RAILWAY COMMISSION ENQUIRY CONCERNING RAILWAY STATIONS.

A Hull Jeweller Charged With Recieving Stolen Goods—South Africa Has Adopted the Lemieux Disputes Act.

Ottawa, April 21.—The railway commission is inquiring at all the stations of Canada as to their proper keeping, the accommodation, and what rules respecting posting of train arrivals are kept. There are complaints that agents do not always give correct information as to late trains, etc.

Henri Pinault, jeweller of Hull, was charged with receiving quantities of stolen goods, to-day, and the case was adjourned. There are many developments expected from this arrest, probably connecting Pinault with many recent robberies.

South Africa has decided to adopt the Lemieux act in regard to disputes in that colony, no word has been received in Ottawa.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.

The Late Thomas Robinson, of Storrington.

The death of Thomas Robinson occurred on Monday, 20th, after two months' illness. Deceased was one of the oldest and most respected residents of Storrington. He was ninety-seven years of age on his last birthday and was the first settler in that section. He lived there for seventy-five years. He was one of the first pioneers, having hewed his home out of the forest when there were no settlers within miles of him. There was no man better known or more highly respected. By his kind acts and genial ways he made many friends. Mr. Robinson was a veteran defender of his country, having served in the rebellion of '37 and '38, and again at the Fenian Raid of '66.

Mr. Robinson was a life-long supporter of the conservative party and a great friend of Sir John A. Macdonald, having known him from boyhood. He was also a man of great moral principles and would not stoop to any mean act. He was upright and honourable in all his dealings. He leaves a wife, one son and five daughters to mourn his death. He has passed the river laden with years and crowned with honor and respect.

Death of H. B. Beswick.

The death occurred at 16 Gore street, this morning, of Henry B. Beswick. The deceased was born in England forty-three years ago, coming to Kingston with his family two years ago. He was a baker by trade and had been working steadily until six months ago, when he was taken ill, and since then he was a patient suffering from an incurable disease. A wife and six children are left to mourn his loss. The deceased was a member of the First Congregational church.

MARINE NEWS.

The Items Gathered About the Harbour.

The steamer Kennebog is getting into shape for a trip to Oswego. There was a thick coating of ice in the Queen street slip, this morning. The steamer Ames will clear for Montreal as soon as the canal is open.

The sloop Laura D. arrived, to-day, from Simeon Island with baled hay for local merchants.

The steamer Barr arrived at the ship dock, this morning, with 1,000 tons of coal, from Charlotte.

The steamer Althea arrived from Picton at ten o'clock, this morning, and left at three o'clock for Belleville.

The sloop Maggie L. cleared from Richardsons with grain for the Glenora mills, but owing to the strong wind had to return. Another start will be made later in the day if the weather conditions are favorable.

Practically all the sailors of Kingston have left the city. At headquarters it was reported that only six members were now in the city, and that they would be leaving in the course of a few days.

Resigned, Not Dismissed.

Toronto Globe.—Premier Whitney denies that Sheriff Hope of Hastings county was dismissed either to make room for W. B. Morrison, M.P.P., or for any other reason. When seen at parliament buildings yesterday, Mr. Whitney said: "Sheriff Hope was not dismissed. His resignation was brought before the government and accepted in the usual course. No steps were taken to induce Mr. Hope to resign, and the arrival of his voluntary resignation was the first I heard of the matter."

The Same Old Story.

A woman and two young children, from Peterboro, who went over to Cape Vincent on Monday, were brought back to-day. The immigration officers refused to let them land in the States. The woman stated that she was on her way to Clayton, to see her son, who was employed there.

Basketball Team.

The Hamilton Basketball team which plays at the Y.M.C.A. to-night, arrived in the city this forenoon, in time for the laying of the cornerstone of the new armories. Sir Frederick Horner will officiate.

Went To Peterboro.

Col. Gordon and Col. Young went to Peterboro, to-day, to attend the Easter Monday dance at the Yacht Club. It was a great success, music and floor good, and everybody present ready for an evening's enjoyment. Mrs. Eva Martin charmed the audience.
