WAS DRESSED IN GOWN MADE FOR HER WEDDING.

Tragedy in Mid-Ocean—The Lover of the Unfortunate Girl in Germany Proved Faithless. New York, April 11.—Dressed in a gown she had made for the marriage to a man who deserted her, Dora Gillar, a pretty young woman, bound for New York on the liner Pretorian, jumped overboard in mid-ocean on March 24th. No one saw her leap into eternity and the ship was miles away from the spot when her absence was discovered.

Miss Gillar left behind her the ship two little children, her nephew and niece, Erwin and Helma Maas, whom she was bringing to this country to join their mother, who lives in Hoboken. Henry Maas, the father of the children, look them abroad three months ago. While he was at his old home in Germany a young man who had promised to marry his wife's sister, Dora Gillar, disappeared. The young woman was heart-broken and her relatives decided to send her to America.

A SUMMER PARADISE.

The Beauties of the "Lake of Bays" Country.

A handsome brochure, artistically illustrated, has been issued by the Grand Trunk passenger department, telling of the beauties of the Lake of Bays district, in the "Highlands of Ontario." A new feature of this district is the new hotel—the Wawa—at Norway Point. The hotel itself has a page illustration reflecting the summer glories of woodland and water, with a brood of seven wild geese soaring beyond the tower. The concise description embodies the story of a very charming resort, and there is a preparatory poem by Cy. Worman, who tells that he is off "to the Highlands of Ontario, in the merry berry moon."

Spring Importations of 1908.

Prevost, Brock street, has received three cases of imported goods for his order clothing department, consisting of Scotch and English tweeds, serges, and a great variety of other goods.

SPRINGTIME HINTS.

How to Keep the Complexion Charming Through the Most Trying Period of the Year.

Springtime, welcome though it be, is the cause of many spotted complexions. It is wise, therefore, to "take time" for the forehead and cheeks before the buds have blossomed and the leaves come out. Clear your complexion before the sun.

There is nothing better than the old-fashioned remedy of sulphur and molasses for getting rid of impurities in your system. Obtain for those who cannot take sulphur, a good aperient water, can be substituted. Every night and morning throw a handful of rolled oats in a bowl of hot water and after thoroughly washing the face, neck and hands, apply liberally a weak made as follows:

Take two ounces of Rose water, one ounce of Cologne Spirit, and four ounces of Epsom's. Put the Epsom's in a pint of hot water (not boiling), and after it is dissolved, strain and let cool. Then add the Rose Water and the Cologne Spirit.

CARRIED OFF SOFA.

Woman Beat a Man in House and Court.

Renfrew Journal. An interesting case was before Police Magistrate Eady, Wednesday afternoon, when a charge of house-breaking was laid by a farmer from Admacton against a woman living nearby. It appears that the woman had loaned a sofa or folding bed to this man and thinking that he was going to move away wanted to get her sofa back. On Saturday she entered his house and walking right in to the room tried to take her sofa. The man locked her in the room to prevent her taking it, claiming that she had given him the sofa in return for several loads of wood. This she denied.

The woman, unable to get out the door, succeeded in forcing open the window and putting the sofa through, carried it home herself. The man then had her brought here for trial for breaking into his house and damaging his windows. On the evidence given, the case was dismissed, the man laying the complaint to pay cost.

Dickey-Ferguson.

On Tuesday morning the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ferguson of Blossom Hill farm, near Gravel Hill, was the scene of a happy event, when their second daughter, Minnie, was united in marriage to Buell Dickey, of Gananoque, formerly of Rockport. The bride looked pretty as she was given away by her father, and was becomingly gowned in white silk trimmed with chiffon and wore a veil of orange blossoms. She carried a showy bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. Her going away gown was of blue broadcloth with white picture hat. The young couple were unattended. Rev. James Hastie officiated at the ceremony. After the ceremony, all repaired to the dining room where a dainty breakfast had been prepared. They then took the C. P. R. at 11 a.m., for their home at Gananoque, amid showers of rice and the good wishes of their many friends. Mrs. Dickey will be greatly missed by her large circle of friends.

BURIED IT IN YARD

AND DIED BEFORE DISCLOSING ITS HIDING PLACE.

Toronto Woman's Search—Un-availing Hunt For Treasure Which Her Sister Had Saved As "Ambition Money."

Kansas City, Mo., April 11.—The story of Mrs. James Reeve is a dime novel mystery, but to Mrs. Reeve's sister, Mrs. James Smythe, of Toronto, who came here to see Mrs. Reeve on her death-bed, it is a story of sacrifice for family pride.

Somewhere in the little brick house at 715 East Fourth street, or in the yard surrounding it, $3,000 is buried. Mrs. Reeve hid it and died without telling where. She and her husband had been saving up for twenty-five years. Reeve worked as a stationary engineer in the gas works and Mrs. Reeve was the house treasurer. She had no faith in banks. When Mrs. Reeve was ill with gripple, the doctor told her she would die. She would not believe him. But to satisfy her husband she promised to tell where the money was hidden. She became unconscious Friday morning and died last night. Her husband and Mrs. Smythe have failed to find the money.

The brother of Mrs. Reeve and Mrs. Smythe, Charles Kimpton, is a wholesale fruit commission merchant in Toronto.

"We had bought a lot in a more fashionable part of the city, and were planning to move this summer," said Mr. Reeve, "but I guess I'll sell it now and keep on living here. It's close to my work. As for the money, that was my wife's 'ambition money.' Now she's gone, the money does not matter much."
