THREE CITY HORSES SOLD.

The Famous Affidavit Horse

Frank Brought $150. Three of the city corporation's horses were sold at auction, Saturday morning, on the market square, William Murray. The celebrated afficiavit fire department horse, Frank, for which last year's civic fire committee paid $235, brought $150 under the auctioneer's hammer. Another fire horse, known as Charlie, sixteen years of age, used by the fire department for a long time, and originally costing $112.50, brought $95. The big grey horse of the light and power departsales yielded well. The two fire horses
