NERVY TRAMP VISITS OTHER CITY HOMES.

His Behaviour Has Frightened a Good Many Women—The Police Should Run Fellow Down. Some people living on Division street, had an experience with a tramp, yesterday afternoon, believed to be the same man who called at a Queen street house, on Monday. The unknown has not proved at all dangerous, but his behaviour has caused a good many women to be frightened of him; and the tramp is sure to be given a warm time some of these days, if he continues his work. It would appear as if the man is somewhat out of his mind, for his talk at times is like that of a crazy person. At a home on Division street, the tramp called, and asked for a lunch. He displayed the same nerve as he did on visiting other houses, asking for a special bill of fare. In the course of the conversation, the woman told the tramp that her husband had been sick, whereupon he replied that it was a great pity that her husband did not fall and break his neck. His whole talk was like that of a man whose mind was unbalanced. The man also visited another house on Division street. He was given a lunch, but refused to eat it outside the house, and had to be given a chair in the kitchen. The police have been given no description of the man, and thus they just have to take a chance on catching him. When he goes into a house, a hurry up call should be sent to police headquarters, and in this way the officers could get trace of him, and have him locked up. Some ladies on Upper Johnson street have promised to give the tramp a good thrashing if he should go that way, and others in various parts of the city have promised to organize and give him a reception that he will not soon forget.

Found A Muff.

A sable muff was found this morning and left at the Whig office, where the owner can have the same by calling.

Would You Like To

Wear a hat like King Edward? The "Woodrow" hat is one of his majesty's favorites and George Mills & Co. have the sole Kingston agency.

A Good Exhibition.

An interesting game of baseball was played in the cricket field, this morning, between two teams from St. Mary's school. The boys put up a good exhibition of ball.

A Grand Success.

Thomas Mills & Co.'s great removal sale certainly is being availed of to a very large extent and citizens are making money by purchasing Easter requirements from this bargain-giving firm.

Association Football.

There will be great excitement at the cricket field, tomorrow (Friday) morning, at eleven o'clock, when the first football match, this year, will be played, between the Wanderers and "A" battery.

A Great Hit.

The famous Hawza hat is admittedly the most popular three dollar hat in North America among well dressed men. George Mills & Co. are the sole Kingston agents.

Opening Easter Saturday.

T. J. O'Connor will open his new commission rooms 85 and 88 Brock street Easter Saturday morning with a stock of pianos, organs, antique and other furniture, fine pictures, British plate mirrors, etc. Call and see what great bargains are being offered.

Farewell To Students.

Miss R. Holmes, of North Hastings, and Miss Annie Anglin, of McIntosh Mills, students in arts at Queen's, were tendered a farewell by their fellow-boarders at 303 University avenue, last night. The affair was a very jolly one. A few very pleasant hours were spent in games and music.

Mrs. Richardson's Condition.

Mrs. A. W. Richardson's condition was unchanged this afternoon. She is just lingering. No hope of recovery is entertained. Her brother, Hillyard Robertson, of Regina, arrived this afternoon. Dr. Richardson's brother, James Richardson, of Montreal, and his sister, Miss Richardson, also of Montreal, are with their brother.

Collided With Street Car.

A milk wagon, owned by a man named Robinson, was struck by car No. 11, at the corner of Market and Ontario streets, this morning. The wagon was going alongside the track and, at the corner, tried to turn across. Motorman Williamson was not able to stop the car in time, and it hit the rear end of the wagon. Very little damage was done to the wagon, but the front step was broken off the car.

Deceased is also survived by one brother, John, of Cataract, and two sisters, Mrs. John Kilgannon, Ernestown, and Mrs. G. Link. The funeral will take place on Friday morning at nine o'clock, from 103 King street west, by Rev. Archdeacon Macmorine, will conduct the services. The remains will be taken to Bath, for interment.

MARINE NEWS.

The Items Gathered About the Harbour.

The steamer George Howe cleared from Richardson's to-day. The steamer Glenora and consort Ungava and Hamilton, left, to-day, for Fort William. The schooner Clara cleared this morning for Oswego to load coal for Robertson's, at Gananoque. The steamer Altha left off the dry dock and will likely make her first trip up the bay on Saturday. The schooners Bertha Kalkine and Ford River, lying at four mile point all day yesterday, were able to clear for Oswego. The government steamer Scott is at the Kingston and Pembroke wharf. Many of the buoys in this section have been placed. Capt. John Corkey, of the steamer Navajo, was treated to a cold bath at Cape Vincent, on Wednesday night. He was coming aboard his steamer, when he slipped on the plank and fell head foremost into the icy water. His mates on board ship heard the splash and the shout for help, and ran to his assistance. He was rescued, none the worse for his sudden plunge.

Could Not Go Back.

A young Jew, who came over from the United States a few days ago, was stopped, to-day, when he went to go back. The work of scraping the roads has had to cease on account of the cold weather, the surface having been frozen by last night's cold snap. Miss Margaret Kelly left, to-day, for her home in Shantok Lake, after attending the Kingston Business College. Bibby's collars, two for 25c.

The Wonderful Waverly.

"The king of $2 hats." Every hat is brimful of style and quality. George Mills & Co. are the sole Kingston agents.

CONCERNING DISAPPEARANCE OF F. C. MARSHALL.

His Wife Wants Him Declared Dead, So That She Can Collect His Insurance—Two Witnesses Were Examined. On Wednesday afternoon, at the court house, there was an investigation into the disappearance of Frederick C. Marshall, who was thought to be drowned in the harbor here a few years ago. Two lawyers from Toronto, Mr. Lawrence, for the A.O. U.W. and Mr. Henderson, for Mrs. Marshall, who is now a resident of Toronto, were present at the hearing. Mrs. Marshall is applying to the A.O.U.W. for life insurance carried by her husband in that society, and wants her husband declared dead. Two witnesses, T. F. Harrison and Joseph Kimpson, were examined. Mr. Harrison told of his relations with Marshall. Joseph Kimpson, who, at the time of the supposed drowning of Marshall, was employed as night man at the G.T.R. outer depot, was called. He stated that around that time, many cars had been broken into at the outer station, and all the men were out looking for the thieves. He was on duty about midnight one night, when he saw a man who seemed to be hiding near an engine, but before the train started the fugitive stepped out in front and Kimpson remarked to his companion, "That looks like 'Fred.'"

The annual meeting of the 47th regiment was held in the Armouries to-day. The general business of the season was mapped out. Nearly all the officers from a distance were present at the meeting. About ten o'clock this morning a young lad fell in the lake off the Kingston and Pembroke wharf. Two men who were standing by quickly pulled him out of the water. He refused to tell his name. The ice has nearly all been removed from the roller rink and the floor was found to be in good condition. The planer will be put on the first of the week, and the rink will likely open a week from Monday. "Reason it out in a business-like way." Does it pay to spend 75c. for a moth proof double strength tarine bag to store your $150. fur coat for the summer. You have the coat and the moth bags are sold at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store. Worth A Trial. Pittsburgh Times. Cyrus Townsend Brady told at a dinner in Toledo a story about clarity. "A millionaire," said Dr. Brady, "lay dying. He had lived a life of which, as he now looked back on it, he felt none too proud. To the minister at his bedside he muttered weakly: "If I leave a hundred thousand dollars or so to the church will my salvation be assured?" "The minister answered cautiously: "I wouldn't like to be positive, but it's well worth trying."
