A CABINET OF SILVER
PRESENTED TO ALDERMAN T. J. RIGNEY.

By the City Council in Honor of His Approaching Marriage—The Mayor and Aldermen Enjoyed a Dinner.

There was a private gathering of the members of the city council, Friday evening, in the council chamber, eighteen members being present. On this occasion the city fathers did not assemble to worry over business affairs, but to spend a pleasant evening together.

The proceedings were opened by Mayor Ross, who, on behalf of the council, presented Ald. T. J. Rigney with a handsome cabinet of silver, in honor of his approaching marriage. The mayor made a neat speech, congratulating Mr. Rigney on the step he was taking, saying that he was glad to see him join the majority, as most of the men who sat around the horseshoe had taken unto themselves a wife.

Ald. Rigney was taken completely by surprise, and was visibly affected by the kind expression from his colleagues. He thanked the mayor and members of the council for their beautiful gift.

After this pleasant occurrence, the members sat down to a pleasant little supper. After ample justice had been done to the good things provided, and cigars had been passed around, a couple of hours were spent in story and song. The pleasant affair was brought to a close about eleven o'clock.

BASEBALL MATTERS.
The Local Teams Are Getting Into Condition.

The Victoria baseball team had a fine practice on Friday evening, at Victoria Park. The men are all out and are showing up well. Both senior and junior teams will be composed of good snappers, who should hold their record of last year.

Many other city teams are working every fine evening, getting into shape for the opening of the season. One or two new teams will, in all probability, enter the league on Monday evening. The new teams will be welcomed in both senior and junior series, as one or two teams are needed in each.

On Monday night the executive of the Kingston Baseball Club will meet at the Randolph hotel, when the schedule will be submitted. Other business will be transacted and every team should have its representative on hand, as this meeting will be one of the most important during the season.

Baseball in the city would be greatly improved if some one would form a junior league, for young players—the school boys' league. It would get the youngsters interested in the game and would train them up for future work in senior ranks. At one time Kingston was as noted in the field of sport for her ball teams as she was for her football, or any other form of amateur sport, and this old-time notoriety should be brought back to the city.

Good ball will be played in the City League, and it will be kept up from year to year, so we need a graduating class into it every year, as men will be taken from the junior and put into the senior teams, and juniors will be needed to fill up.

Y.M.C.A. LADIES' AUXILIARY.
Regular Monthly Meeting Held on Friday.

The usual monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. took place Friday afternoon, in the members' parlor. There was a good attendance. Mrs. R. B. Toys, president, was in the chair. The meeting took the form of a thanksgiving meeting. Mrs. R. B. Nelles gave a suitable address along this line, which was greatly appreciated. Miss Edwards sang a solo very sweetly. Mr. Nelles gave a brief address, outlining a recent trip to the provincial convention at Stratford.

The auxiliary is providing the funds for the extensive repairs now being carried out in the building. When these are completed the local association will be in a position to offer the greatest inducements possible to the young men and boys of Kingston, who wish to gain for themselves a clean, wholesome atmosphere, free from the questionable surroundings generally found in public places. The ladies are doing a splendid work and their sympathy and practical help in a large measure accounts for the increased activity of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Had To Decline.
Archdeacon Carey has been asked to take charge of St. Paul's church, Charlottetown, P.E.I., during the rector's absence at the Pan-Canadian congress, but was obliged to decline, owing to indisposition.

The Perfect Complexion
Can it Be Obtained if Nature Has Not Bestowed It?

Every month the magazine published by the famous Beauty Culture, tells how to improve the face and figure. The manufacturers of face creams, lotions and cosmetics spend hundreds of thousands of dollars telling women how they can beautify themselves. It is probably the most sensible of the many formulas and receipts given by the Beauty Specialist is a simple way that can easily be prepared by any woman in her own kitchen. The following are the directions for making:

Obtain at your drug store Rose Water, two ounces; Cologne Water, one ounce; Epsom's (sulfate), four ounces. Put the Epsom's in a pint of hot water (not boiling), and after dissolved, strain and let cool. Then add the Rose Water and Cologne.

It is claimed for this home-made complexion wash that it will tone up the skin, making it soft and smooth, and bring back the bloom of youth to even the most faded complexion. At any rate it is worth trying, as it is not expensive and cannot possibly injure the most delicate skin.

SUCCUMBED AT LAST.
Mrs. R. S. Dobbs Passed Away Last Night.

The dreaded news, which all knew must come shortly, was told, on Saturday morning, when grieving friends heard that Mrs. R. S. Dobbs had at last given up in the fight against disease, and had died on Friday night, at eleven o'clock, at the general hospital. To the last the gallant spirit held out, with ever a bright word for nurses, friends and relations. Sunday morning she was taken to the hospital. Mrs. Dobbs, who left Kingston in June, 1906, had been ill for eight months. She was operated upon in the hospital, at Seattle, on the first day of February, and recovered sufficiently to be brought home among dear and loving friends. Mrs. Dobbs was the widow of the late R. S. Dobbs, who was born December 28th, 1847, in Montreal. Her maiden name was Isabella M. M. Bell, and she was the eldest child of the late Rev. George Bell, LL.B., ex-registrar of Queen's, her mother's maiden name being Miss Mary Whiteford. She was educated at Miss Lyman's school, Montreal, finishing at Strasburg, Germany. She went to India in 1875, to keep house for her brother, Maj. Bell-Whiteford. She was married on January 17th, 1880, to R. S. Dobbs, C. E., second son of the late Maj. Gen. R. S. Dobbs, of Knockdolian, county Wicklow, Ireland. She was the mother of three children, Whiteford Stewart Dobbs, Alice Cathcart Dobbs, who died in infancy, and Gerald George Dobbs, both sons living, and with their mother at the last. The funeral of one who was near and dear to all of her many friends, will take place from "Willow Cottage," on Monday morning at ten o'clock.

Chicken Thieves At Work.
The chicken thieves are still at work. A bird fancier in the upper end of the town heard a noise in his hen house about ten-thirty last evening, and upon going out to investigate saw two men running away. He gave chase, but could not catch the men. He was in a time to stop them from getting any fowl, as they had just got in when he surprised them.

That man comes pretty near being a Christian who makes a practice of offending the devil.

THE ORDERS ISSUED CONCERNING THE TROOPS FOR QUEBEC.

Col. Gordon Tells What Troops Are to Go and the Conditions—To Reach Quebec on Monday, July 20th.

The following order was issued on Friday, by Colonel W. D. Gordon, O.C., E.O.L., to the commanding officer of the various corps of this military district:

The following conditions will govern the selection of contingents proceeding to Quebec to take part in the Tercentenary celebration:

1—Regimental Officers and Warrant Officers—Officers provisionally appointed will be excluded. With that exception, all officers and warrant officers borne on the training establishment will be permitted to attend.

2—Brigade staffs will perform their annual training at Quebec, under the following conditions, which apply to all arms and branches, the Army Service Corps excepted: (a) Bands, if taken to camp, to be limited to twenty musicians. (b) Non-commissioned officers and men (musicians accepted), as follows: Field artillery, 60 per cent.; other units 50 per cent. of the training establishment, but restricted to such as have attended camp, with their present training units, at least once within the past three years. Buglers and trumpeters must be included in the 50 per cent. to the extent of, for cavalry, three, artillery, two, and infantry, five. (c) Pay and allowances should be a famous field here for ambitious dramatists. Being a good subject of the king I am willing to do my best towards helping Canadians in this.

3—City corps who desire to take part will be given the following alternative conditions: Bands to be limited to twenty musicians. Non-commissioned officers and men (musicians excepted), at 50 per cent. of the training establishment, including buglers, who will be restricted to five per regiment. Pay and allowances for a period of eight days, counting days spent in transportation to and from Quebec, this to be in full of annual pay for the year. Subsistence for days necessarily absent from their headquarters. Transportation free, to and from Quebec, under arrangements to be made by the quartermaster-general's department. Non-commissioned officers and men at their full training establishment. Pay and allowances for a period of four days and to be in full of pay and allowance for the year. Subsistence for a period not exceeding eight days, counting days spent in transportation to and from Quebec, subject to approval from headquarters, may be arranged by the corps concerned, in which cases the cost of transportation, calculated at the government contract rates will be allowed. In either of these alternatives, unless they arrive at Quebec by Monday, July 20th, and must not depart from that station until the evening of July 24th.

4—Army Service Corps companies will perform their annual training at Quebec, under the following conditions: (a) Non-commissioned officers and men at their full training establishment. Pay, allowances and subsistence limited to a period of sixteen days, counting days spent in transportation to and from Quebec, under arrangements to be made by the quartermaster-general's department.

5—City corps who desire to take part will be given the following alternative conditions: Bands to be limited to twenty musicians. Non-commissioned officers and men (musicians excepted), at 50 per cent. of the training establishment, including buglers, who will be restricted to five per regiment. Pay and allowances for a period of eight days, counting days spent in transportation to and from Quebec, this to be in full of annual pay for the year. Subsistence for days necessarily absent from their headquarters. Transportation free, to and from Quebec, under arrangements to be made by the quartermaster-general's department. Non-commissioned officers and men at their full training establishment. Pay and allowances for a period of four days and to be in full of pay and allowance for the year. Subsistence for a period not exceeding eight days, counting days spent in transportation to and from Quebec, subject to approval from headquarters, may be arranged by the corps concerned, in which cases the cost of transportation, calculated at the government contract rates will be allowed. In either of these alternatives, unless they arrive at Quebec by Monday, July 20th, and must not depart from that station until the evening of July 24th.

6—Transportation—Officers commanding city corps will be held responsible that they enter into no agreement which may interfere with the transportation arrangements to be made by the quartermaster-general's department, and should it be in contemplation to move any body of troops, under regimental arrangements, through any portion of the United States, the fact must be notified at an early date in order that the necessary permission may be obtained from the United States government.

7—Quarters and Subsistence—It must be distinctly understood that all the corps, while at Quebec, shall be quartered and sustained under canvas, in such localities as they may be told off to.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"Our Boys" to Be Produced Monday Evening.
Canadian playwrights have never before had such a chance to test the merit of their work as the one recently offered them by William Sauter, director and leading man of the Royal Alexandra English players, who will visit Kingston presenting "Our Boys," at the Grand on Monday, April 27th, direct from their phenomenal run this season at America's most beautiful theatre, the Royal Alexandra, Toronto. Mr. Sauter, who is a good staunch Britisher, was struck with Canada's possibilities when he first visited the country and concluded that there were not more plays written by Canadian writers. Partly as an experiment, partly for his own personal benefit, he made an offer some weeks ago to play or have produced any play submitted to him providing they had possibilities, and since that time he has received many manuscripts from all over Canada, most of which he is at present considering. Of these "The Sword of Brimble," by Clifford Smith, of Montreal, will probably be the first produced.

Wheel Recruits Among Club Men.
"Of course I have been hearing more or less about the revival of interest in bicycling, but I did not take much stock in the proposition until recently," remarked a member of the New York Athletic Club to a knot of acquaintances. "I was over at the club recently, about four o'clock, and was surprised to see a number of riders starting out on their wheels, and was also amazed to see the activity that prevailed the place. I heard more bike talk in five minutes than I had heard before in five years. Well, I had a wheel there myself, that I had almost forgotten that I owned, and I ordered it cleaned up, and went out with the bunch the next afternoon. The trouble I had keeping up with the rest of the parade was something of a jar to my self-respect, for I was in the likely class once. The fact is, I am carrying a little too much flesh. I have been neglecting a good thing for several years, but it will be the wheel for me again this summer."

Made An Honorary Member.
At the annual convention of the Ontario Educational Association, this week in the address of J. Elliott, of Kingston, on "Citizen Making, The Mission of The School," the department gave him a distinguished honor, the third granted since 1887, that of an honorary member. The resolution unanimously passed read:

"Moved by J. H. Laughton, of Parkhill, seconded by John E. Farewell, of Whitty, that as some slight token of our appreciation of the services of J. G. Elliott, of Kingston, he be made an honorary member of this department."

What Causes Boils?
Most people say a run-down condition. The actual cause is the invasion of bacteria around the hair follicle. If in poor health, the cure takes longer. No treatment is more efficacious than Dr. Hamilton's Ointment, which sinks into the core of the boil—destroys bacteria—relieves the pain—dries up the humor—prevents other boils from developing. For pimples, blackheads and any other disease, Dr. Hamilton's Ointment is simply perfect. Sold by all druggists, in 50c. boxes.

Medicals Celebrated.
A large number of students were on the warpath on Friday evening, especially in the faculty of medicine. Some of the medical examinations were passed late last night, and, of course, the boys were all eager to see if their "name" was written there. As soon as the list was carefully gone over, they tore down town to celebrate.

Drunkenness Last Night.
Quite a number of drunks were around on Friday night. On Princess street one could notice numerous men under the influence of liquor. Some were mere boys and one would be surprised at their being around the streets in that state of intoxication. There seems to be no trouble for young boys to secure liquor.
