

MAYOR ROSS' THREAT

To Order Ald. Graham From His City Council Seat.

A Warm Time at the Council Meeting Last Evening--Ald. Graham and Carson Were the "Bad Boys."

For the first time in probably thirty years was the mayor of Kingston called upon to threaten to order a member of the city council from the council chamber for unruly conduct. This occurred last evening, when Mayor Ross, after trying to keep Ald. Graham in order for a couple of hours, members, the McLelland clause was really not a part of it. The mayor held it was, and it was there that the war between Ald. Graham and his worshipful began. Ald. Graham, who is a very vigorous speaker, strongly objected to the mayor's decision, and repeatedly had to be called to order. The mayor was upheld by Aids. Carson and Elliott, and Ald. Carson took every opportunity to draw out Ald. Graham by a little remark here and there. Then when Ald. Hoag referred to Chairman Graham's board of works report as "bull-headed," and Ald. Henderson said that the board should have brought in a more "intelligent" report, this was too much for the Victoria ward representative. Ald. Graham got back at Ald. Carson, when the latter said that he understood the manhood block on Clarence street, built last year had cost $1,500, and it was now in bad shape on top.

"If you voted to pass that $1,500 which you allege it cost, then you're no fit man to be at this council board," thundered Ald. Graham. "Oh, you've said that once before," replied Ald. Carson sarcastically. "Yes I have," acknowledged Ald. Graham, "and it's my opinion of you still."

"Well," shouted Ald. Carson, "I'll tell you later on what I think of you. It isn't very much."

The climax came while the eight plant matters were being discussed. Aids. Graham and Carson became involved again, the latter jeeringly and declared emphatically that a final vote remained to protect the dignity of the chair, and that he would be forced to take the step if things went on as they had been doing.

The trouble originated from the board of works report. Ald. Graham presented the report, and moved its adoption. In it was a clause granting $50 increase to Assistant City Engineer McLelland. Two members who signed the report (Aids. Graham and Nettle) had objected to that clause, and accordingly held that as the whole report was not signed by four

Long Since

Every good business man is free to confess that advertising pays--simply because the abundance of evidence at every hand is to any man of reason undeniable proof. An anti-advertiser is therefore a man who believes he is wiser than all the advertisers combined or else when not advertising--knowing that it pays--confesses to an inability to conduct his own business as he knows it should be conducted. The Whig ad man is always glad to serve--in fact that is what he is here for.

UNITY OF ACTION

Among the Paper Men As to Price Required.

Washington, April 28.--Evidence tending to show there has been unity of action among the paper men in fixing the price of the paper as well as an understanding that none of them shall sell to the customer of another, that contracts for paper could not be obtained for a period longer than one year, and that the mills had arbitrarily shut down or restricted their output, was presented by John Norris of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, before the select house committee, which is investigating the price of print paper as affected by the tariff, and the question of whether or not there is a combination in restraint of trade. Mr. Norris was on the stand the entire day.

TOLD LOVE ROMANCE

The Grand Duke Says Royalty is Not Always Happy.

Wealth is Not the Only Happiness in the World --The Terrible Lottery Marriage is in Their Social Position.

London, April 28.--Grand Duke Michael Michaelovitch has written a novel entitled "Never Say Die," which will be published here, on April 29th. The book practically tells the story of the grand duke's own love romance and exile for marrying, organically, though the hero is represented as a German prince, who is compelled to meet the enemy of his family, by marrying below his rank. The novel is dedicated to "My wife."

In the course of the preface he wishes, from a standpoint of a member of a royal family, to prove how wrong the world is in thinking that persons of his position are the happiest things on earth. He admits there are well placed, financially, but he asks if wealth is the only happiness in the world?

THE REPORT IS FALSE.

But the Tribes Bound to Have Vengeance.

Paris, April 28.--A despatch from Tangier, to the Echo de Paris, says that the report of Raulin's death is false. It is true, the despatch says, that a band of Ellemes fired a volley at him from behind the tomb, but Raulin was not hit. The tribes has sworn vengeance against the bandit chief, because, although they had been ravaged by the imperial troops for sheltering Raulin after the capture of Kaid Marlean, he refused them any share of the ransom.

To Shut Out Non-Catholics.

Biale, major domo, that in future not only will papal audiences be restricted, but only Catholics will be admitted to hear the pope's mass.

ANGLICANS AND REUNION.

Archbishop Sweetman Defines Attitude of Church.

Toronto, April 28.--In a sermon, last night, Archbishop Sweetman defined the attitude of the Church of England towards the question of reunion, particularly towards the Presbyterians and Methodists, as being one of "cordial recognition of the Christian work they have done and are doing which bears so manifestly the seal of God's blessing on it and a readiness to confer with them, taking our stand upon the four points which we hold essential."

NOT UNDER CONTRACT

The Japanese Cannot Enter Canada Under Such Terms.

The Commission Will Enquire Into All Matters Affecting the Transcontinental Railway--Who Will Affix Label on Canned Goods.

From Our Own Correspondent. Ottawa, April 28.--In the commons, yesterday afternoon, an interesting statement was made by Hon. Roderic Lemieux, and correspondence read, regarding the proposed foundation of a Japanese colony in British Columbia. Amongst the correspondence was a letter on the subject from the late Charles Drinkwater, of the C.P.R.

The correspondence showed that a Japanese gentleman, who owned a block of land on the Pacific coast, proposed to sell this for the purpose of having it divided into lots which would be farmed by Japanese agriculturists who are at present in the Philippines.

Mr. Oliver's reply to this was that if these Japanese agriculturists were coming to Canada under contract they would not be allowed to land, as this was contrary to Canadian law.

The matter, therefore, rests at this point, nothing further having ensued.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier announced that the committee to inquire into the charges of Major Hodgins against the National Transcontinental railway, for reckless extravagance and "graft," would be composed of Messrs. Carvell, E. M. Macdonald and Geofrin (liberals), and Barker and Lennox (conservatives).

Mr. Borden asked that the inquiry be not limited to the special charges contained in Major Hodgins' letters, and Sir Wilfrid replied that it would include all charges.

Mr. McInnery was informed that the government had under consideration a one-cent drop-letter rate for cities in Canada.

A discussion took place in committee on the bill regarding labels on canned goods, the question being whether the retailer or the wholesaler should affix the labels, and the bill was referred back to the committee for further consideration. The proposed measure affects the Niagara district and British Columbia particularly.

No Application Yet.

Ottawa, April 28.--Although no application has yet reached the labor department for the appointment of any board of investigation and conciliation under the Lemieux act, in the case of the trouble among C.P.R. employees in the west, the department has reason to believe that such an application will be made on behalf of the workmen involved. The department can do nothing till it has been appealed to in the matter. In the meantime the necessary forms in connection with an application for the appointment of a board under the Lemieux act have been sent west. J. D. O'Donoghue, legislative agent of the National Trades and Labor Congress, has been asked to represent the railway men on the proposed investigation.

CONDEMNED TO HANG.

Convicted of Poisoning His Wife in Quebec.

Quebec, April 28.--The verdict of the jury in the case of Omer Rochette, was rendered, at 10:30 o'clock, this morning. Rochette was found guilty of having poisoned his wife, on the 17th of November last, and was, immediately condemned to be hung. Saturday, June 27th, at 8 a.m., at the common jail of the district, Mr. Greenhalgh, who had objected to certain parts of the evidence made to the jury, yesterday, asked Judge Cross to make a motion for a suspension of the sentence, but did not succeed. Asked if he had anything to say against the verdict before the sentence, Omer Rochette, who did not seem to be the least moved, replied that he had nothing to say. The court was crowded and the verdict was a surprise because the general opinion was that the jury would disagree. The case may go in appeal.

Hon. Dr. Willoughby Passed Away on Tuesday.

Brighton, Ont., April 28.--Hon. Dr. W. A. Willoughby, M.P.P., of Colborne, passed quietly away at his residence at 5 a.m. to-day. The doctor has been ill for some time and hopes for his recovery have been very slight. Dr. Willoughby was a staunch conservative but had hosts of friends on both sides of the house who will keenly feel the loss of a genial friend.

TO RUN FOR DUNDEE.

Winston Churchill Will Have a Safe Liberal Seat.

WINSTON CHURCHILL.

London, April 28.--Winston Churchill, president of the board of trade, who was defeated in his old constituency, the north-west division of Manchester, has accepted an invitation to contest Dundee where there is a vacancy caused by the elevation of the Right Hon. Edmond Robertson to the peerage. This is one of the safest liberal seats in the United Kingdom. Mr. Churchill's chief opponent will be Sir George Baxter, a unionist, but it is likely that the labor and prohibition parties will have candidates in the field.

HOPEFUL IN MONTREAL.

Sanguine That Negotiations Will Bear Fruit.

Montreal, April 28.--The Dominion Coal and Dominion Steel interests are counting a great deal on the part in the peace negotiations being played by William Mackenzie. Mr. Plummer had a long chat with Senator Forth and the steel interests on Saturday, and the opinion here is that the negotiations will proceed more smoothly, and that more rapid progress is likely. Mr. Ross and Mr. Plummer held a meeting in New York, yesterday, in order to meet the convenience of Mr. Mackenzie, and after that they will likely return to Toronto.

A FIEND INCARNATE

Officers of French Cruiser Tell of Horrors of Executions in Hayti.

New York, April 28.--The French cruiser D'Estrees is in port from Hayti where the ship was sent at the time of the recent attempted revolution to look after French interests. Officers of the ship have many stories to tell of the revolution.

While at Port Au Prince, Hayti, the D'Estrees was the haven of eighty refugees, and the officers told yesterday of the horrors of the nocturnal execution on March 15th of a group of men accused of attempting to organize a revolution a few days after President Nord Alexis had quelled a rising against his army.

There were not enough graves dug for all the persons who were shot, and one prominent merchant had to sit and watch the soldiers dig his future burial place. As the firing squad was in a hurry his grave was dug only of sufficient size to allow him to be buried with his arms and legs together. The bullets failed to kill him and he was jammed into the hole which was yet too small. Then the grave diggers pushed him in with their shovels, and while they were covering him he sought to protest by moving his hands.

Spring Thoughts

Your very dress expresses them, not completely of course, but at least in part. Isn't there a striking symbolism in your discarding that which has lost its newness and freshness, and in taking on a brighter, fresher and more beautiful garment, that you may be in harmony with the new life about you, and be a part of it.

There is a befitting reflection in the newness, beauty and distinctness of all our
