle. Then Sir Gilbert Parker and Lord and Lady Llangattock gracefully retired and were followed by the Marquis de Soveral, the Portuguese minister, and many others. The fair secretary is defiant, although now hotly pursued by creditors in all parts of London, and the bitter fight now raging is likely to be heard of in the law courts.

CONVICT'S FRIENDS MUST PAY

Escape Agency Charges $500 For Aid to Flee.
Paris, March 28.—Interesting revelations are being published with regard to the "Escape Agency" which exists to help convicts to get away from Cayenne penal settlement in French Guiana. The agency charges $50 for a successful escape, and $150 paid in advance, if the attempt fails, the estimated average outlay for canoes, provisions and arms being just under $150.
From Cayenne to Paramaribo, in Dutch Guiana, means a four days' canoe journey, and a three days' tramp through virgin forest. About half the convicts who flee from Cayenne are captured en route, or fall victims to exhaustion or snake-bites.

EXPECTING THE STORK.

Secret of Her Not Coming to Canada.
London, March 28.—The reason that the Princess of Wales will not accompany the prince on his brief visit to Canada is that another interesting event is expected in the Marlborough House family, towards the end of the London season.
The prince and princess are already blessed with six children, five boys and a girl.

A Stayer.

"Mildred," said the prudent mamma, "I want you to treat Mr. Ketchey, who called on you last evening, with some consideration and respect. He may not be particularly handsome or attractive, but he is sensible, well connected, highly successful in business, and is regarded as one of the coming men."
"I wouldn't mind his being one of the coming men," said Miss Mildred, "if it didn't take him so long to get."
