BOAT HOUSES SCARCE

TO HAVE FINE AND FAST NEW LAUNCHES.

There is Need for a Free Wharf and the Council and Board of Trade Should Arrange to Have One. Three crews for M. T. Co.'s boats arrived in the city from the east, today.

Some speedy motor boats will make their appearance in the harbor, this summer. Local merchants and military men are the most interested parties.

A free, public wharf, centrally located, is one thing the city really needs. The council and the board of trade should lose no time in taking up the subject.

Capt. Rochefort will start to work at once to raise the sloop Idelwild, which sank in Anglin's Bay on Thursday. The sloop sprang a leak and went to the bottom.

Capt. Edwin S. Keeler, for the past three years master on the steamer Island Belle, has resigned to accept a similar position on the yacht Sport.

Capt. Byron J. Estee will fill the vacancy caused by Capt. Keeler's resignation.

The steamer Aletha is on the dry-dock undergoing repairs. She is having her bottom scraped, her wheel tightened and is having iron sheeting put on her hull.

With its miles of charming water front, it is almost impossible to rent or purchase a boathouse or site for one in Kingston. The yacht club showed commendable enterprise in constructing a number of launch houses, but the applicants outnumbered the houses four to one.

F. G. Lockett and J. H. Sutherland have each purchased new Sterling motors of fifteen horse-power for their pleasure launches. The latter is having a fine new boat of a semi-speed type constructed.

The new engine arrived last week and are on view at Moore & Co's machine shop on Wellington street.

THERE IS NO NEED FOR ANY PERSON TO SUFFER ONE MOMENT WITH EYE HEADACHES

I AM already receiving voluntary testimonials from Mr. Montgomery, who is greatly interested in this matter or in any other subject. I am not at all surprised that a perfect system of diagnosing errors of sight has been perfected. During the past few days several hundred persons have visited my Optical Room. Saturday, some very difficult cases were perfectly fitted and were surprised to find that they could have their vision restored to them.

As Pastor's Helper.

It appears a mistake was made in the designation given in these columns to the new position created by the board of Synagogue Street Methodist church. Rev. William Croft is not to be merely a financial agent of the church, but a pastor's helper, whose duties will include assisting the pastor in visitation of the congregation, work amongst strangers and newcomers, as well as to have charge of the congregational and local funds of the church.

Received New Curtain. Another new curtain was received at the Grand Opera House, on Friday, and was seen for the first time on Saturday night. The curtain is of a light blue and is one of the finest yet received by the house. It was much admired by the large audience on Saturday night.
